Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 2
Recommended semester: 4.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Antirequisites: FiF.KRom/FRa-40/19
Course requirements: The student receives 100 % of the overall grade within continuous evaluation: 80 % of the grade is composed of the seminar paper and presentation of the selected topic, 20 % active participation in the seminar (reading and commenting on the accompanying texts, discussion on the presented topics). Credits will not be awarded to a student who receives less than 60 % of the overall grade. There are two allowed absences. Grading scale: 100-90: A 89-85: B 84-75: C 74-70: D 69-60: E 59-0: FX Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Evaluation of the subject (continuous/final) 100/0
Learning outcomes: Students know the basic French literary-theoretical concepts necessary for systematic work with literary texts, their interpretation and criticism from the point of view of the author and the reader of literary text. They are able to look at a literary text through different types of intentional reading and interpret text with an aim to further use – literary translation and creation of paratexts. They know how the author (authorial strategies) and the reader (publishing strategies) influence the text. They have an overall view on the meaning of literature, the power of words, and its relationship to social force fields. They are able to use the gained knowledge in translation and editing practice, or in pedagogical practice in literature classes.
Class syllabus: The seminar is held in the form of discussion. Individual topics are studied on the basis of short essays, literary and other French texts, that are discussed in the class and presented on the basis of students' works. Thematic fields:

1. What is literature in the system: basic French concepts in literary studies, literary theory, history of literature and literary criticism
2. Literary-critical instrumentarium, literary reception
3. Author, identity, and modality of authorial strategy in the text
4. Modalities of writing and categories of the narrator
5. Literary mystification
6. What reading literature means: the process of reading and reading strategies
7. Reading levels and types of a reader
8. Relationship among the author→reader-author1→reader1
9. Genre literature translation
10. Children's literature translation
11. Popular literature translation
12. Literature in the social and the cultural context: force fields, reception, censorship, attitudes of engagement

STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KRom/A-boRO-099/21	Course title: Bachelor's Degree Thesis Defence
Number of credits: 12
Educational level: I.
Course requirements: The student must submit the bachelor's thesis within the deadline specified in the schedule of the current academic year for the relevant date of the state exam. The bachelor thesis is submitted in electronic form via AIS. The work must meet the parameters determined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. The provisions of Article 14 of Internal Regulation no. 5/2020 (Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts of Comenius University) apply to the evaluation of the bachelor's thesis. The supervisor of the final thesis and its opponent will prepare evaluations of the bachelor's thesis and propose a grade in the A-FX grading scale, which the student receives a minimum of three working days before the defence. Grading scale: 0-59% -FX, 60-67% -E, 68-75% -D, 76-83% -C, 84-91% -B, 92-100% -A Bachelor thesis evaluation criteria: 1. The contribution of the bachelor's thesis, the fulfilment of the goals of the thesis in its assignment, and the requirements for the content of the bachelor's thesis given by the internal quality system of Comenius University. The following is assessed: demonstration of knowledge and skills, ability to work creatively in the study program, ability applied in the collection, interpretation, and processing of basic scientific literature; in the case of an empirically oriented bachelor's thesis also mastering the application of theoretical principles in practice and verifiability of hypotheses. 2. Originality of the work (bachelor thesis must not be plagiarized, must not infringe the copyrights of other authors); the documentation for the defence of the bachelor's thesis also includes protocols of originality from the CRZP and Theses systems, to the results of which the thesis supervisor and the opponent express their opinions in their evaluations. 3. Correctness and accuracy of citation of used information sources, research results of other authors and group authors, correctness of the description of methods and working procedures of other authors or group authors. 4. Compliance of the structure of the bachelor's thesis with the prescribed composition defined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. 5. Respecting the recommended length of the bachelor's thesis (the recommended length of the bachelor's thesis is usually 30 – 40 standard pages = 54,000 to 72,000 characters, including spaces), the adequacy of the length of the thesis is assessed by the thesis supervisor. 6. Linguistic and stylistic level of work and formal adjustments. The student orally presents the content, achieved goals, and conclusions of the bachelor's thesis, and answers the questions and comments of the thesis supervisor, opponent, or members of the examination committee. The committee will comprehensively evaluate the quality of the bachelor's thesis, assess the method and form of defence, and the student's ability to adequately respond to comments and questions from the evaluations of the thesis supervisor and the opponent. The student receives their final grade based on the average of the assessment of the thesis supervisor and opponent from their evaluations, and the assessment of the examination committee.

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100
Learning outcomes: The student has mastered the basic requirements of writing a scientific text in compliance with the rules of academic ethics, is able to work creatively in the field of study in which he completed the study program, and has adequate knowledge and understanding of the relevant issues. The student can apply his skills in the collection, interpretation, and processing of basic scientific literature, or even in its application in practice, or has the ability to solve a partial task related to the focus of the bachelor's thesis. After a successful defence of the bachelor's thesis, the student is able to logically deal with the theoretical background of the bachelor's thesis and respond to questions relating to the relevant issues.
Class syllabus: 1. The student presents the bachelor's thesis in front of the committee for state exams, the opponent of the bachelor's thesis, and those present. 2. The student responds to comments and questions in the evaluations. 3. The student responds to the questions of the committee for state exams or the questions in a broader debate.
State exam syllabus: The student's ability to defend his/her own procedures, methodology and critical thinking, which he/she has used in the independent creative activity in writing the bachelor's thesis, will be verified.

Course requirements: a) during the teaching part, the student will receive 10 points from the overall grade within continuous evaluation on the basis of active work in the seminar (preparation for the seminar, completion of assignments and exercises, active participation in the teaching process), b) in the examination period, 60 points from the final test, which will correspond to the current material covered and 30 points from the final oral examination (grammatical analysis of a short literary text). Successful completion of the written text is a prerequisite for admission to the oral examination. Credit will not be awarded to a student who obtains less than 60 points from the average calculated from the work on seminar, the final test, and the oral examination. Grading scale: 100-90: A 89-85: B 84-75: C 74-70: D 69-60: E 59-0: FX There are two allowed absences. Exam dates will be announced via AIS no later than the last week of the teaching period. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Evaluation of the subject (continuous/final) 10 %/90 %
Learning outcomes: Upon completion of the course, the student is able to analyse the verb system in French in depth. The verb analysis divided into two semesters offers the student more space for mastering the phenomena that are perceived as crucial, and student becomes more confident in orienting in the subject matter. Student has not only the theoretical knowledge of the functioning of the verb in French, but also practical skills in its use, and in perceiving the differences within the verb system in Slovak and French with regard to translation and interpretation, teaching and editing practice.

Class syllabus:

1. Basic characteristics of the French verb
2. Impersonal verb constructions and defective verbs
3. Morphology of verbs of the first group and its specifics
4. Morphology of verbs of the second group and its specifics
5. Morphology of verbs of the third group and its specifics
6. Conformity of the verb form with subject
7. Conformity of the past participle in the compound past tenses
8. Verb tenses – present tense (tense and aspect use of tenses, stylistic and modal functions)
9. Verb tenses – future tense (tense and aspect use of tenses, stylistic and modal functions)
10. Introduction to past tenses
11. Tense consistency – analysis of tenses within indirect and semi-direct speech
12. Analysis of a literary text in terms of the system of tenses

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Evaluation of the subject (continuous/final) 10 %/90 %
Learning outcomes: Students have theoretical knowledge in the field of French syntax (parsing and analysis of simple sentences and clauses), as well as its specifics in comparison with Slovak. In practical terms students have the skills and confidence to understand and use French polysemantic conjunctions, which helps them to improve their expressive competence. In the same way students are also able to use word order in French and incorporate knowledge from previous seminars when forming sentences. The seminar concludes a look at the linguistic system of French, and students are able to see it in a broader context and connect its different levels in terms of their professional practice (translation and interpreting, teaching and editing).

Class syllabus: 1. Introduction – what is a sentence and what is no longer a sentence? 2. General view of the topic and its terminology 3. Analysis of a simple sentence: the basic structure of a French sentence 4. Types of simple sentences according to modality 5. Compound sentence and juxtaposition 6. Complex sentence (a general view of complex sentence in French) 7. Object subordinate clauses (characteristics and usage) 8. Relative subordinate clauses (the problem of the relative pronoun) 9. Adverbial subordinate clauses (categorisation and view on polysemy of subordinating conjunctions) 10. Indirect interrogative subordinate clauses 11. Complex subordinate clauses without the introductory conjunction (problem of identification) 12. Word order and inversion of the subject in a simple sentence

Learning outcomes: The course is taught by a French lector and after completing the course the student has repeated and mastered the key phenomena of French pronunciation and spelling. As the seminar is aimed at the practical application of theoretical knowledge from the first semester, the student after completing the course has the skills in oral communication, in understanding spoken discourse and written discourse – application of spelling rules, differentiation of old and new spelling. The student has also mastered the difficult phenomena of the French phonetic system for a Slovak student.
Class syllabus:

The seminar is mainly focused on learning and practicing theoretical knowledge and the lector prepares the syllabus of the course according to the needs of the students, but mostly the seminar is based on the following types of exercises and activities listed below:

1. Learning and practicing the French vocalic system
2. Learning and practicing the French consonantal system
3. Reading practice (accent, rhythm, intonation, binding)
4. Listening and transcription
5. Spoken French – listening
6. Spelling exercises and dictations

The student will submit this work in the examination period. The student will be given a choice of topic to work on as instructed by the teacher in the examination period. The topics of the written work are updated regularly. Credits will not be awarded to students who receive less than 60 points of the overall evaluation based on the average calculated from the work class and the final written paper. Grading scale: 100-90: A 89-85: B 84-75: C 74-70: D 69-60: E 59-0: FX The teacher will accept a maximum of two absences. The date and topics of the final work will be announced through AIS no later than in the last week of the instruction period. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 50/50
Learning outcomes: After completing the course, the student is able to work independently with the Aranea language corpora, focusing on Slovak language and the respective Romance language, however, the work with the corpus can also be extended to other languages due to the fact that he/she has acquired a basic universal skill with the tool. He is also able to use the acquired knowledge when working with other electronic language corpora. The work with Aranea corpora is aimed both at deepening the knowledge and skills in the context of practical language proficiency, and the student perceives the corpus as a very good tool, for example, in editorial work, in professional work with language or translation (creating glossaries, checking phenomena in context, comparing translation solutions in the corpus, etc.), as well as in the work of a teacher of a foreign language, where the language corpus has a variety of uses (creation of exercises, illustrative material, reflective grammar, etc.).

Class syllabus:

1. Language corpora and their use
2. Corpus linguistics
3. Annotation of corpora (morphological tagset / morphosyntactic annotation)
4. Simple search
5. Frequency lists and their use
6. Contextual search
7. Collocations (collocation statistics)
8. Collocation analysis / collocations with a phrase
9. CQL language - simple CQL syntax
10. Regular expressions
- 11 - 12. Application of corpus search within the lexical, morphological and syntactic phenomena of Slovak and relevant Romance languages.

Learning outcomes: The course is led by a teacher and focuses on oral communication in the French language and students acquiring and mastering the linguistic competences that result from it. The course is also designed as a complementary seminar to Francúzske jazykové cvičenia 2 and Morfosyntax francúzskeho jazyka 2. After completing this course, the student is able to use the French language effectively in oral speech and becomes confident in various communicative situations. The student thus acquires optimal practical knowledge of the French language in this area.
Class syllabus: The course syllabus is adapted each year to students' needs. The teacher covers the following areas in the oral presentation: 1. The application of grammatical phenomena in different communicative situations.

2. Oral communication in the work field. 3. Oral communication in the private sphere. 4. Narration of events that took place in the past. 5. Description of objects and experiences. 6. Oral synthesis of main ideas. 7. Interpretation of issues and explication. 8. Presentation of self and one's work. 9. Argumentation and expression of opinion. 10. Discussion and open conversation.
Recommended literature: The lecturer works with materials that are relevant to the current topic and present greater or lesser competency demands. There is no need to study the literature.
