| Learning outcomes:The purpose of this course is to take learners with no previous knowledge of Dutch to an advanced level of reading comprehension and translation competence. The target readership includes students, preferably who have a stable knowledge of German and/or Scandinavian languages, as well as researchers, translators and interpreters and everyone who could have a strong interest and motivation to work with Dutch written sources, such as items in the Dutch and Flemish press, academic publications, or the reams of archival materials that exist both inside and outside the Netherlands. |                                                     |

| Recommended literature:We use as basic source material the textbook Dutch for Reading knowledge (C. Van Baalen, e.a.), starting with texts of architecture and design, secularization and social issues, migration, water management, postcolonial Netherlands, and the Dutch Golden Age (seventeenth century). Each themed chapter is then based around three texts taken from newspapers, magazines, books, or Internet sources. These engaging excerpts provide insights on historical and contemporary issues, events, and personalities relating to the Netherlands.                                                 |                                                     |

| Recommended literature:We use as basic source material the textbook Dutch for Reading knowledge (C. Van Baalen, e.a.), starting with texts of architecture and design, secularization and social issues, migration, water management, postcolonial Netherlands, and the Dutch Golden Age (seventeenth century). Each themed chapter is then based around three texts taken from newspapers, magazines, books, or Internet sources. These engaging excerpts provide insights on historical and contemporary issues, events, and personalities relating to the Netherlands.                                                                                            |                                                     |
