The dates of final evaluation will be made public in agreement with the text of the Study Statutes in the last week of the term. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 70 / 30 %.
Learning outcomes: Students will gain orientation on elementary works, crucial authors and theoretical problems of English novel from the the beginning of the 18th century (1720s, since the publication of R. Crusoe by D. Defoe) up to the end of that century (works by L. Sterne and T. Smollett). Students will gain orientation in development of the novel as a new genre in the 18th century. By critical reading and analysing of novels by D. Defoe, S. Richardson, J. Swifta, T. Smollett and H. Fielding students will be acquainted with developmental transformations as a new narrative genre and will understand the role of novel as a tool of representation of a wider social a historical context. Students will be able to analyze literary works on the basis of knowledge of theory of literature and with having a respect to contemporary historical context and the state of English society, they will recognize fundamental compositional and semantic elements of literary work, their meaning and mutual determination and will be able to interpret meaning of literary works from the aspect of global social-historical context. Along with being acquainted with particular literary sources students learn also the most important Slovak translations of the works published by most important Slovak translators.

Class syllabus:

The rise of the genre: Daniel Defoe: Robinson Crusoe and other his works as fundamental works of the given genre which caused the wave of its imitations (so-called Robinsonades).

Satirical novel by Jonathan Swift The Gulliver Travels: criticism of English colonialism in Ireland and a satire on contemporary political life.

Sentimentalism: Samuel Richardson: Pamela, Clarissa as a manifestation of upper middle-class life values.

Realistic novel and a comic romance: parody of Henry Fielding on the novel Pamela: Shamela and the novel Tom Jones

Laurence Sterne: Narrative experiments in the novel Tristram Shandy

Picaresque novel: Tobias Smollett: Roderick Random

Course requirements: The course assumes that students have access to a computer running Windows 8 and higher or a Mac running Windows emulator. Continuous assessment of student performance in class during the semester (30% of the final grade). Assessment includes the student's ability to handle individual class assignments (working with translation software and glossaries) and homework that replicates class work using alternative texts. The course ends with a test, which consists of the translation of 1 standard page of text in translation software from Slovak into the language of the student. The test does not evaluate the translation aspect, but only the technical ability to work with the software. The test usually takes place in the last week of the semester and is available on-site and online. The final test makes up 70% of the evaluation. Classification scale: 100% - 91% - A 90% - 81% - B 80% - 71% - C 70% - 61% - D 60% - 51% - E 50% - 0% - FX Teachers accept a maximum of 2 absences with proven documents . Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 30% continuous evaluation, 70% final evaluation
Learning outcomes: After completing the course, the student is able to work with translation software and can apply the acquired knowledge and principles not only on one, but also on several translation softwares. Skills include basic software skills - creating and working with translation memories, project and glossary management as well as advanced knowledge, including working with parallel texts, conversions of various input document formats, and project management of translation teams. Students will be able to identify and overcome potential technical difficulties and solve compatibility problems on their own. The graduate masters the basic principles of post-editing and working with machine translation from various providers.
Class syllabus: 1. Working with a license and school VPN 2. Creating a project, the principle of operation of the translation memory 3. Course requirements: Students will submit translation of a literary text in the length of three norm pages (30 % of evaluation) in the middle of the term. Students will choose texts in the genre of a short story, an excerpt of a novel or a theatre play in prose of any text in English. Students will accompany their translations with a short commentary explaining their concept of translation and the chosen translation methods in the length of fifteen lines. At the end of the term students will submit translations of literary texts in the length of five norm pages, and the commentary in the length of one page (40 % of evaluation). Students will perform an oral presentation dealing with great personalities of Slovak translation, reception of translation from English speaking countries or a comparative analysis of a chosen excerpt of any literary work originated in Anglo-Saxon countries (30 % of evaluation of the subject). Students will be evaluated on the basis of mid-term, and final translation and on an oral presentation according to the above percentual ratio. Evaluation Scale: 0-60-68-76-84-92-100 % = FX-E-D-C-B-A There are allowed at most two absences without a duty of submitting any certificate. Violation of academic ethics will be punished by worsening of evaluation up to submitting the proposal of disciplinary proceedings according to the measure of seriousness of the student's misdemeanour. Dates and pedagogical content of the continuous evaluation will be publicized in accordance to the statutes of the Study Constitution in the first week of the term. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100 / 0 %
Learning outcomes:

Students will learn fundamental translation methods and will learn to solve most frequent problems arising in the translation into Slovak.

Students will learn with chosen excerpts of some works of translation theory by George Steiner, Anton Popovič, Alojz Keníž and others.

Students will gain rudimentary skills in interpretation of various texts, identification of stylistic level of a text and problems of equivalence in translation from the source into target language.

Students will learn to identify subtle stylistic shades of the text of a literary work.

Students will master ways how to proceed in a systematic way, to verify translated parts of the text with parts already translated and should realize that in an adequate translation, the translation on a "micro-level" of the text should be in agreement with the concept of text as a whole.

Class syllabus:

1. Interpretation of a literary work as a basic prerequisite of functionally adequate and congenial translation of a literary work. Perils of sub-interpretation and over-interpretation of a literary work.
2. Various types of translation according to a genre of the translated literary work. Specific features of the translation of drama genres as well as translations for other media (film and television).
3. Functional shifts: exoticization and naturalization in translation. Adequacy of such methods and a correct measure of their combination or creolization of translation.
4. Substandard linguistic elements in translation and possibilities or their solutions. Utilization of particular dialectic levels of the target language or creation of a synthetic stylistic category of language in relaying substandard elements of the original.
5. Cultural and geographical facts and allusions: translation of geographical names and cultural institutions. Practical examples showing how inconsistent methods of a translator in translating cultural and geographical facts subvert a trust of a reader in adequacy of the submitted translation.
6. Idioms, set phrases, proverbs. These features require great skills in creativity and improvisation of a translator. Other cultural traditions in translating of famous quotations and literary allusions.
7. The problem of using the second person singular and plural in verbs and possible ways of its solution. Other differences in grammatical systems of the source and target languages.
8. Editing of the text by translator him/herself as a condition of a high-quality production of the translation. The need of holistic concept of translation: the translation of particular features should not contradict with basic ideas of the translated text.
9. The need of verification of factual details in translating literary works of art. Merging of elements of scholarly and professional literature used in the text of a literary work in question: taxonomy of plants and animals, using of units of weight, length and other units, or other scholarly terms used in physics, chemistry etc.

Course requirements: Throughout the course, students will receive 10 assignments. Students need to complete at least 8/10 (2 allowed absences). Assignments will consist of team and individual work, and the results will be presented at seminars by the students. Students' active participation in discussions will be also evaluated throughout the seminar. 8 assignments mean 40 points (10 - 8 assignments 40 points, 7 - 35, 6 - 30, 5 - 25, 4 - 20, 3 - 15, 2 - 10, 1 - 5 points). 10 points are participation and presentation at lessons. During the examination period, students will receive an individual written assignment (max. 50 points = 50% of the final assessment). They must have at least 60 points to pass. Credits will not be awarded to students with 59 points or less. Classification scale: 0-60-68-76-84-92-100% = FX-E-D-C-B-A Maximum twice absent. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 50/50 (%)
Learning outcomes: Extension of vocabulary and acquisition of knowledge about the current dynamics of English lexis; acquiring sensitivity to relevant lexical phenomena and tendencies in their pragmatic contexts; improving the ability to understand current discourse and use neological lexis appropriately.
Class syllabus: Linguistic changes as a result of intra- and extra-lingual dynamics in the socio-cultural context; types of neologisms: neolexicalism and neosemantism; semantic and pragmatic aspects of neologization; productivity of current vocabulary processes and their preferences in discourses; drawing on and presenting the results in various contexts: specialized language, academic English, songs, media, advertisement, literature, movies. Anglicisms in Slovak. Compiling corpora and creating neologism database.

Prerequisites:
Antirequisites: FiF.KAA/A-buAN-218/15
Course requirements: 1. Active participation in seminars based on a critical perception of the discussed works of popular culture as well as various theoretical texts. Discussions require the ability to understand an academic text, to evaluate one's own perception of works of popular culture, to find parallels and differences between the Anglophone environment and the Central European context, and also to communicate effectively one's own critical and fact-based opinion. (25% weight) 2. Written and oral assignments and tasks completed at home or in class. The assignments are done individually or in teams with the aim of finding a functional balance between individual and group work. Assignments and tasks take the form of short reactions and responses to the topics covered, summarizing the theoretical background and practical interpretation. (25% weight) 3. End-of-semester, final test in which students must demonstrate their ability to comment on a specific issue related to the individual topics. The test is written and consists of several questions that require an analysis and synthesis of the acquired knowledge as well as effective academic communication in English about the studied works of popular culture. Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KAA/A-bpAN-320/15	Course title: Seminar in Theory of Translating 1
Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 5.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Continuous assessment: During the semester, students work on various assignments (listed in Moodle) that they bring to the seminars. In addition, students will produce one final translation, which forms the largest part of the assessment. The text of the final translation will be listed in advance in Moodle and they will have at least two days to translate it. Grading scale: 0-60-68-76-84-92-100% = FX-E-D-C-B-A A maximum of 2 absences are allowed without having to document them. Violations of academic ethics will be sanctioned by a reduction in grade up to and including a petition for disciplinary action, depending on the level of severity. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0 (%)
Learning outcomes: Students will learn to analyse the intratextual and extratextual factors of a non-literary text intended for translation, learn to work with parallel texts, search for relevant terminology and they will learn about the basics of praxeology of professional translation. At the same time, they will be introduced to the basic theoretical foundations of non-literary translation. They will practice translating documentation, legal texts, professional texts and software products in their home preparation for the seminars. This will give them a good starting point for specialisation in practice and will also give them an insight into the latest trends in translation practice.
Class syllabus: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Analysis of non-literary texts in various fields 2. Working with parallel texts 3. Translation of terminology 4. Possibilities of translating neologisms 5. Formal adaptation of the text 6. Working with CAT tools, machine translation and postediting

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0 (%)
Learning outcomes: The improvement of translation skills by means of assigned translations of nonfiction and literary texts from English into Slovak. The emphasis will be put on the work with the original and its interpretation, the identification of passages that may be problematic for a translator, the evaluation of a possible translation thereof and the choice of the best solution. Equally important is the improvement of the work with the translation, especially the choice of stylistically appropriate expressions, as well as the grammatical and stylistic correctness of the translation. Students will also acquaint themselves with the work of proofreaders and through exercises and articles refine their practical knowledge of Slovak language.
Class syllabus: The analysis of expressions from the point of view of translation, interpretation of the original, identification of problematic passages, comparison of the original and the translation including the already published translations, discussion on the used expressions, the most common translation mistakes, the work with already translated text – its editing, exercises to improve Slovak language, proofreading.

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KAA/A-bpAN-028/14	Course title: Slovak-English Translation
Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 6.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: During the teaching part of the semester: 1. two translation tests (100 points in total). One in the middle of the semester and one at the end of the semester. In both tests, the translation of a Slovak text of normal difficulty (length: approximately 1.5 standard pages) into English within a given time limit. Students may use electronic dictionaries and translation tools, but must work independently. Grading scale: 100-92: A 91-84: B 83-76: C 75-68: D 67-60: E 59-0: FX The teacher will accept a maximum of two absences without documented evidence. Violations of academic ethics may see a reduction in the grade awarded and even the submission of the case for disciplinary action depending on the degree of severity. Exact dates for the continuous evaluation will be announced at the beginning of the semester. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: Students learn some basic skills when translating into English, and they get used to working on a text in a limited amount of time. Students will also learn how to work with translation software and be able to check and edit a machine-translated text in English so that the text is at a sufficient level of readability and suitable for further processing into its final form by a "native speaker". As the first proofreader of the text, each student still works with the original text to understand its meaning.
Class syllabus: Each week before class, students translate one short text (2-3 standard pages) of a popular and informative nature. Then, in class, students evaluate their translations with the teacher, highlighting translation problems, pointing out common mistakes, and learning tips on how to save time in translation while ensuring quality. The texts for translation are always of a Slovak origin and deal with different areas such as: 1. tourism, 2. food and cooking, 3. politics, 4. Slovak history, 5. business in Slovakia, 6. law, 7. ethnography, 8. education, 9. science in Slovakia, 10. advertising/marketing, 11. life in Bratislava.

Recommended semester: 4.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: The course is assessed by a combination of continuous assessment (short tests during the semester, always after the lecture: 50% of the final grade) and a final test (50% of the final grade). The questions in the short tests are aimed at recapitulating the basic concepts covered in the lecture, and the tests are administered through an electronic interface (moodle). The questions in the final test are aimed at verifying the extent to which students have mastered and understood basic concepts in the field of interpreting theory and practice. The date of the final test will be announced by the instructor at least two weeks before the deadline, and usually two dates are offered to students, via AIS. Grading Scale: 100% - 91% - A 90% - 81% - B 80% - 71% - C 70% - 61% - D 60% - 51% - E 50% - 0% - FX The instructor will accept a maximum of 2 absences with documented evidence. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 50/50 (%)
Learning outcomes: Upon completion of the course, students will have a basic understanding of key theoretical and practical concepts in the field of interpreting. The body of knowledge builds on, develops, and adds to the basic translational concepts and specifics in the field of interpreting. Students have a clear understanding of the types, genres, and techniques of interpreting, their applications, and the basic models that describe them. They also understand what the basic cognitive and communicative models of interpreting are, know the specifics of both simultaneous and consecutive interpreting, and know their history and prerequisites for successful implementation. They shall have a basic understanding of the deontology of interpreting and the development of the competences necessary for interpreting.
