Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Active participation in classes. Working with texts. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Grading scale: 0-59%-FX, 60-67%-E, 68-75%-D, 76-83%-C, 84-91%-B, 92-100%-A Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100%
Learning outcomes: The student can identify the political situation in Europe after Second World War along with the integration process. He can interpretate the integration of Europe by means of methodological approaches. All students understand the differences between military, political and economic integration as well as interconnections among them. They also have ability to historicize political processes which can often appear as linear. Through working with multiple interpretative approaches, the students have the competencies which enable them to analyse the development of institutions, the role of political actors, and the relevance of the international situation for their mutual interaction. At the same time, European integration is a focal phenomenon whose consequences are often underestimated, not least due to the absence of historical awareness and consequently resulting implications for social ordering.
Class syllabus: 1. Integration efforts before the Second World War 2. Integration as the consequence of the Second World War 3. Economic situation 4. Political will and internal political development in Europe 5. Threat of conflict 7. The social question within the integration process 8. Current problems of European integration 9. Methodological approaches to the integration process 10. Individual milestones in the deepening and widening of integration 11. Acquis Communautaire and political consequences 12. Alternative unrealised projects of European integration
