COURSE DESCRIPTION

University: Comenius University in Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KAA/A-mpAN-302/15	Course title: Literary Translation 1
Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 1.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Interim assignments, final translation Minimum limit to pass: 60 %
Learning outcomes: Students get familiar with the most important methods and types of problems in working on literary translations, as well as immediate practical experience with more complex translation processes of literary texts into different discourses and genres: prose, poetry, drama.
Class syllabus: The object of the subject is to emphasize the irreplaceable role of literary translation in intercultural communication, as well as in cultivating the domestic cultural tradition and its literary language. The theoretical part of the syllabus defines the specifics of literary translation in relation to pragmatic translation, while at the same time it defines the basic phases and aspects of the process of literary translation. Students acquire advanced knowledge of translation theory, list of notions, but predominantly in the practical part they will be introduced both as a team and individuals into translation methods and key types of problems of translating which literary translators must potentially tackle. Through working with particular literary texts students will be introduced into the basic methods and phases of translating fiction, i.e. prose, drama and poetry and the live translation process will be used to demonstrate the translation issues as follows: 1. the importance of the translation conception for the success of the translation; 2. complexity of translating polysemantic texts 3. looking for functional equivalence at momentum identity of a literary piece 4. complexity of translating culturally specific texts 5. issue of polyphony and intention 6. translation in intercultural communication 7. philosophy of translating as a style paradigm transfer 8. translating intertextual continuities
