| Learning outcomes:Students will get a general overview of British history, political unification and constitutional developments and will be able to interconnect them with the present and identify those aspects of the culture and way of life in the country which stem from the past. Students will also acquire greater familiarity with the existing system, institutions and current affairs. They will be able to draw a comparison between Britain and Slovakia and apply the acquired knowledge to the pedagogical process. |       |                                                                |      |       |       |

| Learning outcomes:Students will get a general overview of British history, political unification and constitutional developments and will be able to interconnect them with the present and identify those aspects of the culture and way of life in the country which stem from the past. Students will also acquire greater familiarity with the existing system, institutions and current affairs. They will be able to draw a comparison between Britain and Slovakia and apply the acquired knowledge to the pedagogical process. |      |                                                                |       |      |      |

| Recommended literature:The class will deal with current issues of global and national importance, and will require some amount of engagement with the recommended reading for each week. The main reading sources are from the Reuters news agency as well as The Economist, The Guardian, and other media outlets. Students are encouraged to do additional reading from other sources of quality. Each class will involve individual oral presentations, class discussions and writing workshops. More information can be found on the subject's webpage in the Moodle application. |     |       |                                                   |      |      |      |

| Learning outcomes:The improvement of translation skills by means of assigned translations of nonfiction and literary texts from English into Slovak. The emphasis will be put on the work with the original and its interpretation, the identification of passages that may be problematic for a translator, the evaluation of a possible translation thereof and the choice of the best solution. Equally important is the improvement of the work with the translation, especially the choice of stylistically appropriate expressions, as well as the grammatical and stylistic correctness of the translation. Students will also acquaint themselves with the work of proofreaders and through exercises and articles refine their practical knowledge of Slovak language. |                                                  |

| Learning outcomes:The improvement of translation skills by means of assigned translations of various nonfiction, technical and legal texts from English into Slovak. The emphasis will be put on the work with the original and its interpretation, the identification of passages that may be problematic for a translator, the evaluation of a possible translation thereof and the choice of the best solution. Equally important is the improvement of the work with the translation, especially the choice of stylistically appropriate expressions, as well as the grammatical and stylistic correctness of the translation. Students will also acquaint themselves with the work of proofreaders and through exercises and articles refine their practical knowledge of Slovak language. |                                                  |
| Class syllabus:The analysis of expressions from the point of view of translation, interpretation of the original, identification of problematic passages, comparison of the original and the translation including the already published translations, discussion on the used expressions, the most common translation mistakes, the work with already translated text – its editing, exercises to improve Slovak language, proofreading.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                  |
