The supervisor's report shall also include the percentage of compliance results from the originality check protocols (CRZP, Theses), which must be explicitly evaluated by the supervisor with the wording "the thesis shows/does not show signs of plagiarism". The Master's thesis will take the following form: The defence will consist of a thesis presentation (the student chooses the form of the defence, the PPT format can also be used) and the student's response to a broader theoretical question, which is assigned to the student by the supervisor upon the Master's thesis submission. The supervisor will include this question in the assessment report as one of the points of discussion for the defence; it will also be included in the defence report. The thesis presentation must: - Include a clearly articulated thesis statement, - have a clear and logical structure of argumentation and findings, - reflect a new perspective on the issue as a result of adequate and appropriate work with the findings gained through own research, the conclusions of which the student is able to present and formulate. The criteria for the evaluation (of the defence) of the Master's thesis at the Department of British and American Studies are as follows:

- Quality of the Master's thesis (originality, significance of the analysis, clear formulation of the scientific problem and hypotheses under study, scope of the professional and scientific literature used), - the adequacy of the methodological approach to the topic under study, the analysis logically and coherently answers the research questions, - systematic and logical summary of the results of the analysis, - compliance with citation standards (MLA...), - language level of the presentation (academic language at least at B2 level), - quality of the presentation and communication skills. The evaluation of the thesis will include the areas below with the corresponding weighting (out of 100): PART A: CONTENT • Overall structure and organization (adequacy, scope, objectivity, coherence, cohesion) 15 • Theoretical knowledge related to the research topic 15 • Methodology (identifying concepts, research problems, aims, tasks, choosing adequate methods) 15 • Analysis (quality, depth, complexity) 15 • Originality and contribution (degree of originality, own contribution to knowledge) 10 PART B: FORM • Adequate work with information sources (extent, structure, reliability, adequacy, compliance with a citation style) 15 • Language and style 10 • Typography and layout 5 Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100 (%)

Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 1.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Antirequisites: FiF.KRom/A-mpFR-019/13
Course requirements: a) during the semester, the student will receive 30 points of the overall evaluation on a continuous basis based on active work in class (research, reading and preparation of texts, reading of theoretical accompanying texts related to the given issue), b) in the examination period, the student will receive 70 points for the final written work (analysis of a linguistic phenomenon in French and in Slovak, according to the phenomena covered). The student will be given a choice of topic to work on according to the teacher's instructions in the examination period. The topics of the written work are regularly updated. Credits will not be awarded to students who receive less than 60 points of the overall evaluation based on the average calculated from their work in class and the final written work. Grading scale: 100-90: A 89-85: B 84-75: C 74-70: D 69-60: E 59-0: FX The teacher will accept a maximum of two absences. The date and topics of the final work will be announced through AIS no later than in the last week of the instruction period. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 30/70
Learning outcomes: Since the student only deals with some selected phenomena of French grammar during the semester, they have a broad knowledge and theoretical understanding of these phenomena, which confronts the description of the phenomena by several grammarians or linguists. Based on the analysis of French texts and the creation of a comparative corpus, the student can grasp the linguistic phenomenon in the context of its functioning in French and its linguistic expression in Slovak. After successfully completing the course, the student is sensitive to the linguistic phenomena of French grammar and applies their knowledge in their further linguistic practice (e.g., in translation and interpreting, in teaching French as a foreign language, in editorial work, or in comparing the original and the translation, etc.).

Class syllabus:

During the semester, the seminar focuses on two or three phenomena of the French language, mainly phenomena that cause difficulties for Slovak students regarding their mother tongue. The class syllabus is adapted to the selection of the phenomena in question. The phenomena studied include, for example:

1. The position of adverbs in a sentence
2. The article and its functions within the nominal syntagm
3. The impersonal pronoun “on” and its expression in Slovak
4. Negation in French
5. Expressing the past

A particular linguistic unit is discussed:

1. In practical exercises
2. As a subject of scientific research in scientific texts
3. As the subject of grammatical explanation
4. As a unit of analysis in a French text
5. In the comparison of the original text and its translation (the Slovak expression of the unit)
