Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 2.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: active participation in class, student presentations, two written works due during semester (preliminary assessment), one written work due in the exam period (final assessment); a minimum average score of 60% is required to pass the subject in both the preliminary and the final assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 60/40
Learning outcomes: Learning to use one's English language skills in the key areas (reading, writing, speaking, and listening) at a deeper level when talking about current issues in society
Class syllabus:
Recommended literature: The class will deal with current issues of global and national importance, and will require some amount of engagement with the recommended reading for each week. The main reading sources are from the Reuters news agency as well as The Economist, The Guardian, and other media outlets. Students are encouraged to do additional reading from other sources of quality. Each class will involve individual oral presentations, class discussions and writing workshops. More information can be found on the subject's webpage in the Moodle application.
