- Rise of extremism in a public space (Central Europe)

Workflow during the segmented education process

Students will attend structured presentations, specific exercises, discussions in small groups, simulations and role play. Through these activities, the students will gather information about trends and perspectives of: development cooperation, forms of peaceful conflict resolution and they will familiarize themselves with practical skills in negotiation within a sensitive, developmental and culturally sensitive context.

The simulations will be supervised by Slovak as well as international lecturers. This will mean that Slovak and English language will be the primary means of communication.
