Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture + seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: I., II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: The following course is designed to introduce the political system of Ukraine and its applicative functioning. Students will be able to find out what political regime exists in Ukraine, how the parliament and the government operate, what are the reasons of the tragic events of 2013/2014 in Ukraine and what challenges are present in Ukraine's foreign policy. The foreign policy challenges include Ukraine's cooperation with the European Union and the relations with the Russian Federation. At the end of the course, students will be able to generally define Ukraine's political system and the country's place on the international political arena.
Class syllabus: What the Ukrainian state is. Brief history – extended content. Ukraine before the communist revolution in 1917. Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic: struggling to survive in the USSR. Independent Ukraine: the Constitution and political regime. The institution of presidency and the Cabinet of Ministers in Ukraine. The fourth power: oligarchic groups and their role in Ukraine's political life. The Orange Revolution in 2004: ready, steady – but no volunteers to go. The foreign policy vector one: Western dimension. Ukraine and the European Union. The foreign policy vector two: Eastern dimension. Ukraine and Russia. Euromaidan 2013/2014: timeline and causes. The annexation of the Crimea and the crisis of 2014

- Rise of extremism in a public space (Central Europe)

Workflow during the segmented education process

Students will attend structured presentations, specific exercises, discussions in small groups, simulations and role play. Through these activities, the students will gather information about trends and perspectives of: development cooperation, forms of peaceful conflict resolution and they will familiarize themselves with practical skills in negotiation within a sensitive, developmental and culturally sensitive context.

The simulations will be supervised by Slovak as well as international lecturers. This will mean that Slovak and English language will be the primary means of communication.
