It focuses on the didactic aspects of creative writing as a method that can be used in teaching of Slovak language and literature, foreign language and literature as well as in teaching of other social sciences and humanities at all levels of education. Creative writing is presented as a creative methodology, which fosters the development of learner's capacities to research and explore creatively and which cultivates the personality of a learner by means of self-expression, self-understanding, self-reflection and self-learning. The key theoretical assumptions lying behind the creative writing approach will be introduced, but the main focus will be learning by doing – students will practise writing in a wide range of creative activities and etudes. After finishing the course the students will <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• get an overview of what creativity is and what are the basic principles of enhancing creativity at schools;</li> <li>• learn some techniques enhancing general writing competence as well as literary competence,</li> <li>• be able to reflect on the creative process and creative products,</li> <li>• be able to apply the learned knowledge and skills to their own academic and creative activities.</li> </ul> The course can be opted for mainly by students of pre-service teacher training programmes.

Course ID: FiF.KAA/A-muAN-401/15	Course title: English Language Teaching Methodology
Number of credits: 3
Educational level: D, II., N
Course requirements: Conditions for successful completion of course: All matters pertaining to state examinations (conditions of the examination, deadlines, assessment, examination board, participation) are set out in Article 15 of the Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts. One component of state examinations in the MA teaching degree programme at the Department of British and American Studies in English Language Teaching Methodology, which takes the form of a didactic project (lesson plans based on the specifications below), by which the students have to demonstrate their ability to prepare a meaningful lesson plan and, in the course of its defence, to answer relevant questions from the theory of teaching and education. The purpose of the state exams is to determine whether students are well-grounded in English language teaching theory and able to apply it appropriately in the Slovak educational environment. To that end, the student prepares two (2) 45-minute English language lesson plans (template available), with the understanding that one lesson follows the other. Students submit their lesson plans by the deadline set by the department. Any teaching aids that are part of their lesson plans, e.g. pictures, flashcards, etc., must be submitted as well. At the exam explain the theory (or theories) upon which their lesson plans, activities, and assignments are based and their reasonings for laying the lesson out as they did. Examiners may ask questions concerning any aspect of the lesson plans and their objectives, as well as questions about the intended group of learners (i.e., aspects such as the characteristics of that age group, classroom management, and types of interaction). Use of professional terminology is expected. Assessment: Students are assessed on their knowledge of English language teaching methodology and theory as it relates to the components of and factors in their lesson plans. English language proficiency, as well the ability to provide explanations and give instructions appropriately, are also taken into consideration. Level C1 and above is expected. The target students, their educational level, their level of language proficiency (according to CEFR), the group size, and all other variables need for the didactic project (i.e., lesson plans) are determined by lottery. The target group for the second lesson plan does not change, but the following variables can be changed by the student according to their own preference: time of the day, language skill, target language, and topic. Variables A. ## STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2021/2022
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KAA/A-muAN-402/15	Course title: English Philology
Number of credits: 3
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The requirements for a state examination (conditions, dates, assessment, examination board, participation) are set by Article 15 of the Study Regulations at the Faculty of Arts. One of the constitutive parts of the state examination within master's study programmes is an examination in "English Studies". Students in their final year choose one of the following two modules according to their preference and notify their choice to the Department of British and American Studies's secretary by a deadline specified by the department: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Literature module</li><li>• Linguistics module</li></ul> LITERATURE MODULE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Within this module students will be expected to produce a literary research project on a topic they will choose by drawing lots in a manner and at a time specified by the department. The topics are general, for example, freedom, injustice, trust, etc., and they are changed at regular intervals.</li><li>• Students will submit their literary research project in the form of a voice-over Power Point presentation to the department's secretary by a deadline specified by the department, usually 5 days before the date of the state examination. The presentation must include research questions, a thesis statement, and Works Cited (as specified below).</li><li>• The project is required to have a clearly formulated thesis statement related to the topic selected and be argumentative in character. It has to analyze at least 2 primary sources (preferably texts that the students have studied; at least one of them has to be a book) and use at least 4 secondary sources (two of them must be in book format; web sources may be used only as additional material).</li><li>• Students will be expected to offer an analytical view of the selected primary literary texts; therefore, their project needs to be based on an analytical thesis statement. A good thesis statement offers an interpretation of a literary text, is debatable (i.e. someone might disagree with it), but it can be supported by textual evidence.</li><li>• At the defence of the project, students will be expected to respond to questions related to the analyzed literary texts and to their literary, cultural, and historical context. The projects will be assessed based on the following criteria:<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• coherence/structure: 20 %</li><li>• language: 10 %</li><li>• presentation skills: 10 %</li><li>• analysis/argumentation: 20 %</li><li>• context knowledge: 20 %</li><li>• adequate work with sources: 20 %</li></ul></li></ul> Students will be awarded an automatic FX if they fail to meet one of the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• their projects do not meet the minimum requirements of the assignment, i.e. their projects are not related to the topic they have chosen, they are not based on a thesis statement, and they are not argumentative in character,</li></ul>

- they do not speak a C1 level of English,
- they do not use primary and secondary sources as required (number, reliability),
- they do not refer to the primary and secondary sources listed in their Works Cited.

LINGUISTIC MODULE:

The final State Examination in English Linguistics is an oral examination conducted in English. The set questions should give the students who choose this module the opportunity to

- demonstrate the ability to present analytically the linguistic phenomena in question and their role at the corresponding language levels;
- demonstrate how they master synthetic interpretation and relevant argumentation in the phenomena's systemic contexts and communication functions;
- demonstrate the ability to come up with their own findings and observations alongside the subject matter;
- demonstrate the ability of contrastively evaluating the language situation in comparison with Slovak;
- in case of thematic relevance of the given question, to demonstrate the ability to exemplify the theory on the means of expression in the written text, which will be provided to the student before the beginning of the preparation for the exam.

The evaluation criteria of the linguistic module presuppose the answering of questions at a level that corresponds to the graduate's profile of the given study program, and are as follows:

- a thought-through and clear concept of an answer;
- the meeting of the above requirements in relation to the question;
- coherence of speech;
- appropriate CEFR level (approx. C1).

As part of the state examination, the student randomly draws one of the 10 questions that have been announced in advance by the department:

1. Characteristic features of vowels and consonants./Charakteristické vlastnosti samohlások a spoluhlások.
2. Characteristic features of suprasegmental phonological means (stress, rhythm and intonation)./Charakteristické vlastnosti suprasegmentálnych fonologických javov (prízvuk, rytmus, melódia).
3. Word-formation processes in English./Slovotvorné procesy v angličtine.
4. Paradigmatic lexical relations between words./Paradigmatické lexikálne vzťahy medzi slovami.
5. English collocations and idioms: types, forms, functions and variants./Anglické kolokácie a idiómy: druhy, tvary, funkcie, varianty.
6. English nouns: the form and function of the category of number, definiteness, case and gender./Podstatné mená v angličtine: tvary a funkcie kategórie čísla, určítosti, pádu a rodu.
7. English verbs: the form and function of the category of tense, aspect, mood and voice./Slovesá v angličtine: tvary a funkcie kategórie času, aspektu, spôsobu a slovesného rodu.
8. The form and function of English sentences, clauses and grammatical phrases./Zloženie a funkcie anglických súvetí, viet a fráz.

10. Cross-linguistic problems related to studying, translating and teaching English./Medzijazykové problémy súvisiace so štúdiom, prekladom a výučbou angličtiny.

University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KAA/A-buAN-220/17	Course title: Global Educational Issues
Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: I., II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: The course is designed as an intensive course of 28 full-time teaching hours. Since the goal is practical work in the field of global issues in education and intercultural communication, the course requires active class participation, the ability to discuss and argue the issues discussed in English, and to present one's findings on the basis of the materials read and discussed (50% of the total grade). The other 50% of the grade consists of a final written student response to the knowledge, skills, and attitudes acquired, consisting of a narrative response of approximately 1000-1500 words and a questionnaire with questions about the course. Grading scale: A ≥92% B ≥84% C ≥76% D ≥68% E ≥60% Fx <60% Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: By the end of the course, the student is familiar with specific topics that are relevant to current issues in global education and is able to discuss and write about societal issues potentially related to the practice of teaching. Students will become familiar not only with the global dimension of the contemporary educational process but also with the basics of intercultural communication.
Class syllabus: The course focuses on the introduction and theoretical support of topics that are important for future English language teachers, especially with regard to the intercultural dimension of their profession. The topics of the course vary according to the current issues that (not only) foreign language teachers may encounter in their practice - from issues specific to English-speaking areas (race, colonialism) to specific topics that are increasingly resonating also in the Central European area (human rights issues, ethnic orations, approaches to teaching and discussing so-called sensitive topics, e.g. the Holocaust).

Formally, the course relies on collaboration with academics from international backgrounds as well as NGO staff in relevant fields.

Learning outcomes: Students get familiar with the possibilities the study and use of a language offers to historians. The early modern period is characterized by the growing use of vernacular (“popular,” “national”) languages in written and official culture. For its multicultural character, the Kingdom of Hungary constitutes a very specific case in this respect. Therefore, students become familiar with various aspects of language in society, namely different languages and dialects coexisting together, literary vs colloquial languages, their social and cultural roles, the influence of confessional and political views and the way different language issues reflect in the works of scholars. At the end of the course, students are able to approach language from a historical perspective, in the intentions of methodological approaches of the time and can analyze the social and cultural (i.e. non linguistic) aspects of language.
Class syllabus:

- 1) Theoretical foundations. Language, dialect, sociolect. Language community. Bilingualism and diglossia.
- 2) The beginnings of vernacular written culture in the Middle Ages. Pragmatic literature and literary traditions.
- 3) The Kingdom of Hungary as a multilingual society in the late Middle Ages and early modern times. Latin as the administrative, ecclesiastical and educational language.
- 4) The language of a political community.

Learning outcomes: The student can identify the political situation in Europe after Second World War along with the integration process. He can interpretate the integration of Europe by means of methodological approaches. All students understand the differences between military, political and economic integration as well as interconnections among them. They also have ability to historicize political processes which can often appear as linear. Through working with multiple interpretative approaches, the students have the competencies which enable them to analyse the development of institutions, the role of political actors, and the relevance of the international situation for their mutual interaction. At the same time, European integration is a focal phenomenon whose consequences are often underestimated, not least due to the absence of historical awareness and consequently resulting implications for social ordering.
Class syllabus: 1. Integration efforts before the Second World War 2. Integration as the consequence of the Second World War 3. Economic situation 4. Political will and internal political development in Europe 5. Threat of conflict 7. The social question within the integration process 8. Current problems of European integration 9. Methodological approaches to the integration process 10. Individual milestones in the deepening and widening of integration 11. Acquis Communautaire and political consequences 12. Course requirements: Active participation during classes and work with texts. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: This course hands a significant contribution for the students, primarily through the ability of work with the text as a discourse, as a historical material, and hence as a historical source. That is achieved by means of the methodological tools of intellectual history and the history of political thought, mainly presented by Quentin Skinner, John Pocock, but also by others such as Michael Foucault and John Austin.
Class syllabus: The title of the course consists of two important contributions to the critique of power during the Communist regime in Czechoslovakia - Ladislav Mňačko - How Power Tastes (Ako chutí moc) and Václav Havel - The Power of the Powerless (Moc bezmocných). These are two significant landmarks in the study of intellectual history, which largely determined the form of criticism, both political and extra-political. In addition, the other important texts of Central European provenience are also introduced to the students. These include mostly texts by authors such as Gyorgy Konrád, Adam Michnik, Miroslav Kusý, Ivan Sviták, Jaroslav Šabata, Ágnes Heller, Gyorgy Lukács, Milovan Djilas and many, many others.
