Course ID: FiF.KEM/A-boET-008/22	Course title: Fieldwork Practice
Educational activities: Type of activities: fieldwork Number of hours: per week: per level/semester: 10d Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 2.
Educational level: I.
Prerequisites:
Recommended prerequisites: Course on Fieldwork Methods
Antirequisites: FiF.KEM/A-boET-008/15
Course requirements: Students will participate in a 10-day (possibly collective) field research at the end of the summer term in a selected location. They will conduct ethnographic interviews with at least 20 respondents (or a minimum of 20 hours) according to the chosen topic, using participant observation and visual documentation methods. Participants will demonstrate compliance with the requirements by active participation in consultations during the research, audio recordings of the interviews, a structured ethnographic field diary (according to the syllabus of the course Fieldwork Methods) and photo documentation. The overall grade is then summed up to 100 % and evaluated according to the ECTS A = 100-91% B = 90 – 81 % C = 80 – 73 % D = 72 – 66 % E = 65 – 60 % FX = 59 – 0 %. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received percentage in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100% in the exam period: practice
Learning outcomes: Students acquire the skills necessary for long-term ethnographic field research, increase their sensitivity to observation, listening, and semi-structured interviewing, and practice practical ethnographic field note-taking. After the practicum, students will classify the collected data professionally and submit it in the form of a Fieldwork Data in the following semester. Students will acquire the skills necessary to be able to adequately observe, recognize, and describe a social situation, while being interested in the perspectives of the participants in the social situation and the ethnographic context.
