STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KAA/A-muAN-402/15	Course title: English Philology
Number of credits: 3
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The requirements for a state examination (conditions, dates, assessment, examination board, participation) are set by Article 15 of the Study Regulations at the Faculty of Arts. One of the constitutive parts of the state examination within master's study programmes is an examination in "English Studies". Students in their final year choose one of the following two modules according to their preference and notify their choice to the Department of British and American Studies's secretary by a deadline specified by the department: • Literature module • Linguistics module LITERATURE MODULE: • Within this module students will be expected to produce a literary research project on a topic they will choose by drawing lots in a manner and at a time specified by the department. The topics are general, for example, freedom, injustice, trust, etc., and they are changed at regular intervals. • Students will submit their literary research project in the form of a voice-over Power Point presentation to the department's secretary by a deadline specified by the department, usually 5 days before the date of the state examination. The presentation must include research questions, a thesis statement, and Works Cited (as specified below). • The project is required to have a clearly formulated thesis statement related to the topic selected and be argumentative in character. It has to analyze at least 2 primary sources (preferably texts that the students have studied; at least one of them has to be a book) and use at least 4 secondary sources (two of them must be in book format; web sources may be used only as additional material). • Students will be expected to offer an analytical view of the selected primary literary texts; therefore, their project needs to be based on an analytical thesis statement. A good thesis statement offers an interpretation of a literary text, is debatable (i.e. someone might disagree with it), but it can be supported by textual evidence. • At the defence of the project, students will be expected to respond to questions related to the analyzed literary texts and to their literary, cultural, and historical context. The projects will be assessed based on the following criteria: • coherence/structure: 20 % • language: 10 % • presentation skills: 10 % • analysis/argumentation: 20 % • context knowledge: 20 % • adequate work with sources: 20 % Students will be awarded an automatic FX if they fail to meet one of the following criteria: • their projects do not meet the minimum requirements of the assignment, i.e. their projects are not related to the topic they have chosen, they are not based on a thesis statement, and they are not argumentative in character,

- they do not speak a C1 level of English,
- they do not use primary and secondary sources as required (number, reliability),
- they do not refer to the primary and secondary sources listed in their Works Cited.

LINGUISTIC MODULE:

The final State Examination in English Linguistics is an oral examination conducted in English. The set questions should give the students who choose this module the opportunity to

- demonstrate the ability to present analytically the linguistic phenomena in question and their role at the corresponding language levels;
- demonstrate how they master synthetic interpretation and relevant argumentation in the phenomena's systemic contexts and communication functions;
- demonstrate the ability to come up with their own findings and observations alongside the subject matter;
- demonstrate the ability of contrastively evaluating the language situation in comparison with Slovak;
- in case of thematic relevance of the given question, to demonstrate the ability to exemplify the theory on the means of expression in the written text, which will be provided to the student before the beginning of the preparation for the exam.

The evaluation criteria of the linguistic module presuppose the answering of questions at a level that corresponds to the graduate's profile of the given study program, and are as follows:

- a thought-through and clear concept of an answer;
- the meeting of the above requirements in relation to the question;
- coherence of speech;
- appropriate CEFR level (approx. C1).

As part of the state examination, the student randomly draws one of the 10 questions that have been announced in advance by the department:

1. Characteristic features of vowels and consonants./Charakteristické vlastnosti samohlások a spoluhlások.
2. Characteristic features of suprasegmental phonological means (stress, rhythm and intonation)./Charakteristické vlastnosti suprasegmentálnych fonologických javov (prízvuk, rytmus, melódia).
3. Word-formation processes in English./Slovo tvorné procesy v angličtine.
4. Paradigmatic lexical relations between words./Paradigmatické lexikálne vzťahy medzi slovami.
5. English collocations and idioms: types, forms, functions and variants./Anglické kolokácie a idiómy: druhy, tvary, funkcie, varianty.

The topics of the course vary according to the current issues that (not only) foreign language teachers may encounter in their practice - from issues specific to English-speaking areas (race, colonialism) to specific topics that are increasingly resonating also in the Central European area (human rights issues, ethnic orations, approaches to teaching and discussing so-called sensitive topics, e.g. the Holocaust).

Formally, the course relies on collaboration with academics from international backgrounds as well as NGO staff in relevant fields.

In the master's study programmes, the state examination consists only of the defence of the Master's thesis. The student chooses the department as a training centre which corresponds to the discipline within which he/she wants to write the final thesis. He/she reports this choice by the deadline set by the department, provided that he/she is able to find a supervisor and a suitable topic in the relevant department. For the successful defence of the Master's thesis as the subject of the state examination in the master's degree programmes conducted at the Department of British and American Studies, students will receive credits according to the current study plan (currently 10 credits). Requirements for the admission to the defence are as follows: - fulfillment of the requirements of the study plan concerning the prescribed composition of courses and their credit value so that after awarding the credits for the state examination the student obtains the required number of credits for the master's degree; - submission of the Master's thesis (electronically via the academic information system AIS) by the thesis submission deadline corresponding to the relevant state examination period according to the academic year schedule set by the faculty. The thesis is evaluated by the standard grading scale (0-59% -FX, 60-67% -E, 68-75% -D, 76-83% -C, 84-91% -B, 92-100% -A) by the supervisor of the thesis and the designated opponent in the assessment reports, which are available to the student no later than 3 working days before the state examination. The supervisor's report shall also include the percentage of compliance results from the originality check protocols (CRZP, Theses), which must be explicitly evaluated by the supervisor with the wording "the thesis shows/does not show signs of plagiarism". The Master's thesis will take the following form: The defence will consist of a thesis presentation (the student chooses the form of the defence, the PPT format can also be used) and the student's response to a broader theoretical question, which is assigned to the student by the supervisor upon the Master's thesis submission. The supervisor will include this question in the assessment report as one of the points of discussion for the defence; it will also be included in the defence report. The thesis presentation must: - Include a clearly articulated thesis statement, - have a clear and logical structure of argumentation and findings, - reflect a new perspective on the issue as a result of adequate and appropriate work with the findings gained through own research, the conclusions of which the student is able to present and formulate.

The criteria for the evaluation (of the defence) of the Master's thesis at the Department of British and American Studies are as follows: - Quality of the Master's thesis (originality, significance of the analysis, clear formulation of the scientific problem and hypotheses under study, scope of the professional and scientific literature used), - the adequacy of the methodological approach to the topic under study, the analysis logically and coherently answers the research questions, - systematic and logical summary of the results of the analysis, - compliance with citation standards (MLA...), - language level of the presentation (academic language at least at B2 level), - quality of the presentation and communication skills. The evaluation of the thesis will include the areas below with the corresponding weighting (out of 100): PART A: CONTENT • Overall structure and organization (adequacy, scope, objectivity, coherence, cohesion) 15 • Theoretical knowledge related to the research topic 15 • Methodology (identifying concepts, research problems, aims, tasks, choosing adequate methods) 15 • Analysis (quality, depth, complexity) 15 • Originality and contribution (degree of originality, own contribution to knowledge) 10 PART B: FORM • Adequate work with information sources (extent, structure, reliability, adequacy, compliance with a citation style) 15 • Language and style 10 • Typography and layout 5 Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100 (%)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2022/2023
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KE/AmoES-04/15	Course title: Theory of Aesthetics 3
Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 1.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Recommended prerequisites: The Aesthetic Theory 3 course focuses on the problem of defining a work of art or an artistic text. The student will gradually become familiar with those conceptions of the art text that have had a decisive influence on contemporary discourses of aesthetics and the arts. The emphasis of the course is placed on a detailed explanation of the distinction between artifact and aesthetic object, the transition from work to text, and the transition from a closed hierarchical model of the text to an open decentralized understanding of the art text. The student will learn the scholarly styles of thought of formalism, structuralism, phenomenology, semiotics, and post-structuralism and their understanding of text and context. The educational goal is for the student to become proficient in the basic contemporary conceptions of the art text. This knowledge is essential because the definition of an artistic text determines its interpretation and evaluation. The student will learn to discern which concepts are appropriate for understanding traditional art texts and which will enable him/her to understand modernist or postmodernist art texts as well.
Course requirements: Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. During the semester, each student will present a paper; students may receive a maximum of 30 points for the preparation and presentation of the paper, and must receive a minimum of 10 points to be admitted to the examination. An oral examination follows the end of the semester, for which a student may obtain a maximum of 70 points. The instructors will accept a maximum of 2 absences with documented evidence. The exact date and topic of the midterm evaluation will be announced at the beginning of the semester. An oral examination will follow the end of the semester, for which the student may obtain a maximum of 70 points. Grading scale: 100-92: A 91-86: B 85-77: C 76-66: D 65-60: E 59 - 0: FX Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): The weighting of the interim/final evaluation is 30/70
Learning outcomes: The aim of the training is for the student to master the basic contemporary concepts of the art text. This knowledge is essential because the definition of an art text determines its interpretation and evaluation. The student will learn to recognize which concepts are appropriate for understanding traditional art texts and which will enable him/her to understand modernist or postmodernist art texts.

Class syllabus:

1. Introduction - the relationship between artistic production and aesthetic theory of art 2. Two understandings of the artistic text - ein Text and der Text 3. Roman Jakobson and Claude Lévi-Strauss: Baudelaire's Cats 4. Roman Ingarden and the layered model of the literary text 5. Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 2.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Recommended prerequisites: This course concludes the courses in aesthetic theory. In order to understand a work of art, it is important to know how the author or creator relates to the work, and therefore the first half of the course focuses on the problem of the author. Equally important is a proper understanding of the relationship between the work and the recipient, and this recipient may be the scholarly subject or the viewer, listener, and reader, with the difference between the two determining the difference between the interpretation and the use of the artwork.
Course requirements: Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. During the semester, each student will present a paper; students may receive a maximum of 30 points for the preparation and presentation of the paper, and must receive a minimum of 10 points to be admitted to the examination. An oral examination follows the end of the semester, for which a student may obtain a maximum of 70 points. The instructors will accept a maximum of 2 absences with documented evidence. Learning outcomes: In the first half of the lecture course, the student is gradually introduced to the basic concepts of the author in a historical cross-section. However, the emphasis of the lectures is laid on the critique of biographical, sociological and psychological conceptions. This will be followed by an analysis of those conceptions which in one way or another determine contemporary conceptions that explain the relationship between the author and the work of art, such as Freudianism, structuralism, semiotics, etc. The second strand of the course is aimed at mastering the basic interpretative approaches to the work of art, such as structuralism, semiotics, post-structuralism, and pragmatism, to name a few. In addition, lectures focus on explaining the difference between use and interpretation and distinguishing interpretation from over-interpretation or misinterpretation.

Class syllabus:

1. Author - text - recipient (reader, listener, viewer, performer) 2. Understanding the author in a historical perspective 3. Mukařovský's structuralist understanding of personality and the individual in art 4. Structuralism and the death of the author 5. The empirical author and the model author, the empirical reader and the model reader 6. The work of art and the problem of interpretation: exegesis and analysis 7. (Over)interpretation and use 8. Claude Lévi-Strauss and the structural analysis of the work of art 9. Roland Barthes and the example of semiological interpretation of the artifact 10. Foucault, Michel: The Order of Discourse 11. Deconstruction and the reading of the text 12. Hermeneutics and the interpretation of the (art) text 13. The conflict of interpretations
