Learning outcomes: The course introduces the student to church history in Slovakia from the first beginnings of Christianity in our territory to the 19th century. It is a propedeutic to the compulsory course "Relations of Churches and State", where the historical development of the relationship between the state and the church in the 19th and 20th centuries in the territory of Slovakia is largely discussed. At the same time, it complements the subject "History of Canon Law" because it specifically follows the development of church administration and church institutions in Slovakia. Students will be familiar with the work of Cyril and Methodius in our territory, the Christianization of the ancient Hungarians, the relationship of the individual Hungarian rulers to the Catholic Church and the relevant legislation of which they were the creators. Last but not least, the subject also deals with ecclesiastical education in Hungary.
Class syllabus: 1. The origins of Christianity in Central Europe and the earliest church administration; 2. The work of Cyril and Methodius and the relationship of Mochmirian Moravia with Constantinople and Rome; 3. Cyril and Methodius' legacy after 884, the fate of the Slavonic liturgy. 4. The Christianization of the Hungarians and the establishment of the Kingdom of Hungary, Stephen I and the emergence of ecclesiastical administration in Hungary;

5. The Hungarian Church in the 11th and 12th centuries, the impact of church reforms and the property situation of the church;
6. The Hungarian Church in the 13th century, the relationship between Rome and Hungary, the invasion of the Tatars;
7. The Hungarian Church in the 14th century. Charles Róbert, Louis I and Sigismund of Luxemburg,
8. The Hungarian Church until 1526, Hussites and Brethren in Slovakia;
9. Religious orders and monasteries in Slovakia;
10. Church schools in Slovakia in the Middle Ages;
11. Medieval saints from the Central European environment;
12. Origins of the Reformation in Hungary; Protestant Confessions of Faith;
13. Recatholization in Slovakia. the Jesuits and the Universities of Košice and Trnava, Ecclesiastical Education;
