STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2023/2024
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KPR/A-boRE-990/15	Course title: Bachelor's Degree Thesis Defence
Number of credits: 12
Educational level: I.
Course requirements: The student must submit the bachelor's thesis within the deadline specified in the schedule of the current academic year for the relevant date of the state exam. The bachelor thesis is submitted in electronic form via AIS. The work must meet the parameters determined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. The provisions of Article 14 of Internal Regulation no. 5/2020 (Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts of Comenius University) apply to the evaluation of the bachelor's thesis. The supervisor of the final thesis and its opponent will prepare evaluations of the bachelor's thesis and propose a grade in the A-FX grading scale, which the student receives a minimum of three working days before the defence. Grading scale: 0-59% -FX, 60-67% -E, 68-75% -D, 76-83% -C, 84-91% -B, 92-100% -A Bachelor thesis evaluation criteria: 1. The contribution of the bachelor's thesis, the fulfilment of the goals of the thesis in its assignment, and the requirements for the content of the bachelor's thesis given by the internal quality system of Comenius University. The following is assessed: demonstration of knowledge and skills, ability to work creatively in the study program, ability applied in the collection, interpretation, and processing of basic scientific literature; in the case of an empirically oriented bachelor's thesis also mastering the application of theoretical principles in practice and verifiability of hypotheses. 2. Originality of the work (bachelor thesis must not be plagiarized, must not infringe the copyrights of other authors); the documentation for the defence of the bachelor's thesis also includes protocols of originality from the CRZP and Theses systems, to the results of which the thesis supervisor and the opponent express their opinions in their evaluations. 3. Correctness and accuracy of citation of used information sources, research results of other authors and group authors, correctness of the description of methods and working procedures of other authors or group authors. 4. Compliance of the structure of the bachelor's thesis with the prescribed composition defined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. 5. Respecting the recommended length of the bachelor's thesis (the recommended length of the bachelor's thesis is usually 30 – 40 standard pages = 54,000 to 72,000 characters, including spaces), the adequacy of the length of the thesis is assessed by the thesis supervisor. 6. Linguistic and stylistic level of work and formal adjustments. The student orally presents the content, achieved goals, and conclusions of the bachelor's thesis, and answers the questions and comments of the thesis supervisor, opponent, or members of the examination committee. The committee will comprehensively evaluate the quality of the bachelor's thesis, assess the method and form of defence, and the student's ability to adequately respond to comments and questions from the evaluations of the thesis supervisor and the opponent. The student receives their final grade based on the average of the assessment of the thesis supervisor and opponent from their evaluations, and the assessment of the examination committee.

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100
Learning outcomes: The student has mastered the basic requirements of writing a scientific text in compliance with the rules of academic ethics, is able to work creatively in the field of study in which he completed the study program, and has adequate knowledge and understanding of the relevant issues. The student can apply his skills in the collection, interpretation, and processing of basic scientific literature, or even in its application in practice, or has the ability to solve a partial task related to the focus of the bachelor's thesis. After a successful defence of the bachelor's thesis, the student is able to logically deal with the theoretical background of the bachelor's thesis and respond to questions relating to the relevant issues.

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0%/100%
Learning outcomes: Students of the course will be introduced to the the stereotypes and legends attributed to the Balkans and its inhabitants. They will also acquire knowledge about how such stereotyping appeared and appears in European political, artistic, journalistic and public discourses, and how the inhabitants of the Balkans react to this discourses. Students will acquire a range of theoretical tools through which they will be able to conceptualise, interpret and analyze such sets of stereotypes. Students will be able to reveal the common denominators of stereotypes and legends about the Balkans, and at the same time to understand the Balkans not only as a category at the geographical level, but also at the so-called metageographic level, i.e. at the level of collective representations of this space and its symbolic meanings. In European tradition, the Balkan is often considered the birthplace of vampires and war criminals, Balkan is compared to a bridge between the world of the life and the dead and between barbarism and civilization. Europeans consider Balkan as an unstable "barrel with gunpowder", the wild European Orient, or even as the dark subconscious of Europe. The Balkans became a metaphor for chaos, barbarism, bloodlust, violence, and sexual and emotional ferocity.
Class syllabus: 1. Introductory lecture: goals and content of the course and the requirements for its completion 2. Introduction to the stereotypes about the Balkan: From vampires to war criminals 3. Orient and the Balkan - Orientalism and Balkanism 4. The Balkans as a geographical and geopolitical category 5. The nesting orientalisms and the fluid borders of the West and the East

6. The Balkans and colonialism of the imagination: The Balkans as a scene of horror, detective stories and adventure
7. The Balkans and psychoanalysis: Balkanism as a mental disorder and the unconscious of Europe
8. Balkan limen: The Balkan as a space of mythical and ritual in-between
9. Border Orientalism: Images of the Balkan in Central European folklore
10. From Andrić to Kusturica: self-colonization and self-exoticization in Balkan art and movie
11. Urbicides and genocides in the Balkan: Balkanism as a self-fulfilling prophecy
12. Summary: Imaginary worlds and their real consequences
