STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KEM/A-boET-990/15	Course title: Bachelor's Degree Thesis Defence
Number of credits: 12
Educational level: I.
Course requirements: The student must submit the bachelor's thesis within the deadline specified in the schedule of the current academic year for the relevant date of the state exam. The bachelor thesis is submitted in electronic form via AIS. The work must meet the parameters determined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. The provisions of Article 14 of Internal Regulation no. 5/2020 (Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts of Comenius University) apply to the evaluation of the bachelor's thesis. The supervisor of the final thesis and its opponent will prepare evaluations of the bachelor's thesis and propose a grade in the A-FX grading scale, which the student receives a minimum of three working days before the defence. Bachelor thesis evaluation criteria: 1. The contribution of the bachelor's thesis, the fulfilment of the goals of the thesis in its assignment, and the requirements for the content of the bachelor's thesis given by the internal quality system of Comenius University. The following is assessed: demonstration of knowledge and skills, ability to work creatively in the study program, ability applied in the collection, interpretation, and processing of basic scientific literature; in the case of an empirically oriented bachelor's thesis also mastering the application of theoretical principles in practice and verifiability of hypotheses. 2. Originality of the work (bachelor thesis must not be plagiarized, must not infringe the copyrights of other authors); the documentation for the defence of the bachelor's thesis also includes protocols of originality from the CRZP and Theses systems, to the results of which the thesis supervisor and the opponent express their opinions in their evaluations. 3. Correctness and accuracy of citation of used information sources, research results of other authors and group authors, correctness of the description of methods and working procedures of other authors or group authors. 4. Compliance of the structure of the bachelor's thesis with the prescribed composition defined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. 5. Respecting the recommended length of the bachelor's thesis (the recommended length of the bachelor's thesis is usually 30 – 40 standard pages = 54,000 to 72,000 characters, including spaces), the adequacy of the length of the thesis is assessed by the thesis supervisor. 6. Linguistic and stylistic level of work and formal adjustments. The student orally presents the content, achieved goals, and conclusions of the bachelor's thesis, and answers the questions and comments of the thesis supervisor, opponent, or members of the examination committee. The committee will comprehensively evaluate the quality of the bachelor's thesis, assess the method and form of defence, and the student's ability to adequately respond to comments and questions from the evaluations of the thesis supervisor and the opponent. The student receives their final grade based on the average of the assessment of the thesis supervisor and opponent from their evaluations, and the assessment of the examination committee. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100

Learning outcomes: The student has mastered the basic requirements of writing a scientific text in compliance with the rules of academic ethics, is able to work creatively in the field of study in which he completed the study program, and has adequate knowledge and understanding of the relevant issues. The student can apply his skills in the collection, interpretation, and processing of basic scientific literature, or even in its application in practice, or has the ability to solve a partial task related to the focus of the bachelor's thesis. After a successful defence of the bachelor's thesis, the student is able to logically deal with the theoretical background of the bachelor's thesis and respond to questions relating to the relevant issues.
Class syllabus: 1. The student presents the bachelor's thesis in front of the committee for state exams, the opponent of the bachelor's thesis, and those present. 2. The student responds to comments and questions in the evaluations. 3. The student responds to the questions of the committee for state exams or the questions in a broader debate.

Prerequisites:
Course requirements: The aim of the course is a step-by-step analysis of empirical data that students obtained during field research for the bachelor thesis. This analysis is the basis for the empirical part of the bachelor thesis. Students will be required to prepare an assignment for each lesson. The assignments will be the subject of discussion in class. The assignments will be gradual steps in the analysis of the obtained data. Students consult each assignment with their supervisor. During the seminar, students will present the preliminary results of the analysis and their interpretation, while receiving feedback from the teacher and colleagues. At the end of the semester, students present the results of the analysis concerning research questions and objectives of their bachelor thesis. The results and conclusions that students present during the presentation will form the core of the empirical part of the bachelor thesis. The mid-term evaluation (50%) consists of the evaluation of assignments and active participation in discussions. At the end of the course, students present comprehensive analysis of the data for their bachelor thesis. The presentation is graded by the student's supervisor (final evaluation, 50%). Requirements 1. Upload the assignment in the e-learning system Moodle within the specified deadline and send it to the student's supervisor at the same time Filename: a surname of the student_assignment number 2. Bring a printed copy of the assignment for the lecture. 3. Final Presentation of the data analysis Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. The exact date and topic of the mid-term evaluation and presentation of the data analysis will be announced at the beginning of the semester. Absences in class are assessed according to the Study Regulations of Comenius University in Bratislava, Faculty of Arts, Art. 4.9. (https://fphil.uniba.sk/fileadmin/fif/o_fakulte/dokumenty_vnutorne_predpisy/vnutorne_predpisy/vp_5_2020.pdf)

A maximum of two absences is tolerated. Three to five absences may be accepted upon presentation of a doctor's certificate or relevant explanation recognized by the teacher. More than five absences are not accepted.

The student is obliged to read the information sheet of the course and should ask for any clarification regarding the course during the first classes. The student is solely responsible for any consequences resulting from failure to read the requirements for successful completion of the course.

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Mid-term evaluation: presentation of assignments and active participation in discussions 50%, Evaluation of presentation: presentation of the data analysis and their interpretation 50%, evaluation of the student's supervisor. The final evaluation is the result of the ongoing evaluation and evaluation of the presentation. Grading scale 0-59%=FX, 60-67%=E, 68-75%=D, 76-83%=C, 84-91%=B, 92-100%=A. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received percentage in the relevant assessment.

Learning outcomes:

The aim of the course is to analyze the data that students obtained during ethnographic field research for a bachelor's thesis. This analysis is the basis for the empirical part of the bachelor thesis. After successfully completing the course, the student has mastered the basic requirements of writing a scientific text in compliance with the rules of academic ethics. The student masters the theory of citing and referencing used sources and has skills in creating bibliographic references and citations. The student understands the principles of what makes up the formal and content side of the bachelor's thesis depending on the internal quality system of Comenius University. He understands the causes of plagiarism, know its various types, and can avoid them. The student has sufficient information competencies to acquire, process, and interpret basic scientific literature.

Class syllabus:

1. Types of ethnographic analysis
2. Data coding 1.
3. Data coding 2.
4. Analytical categories and creation of model
5. Interpretation of results in relation to research questions
6. Interpretation of results in relation to the research environment
7. Presentation of the results of the analysis and discussion

Course ID: FiF.KLMV/A-AboLO-14/15	Course title: Basics in Methodology of Scientific Research
Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 4., 6.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: During the semester: activity (10 points), presentation of two selected themes (20 + 20 points); final exam: seminary work 6-8 pages (50 points); Evaluating scale: A: 100 - 92, B: 91 - 84, C: 83 - 76, D: 75 - 68, E: 67 - 60, FX: 59 - 0 b. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 50/50
Learning outcomes: During the course student has to obtain information on basic notions and procedures of scientific research. The purpose of the course is to develop his ability necessary for critical analysis of examples from his own domain of studies. Within virtual "research project", by form of presentation, student has to work out paper on selected problem and to demonstrate its results. Students has to get trough the drafting of a protocol on scientific work and how to select appropriate language formulations; how to correctly define the basic concepts; how to justify chosen steps in research in respect to its subject and purpose; to make demarcation between meaning and relevance of information he is dealing with; to chose adequate hypothesis and procedures for testifying it and to understand its methodological function in explanation of studied phenomena.
Class syllabus: Natural language and its formalization (basics of propositional and predicate logic). Scientific method – observation and facts. Hypothesis and conjecture. Definition and classification. Measuring. Probability, induction and statistical methods. Experiment. Scientific explanation and prediction. Laws of nature. Theory. Philosophy of science (CH.S. Peirce, T.S. Kuhn, K.R. Popper, P.K. Feyerabend). Knowledge. Scientific progress. Methodological problems of social sciences.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KEM/A-boET-026/22	Course title: Calendar Customs
Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 4., 6.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Antirequisites: FiF.KEM/A-boET-026/15
Course requirements: Each student chooses one topic from the calendar customs and presents it during the semester. If the student does not prepare the presentation on the predetermined date or is unable to attend, he/she will submit a paper on the topic during the semester, which will be 6 standard pages with at least 6 citations. The presentation should be approximately 13-16 slides, 20-30 min in length, drawing on both local and regional studies, including references to the Central European context. The overall grade is then summed up to 100 % and evaluated according to the ECTS A = 100-91% B = 90 – 81 % C = 80 – 73 % D = 72 – 66 % E = 65 – 60 % FX = 59 – 0 %. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received percentage in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100% interim
Learning outcomes: The aim of the course is to understand the origin, meaning, variants and functions of calendar customs. Students will (1) acquire a systematic knowledge of customary traditions in Slovakia, (2) be able to compare ethnographic findings from different regions of Slovakia and in a Central European context, and (3) learn to recognize the functions of customary traditions in traditional and contemporary society.
Class syllabus: 1. Basic concepts and typologies of customs, meaning, functions and ethics of customs 2. Rites, masks, dances, songs and wishes: the magic of the "first" 3. Winter solstice and Advent 4. Christmas and New Year 5. Carnival, masks, burial of the bass 6. Moon, spring and equinox in annual customs 7. Palm Sunday and Easter customs 8. Summer solstice, animal fertility in pastoral and peasant cultures 9. Autumnal equinox, harvest festivals and feasts 10. All Saints' Day and the cult of ancestors

Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Active participation in classes (max. 3 documented absences), preliminary knowledge test in the middle of the instruction period of the semester (max. number of points: 20), final written exam (max. number of points: 30). Total assessment: max. number of points: 50. (100-92% - A, 91-84% - B, 83-76 – C, 75-68 - D, 67-60 – E). Violation of academic ethics may result in the cancellation of the points scored in the relevant assessment item. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100% preliminary
Learning outcomes: After successfully completing the course, students have a basic understanding of classical (Newtonian) mechanics and special relativity using a mathematical apparatus that does not exceed the level of secondary school mathematics. Students understand and master the derivations of some important physical relationships, which will enable them to gain a deeper understanding of physical problems and provide the background for further engagement with philosophical issues in physics.
Class syllabus: 1. Basics of classical kinematics: concept of position vector, velocity, acceleration. 2. Basics of classical dynamics: Newton's laws of motion. 3. The concept of potential and kinetic energy. 4. Laws of conservation of momentum and mechanical energy. 5. Kepler's laws and Newton's law of gravitation. The concept of gravitational field. 6. Introduction to the theory of electromagnetism: Coulomb's law, electric and magnetic fields. 7. Electromagnetic waves. Light as electromagnetic waves. 8. Basics of special relativity: Einstein's postulates. 9. Galilei's and Lorentz' transformations. 10. Relativity of the present. 11. Length contraction and time dilation. 12. Relativistic concept of momentum and energy.

Course ID: FiF.KEM/A-boET-037/22	Course title: Cooperation and Reciprocity
Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 3., 5.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Antirequisites: FiF.KEM/A-boET-037/20
Course requirements: Active participation in discussions is expected during the lesson. The mid-term evaluation (10%) will consist of an evaluation of active participation in the discussions. In the exam period, students submit essays (90%) in the required time and scope in the e-learning system moodle.uniba.sk. The essay should be a logical reflection on the assigned topic with the reference to relevant literature. A minimum of six references to relevant scientific literature (books, papers etc.) is required. The range of the essay is 6 - 8 pages. Instructions on how to write a scientific essay and seminar papers are located in MS Teams, in the file "Documents" in the room named: Kooperácia a reciprocita. Essay evaluation criteria: • The logic of the argument and the scope of the literature used – 40% • Text structure – 20% • Level of written communication (spelling, use of technical terms, style) – 20% • Adherence to formal criteria (citation, editing, etc.) – 20% Grading Scale: 0-59%=FX, 60-67%=E, 68-75%=D, 76-83%=C, 84-91%=B, 92-100%=A. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. The exact date and topic of the mid-term evaluation will be announced at the beginning of the semester. The dates of the submission of essay will be announced via email no later than in the last week of the teaching part of the semester. Absences in class are assessed according to the Study Regulations of Comenius University in Bratislava, Faculty of Arts, Art. 4.9. (https://fphil.uniba.sk/fileadmin/fif/o_fakulte/dokumenty_vnutorne_predpisy/vnutorne_predpisy/vp_5_2020.pdf) A maximum of two absences is tolerated. Three to five absences may be accepted upon presentation of a doctor's certificate or relevant explanation recognized by the teacher. More than five absences are not accepted.

The student is obliged to read the information sheet of the course and should ask for any clarification regarding the course during the first classes. The student is solely responsible for any consequences resulting from failure to read the requirements for successful completion of the course.

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): • Final essay: 90% of the final mark. • Participation in the discussion: 10% of the final mark. The final evaluation is the result of the ongoing evaluation and evaluation of the final essay. Grading scale 0-59%=FX, 60-67%=E, 68-75%=D, 76-83%=C, 84-91%=B, 92-100%=A.

Learning outcomes:

Upon the successful completion of the course the students will have knowledge regarding the main theoretical concepts of cooperation and reciprocity as well as other related topics: reputation and prestige, kin cooperation, public goods, religion and cooperation; ritual and cooperation. Attention will be paid to works of Slovak ethnologists and anthropologists as well as to euro-american anthropological literature, but also to works of related scientific disciplines such as sociology, psychology, evolutionary and cognitive sciences.

The course provides knowledge usable for graduates working in non-profit sector, voluntary organizations or research institutions.

Class syllabus:

1. Reciprocity and cooperation in sociocultural anthropology
2. Research of cooperation and reciprocity in Slovakia
3. Cooperation from the perspective of evolutionary and cognitive sciences 1
4. Cooperation from the perspective of evolutionary and cognitive sciences 2
5. Kinship and intergenerational cooperation – General introduction
6. Kinship and intergenerational cooperation - Slovak context
7. Public goods – General introduction and Slovak context
8. Social status, hierarchy, prestige, and reputation – General introduction
9. Social status, hierarchy, prestige, and reputation – Slovak context

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KEM/A-boET-008/22	Course title: Fieldwork Practice
Educational activities: Type of activities: fieldwork Number of hours: per week: per level/semester: 10d Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 2.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Recommended prerequisites: Course on Fieldwork Methods
Antirequisites: FiF.KEM/A-boET-008/15
Course requirements: Students will participate in a 10-day (possibly collective) field research at the end of the summer term in a selected location. They will conduct ethnographic interviews with at least 20 respondents (or a minimum of 20 hours) according to the chosen topic, using participant observation and visual documentation methods. Participants will demonstrate compliance with the requirements by active participation in consultations during the research, audio recordings of the interviews, a structured ethnographic field diary (according to the syllabus of the course Fieldwork Methods) and photo documentation. The overall grade is then summed up to 100 % and evaluated according to the ECTS A = 100-91% B = 90 – 81 % C = 80 – 73 % D = 72 – 66 % E = 65 – 60 % FX = 59 – 0 %. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received percentage in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100% in the exam period: practice
Learning outcomes: Students acquire the skills necessary for long-term ethnographic field research, increase their sensitivity to observation, listening, and semi-structured interviewing, and practice practical ethnographic field note-taking. After the practicum, students will classify the collected data professionally and submit it in the form of a Fieldwork Data in the following semester. Students will acquire the skills necessary to be able to adequately observe, recognize, and describe a social situation, while being interested in the perspectives of the participants in the social situation and the ethnographic context.

Prerequisites:
Antirequisites: FiF.KEM/A-boET-001/15
Course requirements: Each week, students prepare for the seminar by ongoing study of the literature, preparing a resume or presentation from a predetermined assignment text. Students will hand in 8 structured resumes with links to selected collections of folklore. Assignments are submitted the day before class to moodle.uniba.sk. In the exam period, students will write an essay (50%). They discuss the resume during the seminar, and receive feedback on the resume the following week. Grading scale A: 100-91%; B: 90-81%; C: 80-73%; D: 72-66%; E: 65-60%; Fx: 59%- A maximum of two unexcused absences will be tolerated. Three to five absences may be accepted upon submission of a doctor's excuse or a relevant explanation, which will be acknowledged by the lecturers. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Interim - resumes make up a total of 50%. In the exam period, students write an essay - 50%.
Learning outcomes: The subject of the course is to familiarize with the foundations, methods and sources of ethnology and folklore studies. The aim of the course is for students to be able to use basic concepts, navigate in the literature, master the basics of writing a resumé and an essay, identify key issues, and be able to relate the study of selected phenomena of traditional cultures to contemporary societal issues.
Class syllabus: 1. profile of the study of ethnology and folklore studies 2. prehistory and symbolic communication 3. songs, nation, song genres, folk song notation and collections 4. historical development and contemporary contexts of the concept of ethnicity 5. proverbs, riddles and swear words in the context of social groups 6. the historical development and contemporary contexts of the concept of race 7. the historical development and contemporary contexts of the concept of gender

8. kinship and social organisation 9. tales and myths in the context of gender and reciprocity 10. adaptive strategies and social space 11. economic systems, immediate and delayed consumption 12. authority, power and the production of legitimacy 13. ethics and representations of the otherness in global communication 14. contemporary forms of folklore and folklorism

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KFDF/A-boFI-001/22	Course title: Introduction into Philosophy
Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 1.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Preliminary evaluation during the instruction period: presentation of one selected topic (30 points) In the examination period: colloquial exam consisting of the presentation and defence of a written thesis (40 points) The condition for admission to the exam is the scoring of min. 10 points from the preliminary assessment. Violation of academic ethics may result in the cancellation of the points scored in the relevant assessment item. Grading scale: A: 70-65, B: 64-59, C: 58-53, D: 52-47, E: 46-42, Fx: 41-0. Maximum 2 justified absences are accepted. The exact date and topic of the preliminary assessment will be announced at the beginning of the semester. Dates of examination will be published via AIS no later than the last week of the instruction period. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 43%/ 57%
Learning outcomes: After successfully completing the course, students have knowledge of basic philosophical problems and various forms of their thematisation. They know the basic conceptual apparatus of philosophy and are able to use philosophical terminology. They are proficient in the fundamentals of philosophical thinking and as a rational and argumentative mode of reflection, understand the basic forms of philosophical argumentation. They are able to identify the structure of philosophical problems, navigate the literature independently, and are able to formulate philosophical ideas using professional terminology.
Class syllabus: 1. The subject of philosophy as a philosophical problem. 2. Philosophy as taking a theoretical stance. Philosophy and everyday consciousness. 3. The nature of philosophical questions. 4. Methods of philosophy and argumentation. 5. Philosophical doubt and the search for certainty. 6. The problem of other minds. 7. Mind and body: dualism versus anti-dualist positions.

8. The problem of language.
9. Determinism and free will.
10. The foundations of morality and the problem of justifying moral standards.
11. Individuum and society.
12. The meaning of life.

Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 3., 5.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Antirequisites: FiF.KEM/A-boET-026/15
Course requirements: Each student chooses one topic from the life-cycle customs and presents it during the semester. If the student does not prepare the presentation on the predetermined date or is unable to attend, he/she will submit a paper on the topic during the semester, which will be 6 standard pages with at least 6 citations. The presentation should be approximately 13-16 slides, 20-30 min in length, drawing on both local and regional studies, including references to the Central European context. The overall grade is then summed up to 100 % and evaluated according to the ECTS A = 100-91% B = 90 – 81 % C = 80 – 73 % D = 72 – 66 % E = 65 – 60 % FX = 59 – 0 %. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received percentage in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100% interim
Learning outcomes: EN The aim of the course is to understand the origin, meaning, variants and functions of life-cycle customs. Students will (1) acquire a systematic knowledge of customary traditions in Slovakia, (2) be able to compare ethnographic findings from different regions of Slovakia and in a Central European context, and (3) learn to recognize the functions of customary traditions in traditional and contemporary society.
Class syllabus: 1. Basic concepts and typologies of customs, meaning, functions and ethics of customs 2. Symbolism of ritual expression and their sensory confirmation 3. Rites of passage and rituals of institutions 4. From conception to postnatal customs 5. Symbolic reproduction: baptism, christenings and christening songs 6. Courtship, engagement, marriage and wedding 7. Wedding songs, dances and games 8. Wedding food and gifts

9. Wedding attire, props and caps
10. Death, funeral rites, ceremonial mourning
11. Funeral customs in relation to the age and status of the deceased
12. Symbolism of death, death taboos and representations of post-mortal life
13. Tradition and the transformation of customs: civic ceremonialism, globalisation and folklorism

Recommended prerequisites: Alternating: FiF.KLMV/A-buLO-001-1/8883/00 a FiF.KLMV/A-buLO-001-2/8883/00
Course requirements: Continuous during the semester: homework (10 points), 2 midterm tests during the semester (20 + 20 points); Final evaluation: summative test (50 points); Grading scale: A: 100-91 points; B: 90-81 points; C: 80-76 points; D: 75-70 points; E: 69-60 points; Fx: 59-0 points. Violation of academic ethics may result in the cancellation of points earned in the respective grade item. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 50/50
Learning outcomes: The students have been introduced to the basics of logical analysis of natural language, thanks to which they have acquired the prerequisites for more successful study of other subjects requiring analytical work with text and argumentation. They have an understanding of the various syntactic and semantic aspects of natural language and practical experience in the analysis of natural language and arguments. Students are introduced to the basics of propositional logic and the analysis of some arguments by means of propositional logic. They are introduced to the possibilities of representing natural language using propositional logic.
Class syllabus: Language and its functions; language as coding. Singular expressions. General expressions, properties and relations. Subject and predicate of a sentence. Syntactic structure of atomic propositions and their truth conditions. Syntactic structure of atomic and molecular propositions, means of expressing universal propositions and their truth conditions. Modalities in language, their classification and function; intuitive understanding of states of affairs (possible worlds). Concept versus idea, representations of concepts in language and relations between them (extensional semantics, subject-predicate logic). Semantically conditioned relations between expressions (synonymy, antonymy, hyperonymy, homonymy, polysemy), limitations of the principle of substitutability of coextensional expressions; modifiers and their types; vagueness and imprecision of expressions. Argumentation, arguments; structure of arguments; deductive arguments. Propositional logic - syntax and semantics. Principle of compositionality for propositions. Propositional conjunctions in natural language. Interpretation, tabular method, tautology, contradiction. Propositional inference. Natural deduction. Inference in natural language. Expressions of sufficient and necessary conditions (promises, legal regulations). Means of achieving textual conciseness (elision, anaphora). Arguments in philosophical texts and the possibilities of propositional logic in their assessment.

Learning outcomes: Students are introduced to the basics of predicate logic and the analysis of some arguments by means of predicate logic. They are introduced to the possibilities of representing natural language using predicate logic, to deductive forms of inference, and are able to analyze several kinds of deductive arguments. They have acquired basic knowledge of definition theory and question and answer theory. As a result, they have acquired the competence to analyse more adequately and deeply philosophical, but also exemplarily difficult - legal texts.
Class syllabus: Predicate logic - syntax and semantics. Relations between predicate logic and natural language. Expression of generality in natural language (quantifiers, relational pairs, anaphora+implication). Interpretation, evaluation. Predicateological entailment. Natural deduction. Means of achieving textual conciseness (elision, anaphora, operators). Judgments in philosophical and legal texts and the possibilities of predicate logic in their assessment. Abductive judgments. Judgements in natural language. Expressions of sufficient and necessary conditions for causality. Definitions: traditional, analytic, synthetic (nominal, codifying), specifying; recursive, abstracting; explanatory, operational. Questions and answers: presuppositional and fallacious questions; true, partial and complete answers. Analysis of judgments in philosophical and legal texts.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KEM/A-boET-019/22	Course title: Methodological Foundations of Ethnographic Research
Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 4., 6.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Antirequisites: FiF.KEM/A-boET-019/20
Course requirements: Upon the successful completion of the course the students will have knowledge regarding the basic concepts of social science research and its methodological approaches with emphasis on the specifics of ethnographic research. Students will be required to read selected texts every week. They will prepare five questions regarding the theoretical and methodological aspects of the paper or prepare another assignment on a specific topic. They are obliged to submit the assignment in the e-learning system moodle.uniba.sk on a due date. Active participation in discussions is required during the seminar. The materials for the course, including the syllabus, will be accessible in the moodle.uniba.sk and in the MS Teams. Credits will not be awarded if at least three assignments are not submitted. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. The exact date of the mid-term evaluation will be announced at the beginning of the semester. During the exam period, students take a written test. The dates of the exam will be announced via AIS no later than in the last week of the teaching part of the semester. Absences in class are assessed according to the Study Regulations of Comenius University in Bratislava, Faculty of Arts, Art. 4.9. (https://fphil.uniba.sk/fileadmin/fif/o_fakulte/dokumenty_vnutorne_predpisy/vnutorne_predpisy/vp_5_2020.pdf) A maximum of two absences is tolerated. Three to five absences may be accepted upon presentation of a doctor's certificate or relevant explanation recognized by the teacher. More than five absences are not accepted. The student is obliged to read the information sheet of the course and should ask for any clarification regarding the course during the first classes. The student is solely responsible for any consequences resulting from failure to read the requirements for successful completion of the course. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Evaluation during semester (assignments and participation in discussions) makes up 50% of the final mark, The written test makes up 50% of the final mark. The final evaluation is the result of the ongoing evaluation and evaluation test. Grading scale 0-59%=FX, 60-67%=E, 68-75%=D, 76-83%=C, 84-91%=B, 92-100%=A.

Learning outcomes:

Upon the successful completion of the course the students will gain the ability to correctly define basic theoretical concepts of ethnographic research and will be able to choose appropriate methods in terms of the objectives of qualitative field research. They will get acquainted with the principles of designing ethnographic research and with the types of scientific records. They will learn to identify ethical issues and their corresponding methodological solutions.

Class syllabus:

Fundamental principles of research in social science. Theory and methodology.
Research problem. Conceptualization and operationalization.
Qualitative and quantitative research. Research design. Qualitative research strategies.
Scientific explanation. Research questions. Variables.
Scientific prediction. Creating hypotheses.
Research sample and research environment.
Research methods and techniques. Combination of qualitative and quantitative methods.
Types of records made during ethnographic field research. Scientific protocol.
Participant observation and ethnographic interview.
Research ethics: methodological and practical issues.

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KFDF/A-boFI-010/22	Course title: Social and Political Philosophy
Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 2 per level/semester: 14 / 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 4.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: 100% attendance (in justified cases the teacher may excuse 2 absences), Students can be only admitted to the exam after successfully completing the final control test of the preliminary assessment, usually held one week before the end of the semester. The test will consist of five sets of questions (each with a two-point, one-point or zero score) and the final score will be determined according to the following key: 10-9 points "A", 8 points "B", 7-6 points "C", 5-4 points "D", 3-2 points "E". 1-0 points "Fx". The oral examination, similarly as the final control test, will also consist of questions covered in lectures and seminars, the students will become familiar with during the semester. The exam performance will be graded on a five-point grading scale according to the following key: 5 points "A" and 4 points "B" (above-average knowledge), 3 points "C" and 2 points "D" (average knowledge), 1 point "E" (under-average knowledge), 0 points "Fx" (very poor knowledge). Unlike the preliminary assessment, in the case of a Fx grade, the student will still have two opportunities to improve the assessment.
