He will also gain the framework of knowledge and skills needed to further his own relevant analysis of the research problems associated with this period.
Class syllabus: 1. Periodization of Slovak literature from the end of the WW2 to the end of the 20th century: main milestones, characteristics of individual periods, period controversies, determining canons and authors. 2. Transitional period 1945-48. The end of the tendencies of the 1940s (surrealism, naturism, Catholic modernism) and the announcement of new trends (social realism).

3. Advent of socialist realism, its sources and doctrine: main themes and forms in poetry and prose, representatives (M. Lajčiak, F. Hečko, V. Mináč, etc.).
4. Neo-avant-garde in poetry from the end of the 1950s: return to the traditions of modernism and the avant-garde (M. Válek, M. Rúfus), Concretists; rehabilitation of the left avant-garde (L. Novomeský, superrealism); Prose Generation 56.
5. "Golden Sixties". Connection to world currents of thought and art (existentialism, new novel, absurd literature). Other forms of modern poetry (Lone Runners).
6. The onset of a significant prose generation (J. Johanides, V. Šikula, R. Sloboda, P. Hrúz, P. Vilikovský).
7. Normalization of literature in the 70s: an attempt to revitalize soc. realism (so-called engaged literature, or neoschematism); the changed publishing situation in the early 1970s; officially preferred genres and themes; stratification lit. life in the period of normalization (official literature, exile, dissident, gray zone).
8. Poetry in the period of normalization: Mihálek's school of poetry, so-called engaged literature (M. Válek), its topics and poetics; "non-consolidated", resp. only partially "consolidated" authors (preserving the heritage of the 1960s). Poetry of Š. Strážay and Š. Moravčík as the "reverse" of the normalization picture of the world.
9. Prose of 70.-80. years: inclination to historicism and its socio-cultural interpretation in the so-called novel sagas (V. Šikula, P. Jaroš, I. Habaj, L. Ballek); analytical prose of introspective (R. Sloboda), artistic (J. Johanides) and ironic type (P. Vilikovský, P. Hrúz); prose of model cold (D. Mitana), life paradox (J. Puškáš) and human favor (D. Dušek). Author in opposition: D. Tatarka.
10. Advent of a new generation of poetry and prose in the 80's (J. Urban, I. Kolenič, V. Klimáček, E. Groch). Changes in cultural and political coordinates in the period of the so-called redevelopment.
11. Unofficial and later also the official crowd of the new prose generation, which represents a fundamental departure from the neo-modernist line of Slovak literature of previous generations and presents the so-called prose of ironic perpetuation (P. Pišťanek, D. Taragel, I. Otčenáš). Academic irony of S. Rakús.
12. The vicissitudes of D. Tatarka's life and work as a synecdochal recapitulation of the transformations of society and literature of the individual decades of the second half of the 20th century.

In accordance with the faculty's study regulations (VP 5/2020, Art. 15), the framework dates of state examinations are established by the Dean in accordance with the faculty schedule of studies. Departments are obliged to publish their state examination dates on their websites no later than 5 weeks prior to the date of the examinations. The student is to register for the state examination via the academic information system at least three weeks prior to the date of the examination. A student has the right to one regular and two retake dates of the state examination. The regular examination date shall be the one for which the student first applied within the time limit given for the state examinations. If the student has been evaluated with a grade of FX on the regular date of the state examination, the student may take the retake dates of the state examination a) on the following dates for taking the state examinations in the corresponding academic year; or b) on the state examination dates in one of the following academic years in accordance with section 65, paragraph 2 of the Higher Education Act. If a student is unable to attend the date of the state examination or a part thereof for which they has registered due to serious reasons, they must issue a written apology to the chair of the examination board in advance or, at the latest, within three business days after the date of the state examination or any part thereof, if there were serious obstacles preventing them from submitting an apology in advance. If the student does not attend the state examination or any part thereof on the specified date without an explanation, or if the chair of the examination board does not accept the student's apology, the student shall be given a grade of FX for that particular date of the state examination. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100
Learning outcomes: After completing the state examination subject Bulgarian Language and Translation, the students handle the matters of the state examination in the context of the specified topics, possess a broad theoretical knowledge of individual translation and interpreting disciplines, know how to compare the language systems of Slovak and Bulgarian, can adequately communicate in all language styles (literary, specialized, journalistic, marketing) both in written and oral form. They master all procedures, skills, habits and strategies of literary and specialized translation, consecutive and simultaneous interpretation, achieve a high degree of language competence in Slovak and Bulgarian, as well as a high degree of translation and interpreting competence.

Class syllabus:

The language examination has a written and oral part.

The written part consists of a test with open-ended as well as multiple choice questions and it is normally carried out one day before the oral part. On the day of the written exam, the student also takes the translation and interpreting examinations. The dates of the written and oral parts are to be published in advance on the department's website.

In the oral part, the student will be asked one question. The questions are given in written form and anonymously in the form of a random selection from printed questions or a random generator. The examination board will allow the student adequate time to prepare an oral response to the question. The student shall present the prepared answer to the question to the examination board and shall also answer supplementary questions.

After the student has completed their answer, the examination board shall decide on the results of the state examination, which shall take place in a closed session of the examination board. The state examination and the announcement of its results shall be public. During the announcement of the results, the board informs the student about the results of the written and oral part of the state examination and informs them of the final evaluation of state examination subject.

Learning outcomes: After successful participation in the course the student has an overview in different approaches to literature of 20th and 21st century and he/she is able to put them into the context of evolutionary steps of art. The student is able to grasp and comment on a scientific metatext (from domains of theory of literature, psychoanalysis, philosophy, esthetics), specific in its approach to literature. The student is capable of selecting aspects of the text in a way enabling him/her to use those in their own interpretation of a literary text or in their own reflection on art. The student is aware of the specifics of exact scientific methods as well as of more open approaches to literature. He/she has basic knowledge about developing his/her own competencies of reading and writing with aspects from various discussed metatexts.

Class syllabus:

The course helps in developing of reading and writing competencies. It is aimed at an overview of selected approaches to literature in theory of literature, psychoanalysis, philosophy, and esthetics, in international and domestic culture contexts. The course is executed as a set of interactive lectures.

Topics are:

1. Positivism and its detailed study of author's biography.
2. Formalism and its benefits in more complex interpretation of literary works.
3. „Antirealism“ in essays related to avantgarde art.
4. Psychoanalysis and its insight into functions of libido in the process of creating text..
5. Psychoanalytical insights into existential writing longing to find the meaning of life.
6. Phenomenology and its study of forces of nature (mainly fire and water) in imagination.
7. Structuralism, its “story” in Russian, French, Czech and Slovak context.
8. Structuralist analysis of poetry and prose.
9. Semiology and its suggestions on distancing from lies and power of language.
10. Relationship between terms semiotics and semiology.
11. Postmodern philosophy and esthetics, its insight in approach to art and life.
12. Cognitive sciences in study of poetry and prose.
13. Aspect of gender in history of literature and in its interpretation.

During selected parts of the lectures, Slovak and world poetry and prose will be interpreted and interactively discussed. Visual artworks will also be presented, since one of the goals of the course is to show how science connects to the power of art.

STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2023/2024
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KAA/A-mpAN-801/15	Course title: Master's Degree Thesis Defence
Number of credits: 15
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: All matters pertaining to state examination are set out in Article 14 of the Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts. In the master's study programmes, the state examination consists only of the defence of the Master's thesis. The student chooses the department as a training centre which corresponds to the discipline within which he/she wants to write the final thesis. He/she reports this choice by the deadline set by the department, provided that he/she is able to find a supervisor and a suitable topic in the relevant department. For the successful defence of the Master's thesis as the subject of the state examination in the master's degree programmes conducted at the Department of British and American Studies, students will receive credits according to the current study plan (currently 15 credits). Requirements for the admission to the defence are as follows: - fulfillment of the requirements of the study plan concerning the prescribed composition of courses and their credit value so that after awarding the credits for the state examination the student obtains the required number of credits for the master's degree; - submission of the Master's thesis (electronically via the academic information system AIS) by the thesis submission deadline corresponding to the relevant state examination period according to the academic year schedule set by the faculty. The thesis is evaluated by the standard grading scale (0-59% -FX, 60-67% -E, 68-75% -D, 76-83% -C, 84-91% -B, 92-100% -A) by the supervisor of the thesis and the designated opponent in the assessment reports, which are available to the student no later than 3 working days before the state examination. The supervisor's report shall also include the percentage of compliance results from the originality check protocols (CRZP, Theses), which must be explicitly evaluated by the supervisor with the wording "the thesis shows/does not show signs of plagiarism". The Master's thesis will take the following form: The defence will consist of a thesis presentation (the student chooses the form of the defence, the PPT format can also be used) and the student's response to a broader theoretical question, which is assigned to the student by the supervisor upon the Master's thesis submission. The supervisor will include this question in the assessment report as one of the points of discussion for the defence; it will also be included in the defence report. The thesis presentation must: - Include a clearly articulated thesis statement, - have a clear and logical structure of argumentation and findings, - reflect a new perspective on the issue as a result of adequate and appropriate work with the findings gained through own research, the conclusions of which the student is able to present and formulate. The criteria for the evaluation (of the defence) of the Master's thesis at the Department of British and American Studies are as follows:

- Quality of the Master's thesis (originality, significance of the analysis, clear formulation of the scientific problem and hypotheses under study, scope of the professional and scientific literature used), - the adequacy of the methodological approach to the topic under study, the analysis logically and coherently answers the research questions, - systematic and logical summary of the results of the analysis, - compliance with citation standards (MLA...), - language level of the presentation (academic language at least at B2 level), - quality of the presentation and communication skills. The evaluation of the thesis will include the areas below with the corresponding weighting (out of 100): PART A: CONTENT • Overall structure and organization (adequacy, scope, objectivity, coherence, cohesion) 15 • Theoretical knowledge related to the research topic 15 • Methodology (identifying concepts, research problems, aims, tasks, choosing adequate methods) 15 • Analysis (quality, depth, complexity) 15 • Originality and contribution (degree of originality, own contribution to knowledge) 10 PART B: FORM • Adequate work with information sources (extent, structure, reliability, adequacy, compliance with a citation style) 15 • Language and style 10 • Typography and layout 5 Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100 (%)
Learning outcomes: • Upon successful completion of the defence, students will be familiar with the basic requirements for academic writing and with the rules of academic integrity. • They will have mastered the theory of working with sources and have the skills to compile correct bibliographic entries. • They will have understood the principles of writing a Master's thesis, both in terms of form and content, as laid out by the university's regulations. • They will have understood the causes of plagiarism, they will be able to recognize its types and know how to avoid it. • They will have sufficient research skills to obtain, process, and interpret sources. • They will have mastered the basics for writing a Master's thesis. • They will have a deep knowledge of the thesis topic and will be able to approach it both critically and creatively.
Class syllabus: 1. The student presents the Master's thesis in front of the state examination committee, the supervisor and the opponent of the Master's thesis, and those present. 2. The student responds to the comments and questions in the assessments. 3. The student responds to the questions of the state examination committee or the questions in a broader debate. 4. A closed vote of the state examination committee on the evaluation of the Master's thesis defence. 5. Announcement of the evaluation (of the thesis defence) of the Master's thesis.

University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KKSF/A-mpAR-801/15	Course title: Master's Degree Thesis Defence
Number of credits: 15
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The student must submit the master's thesis within the deadline specified in the schedule of the current academic year for the relevant date of the state exam. The master's thesis is submitted in electronic form via AIS. The work must meet the parameters determined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. The provisions of Article 14 of Internal Regulation no. 5/2020 (Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts of Comenius University) apply to the evaluation of the master's thesis. The supervisor of the final thesis and its opponent will prepare evaluations of the master's thesis and propose a grade in the A-FX grading scale, which the student receives a minimum of three working days before the defence. Grading scale: 0 – 59%: FX, 60 – 67%: E, 68 – 75%: D, 76 – 83%: C, 84 – 91%: B, 92 – 100%: A. Master's thesis evaluation criteria: 1. The contribution of the master's thesis, the fulfilment of the objectives of the thesis in its assignment, and the requirements for the content of the master's thesis given by the internal quality system of Comenius University. It is assessed whether the student has worked on the chosen topic at the level of scientific study, with a representative selection of scientific literature, with appropriately chosen scientific procedures and hypotheses that can be verified. Demonstration of the ability to work creatively in the study program is evaluated and the degree of demonstration of knowledge and understanding of the diploma thesis is reflected. 2. Originality of the work (master's thesis must not be plagiarized, must not infringe the copyrights of other authors); the documentation for the defence of the master's thesis also includes protocols of originality from the CRZP and Theses systems, to the results of which the thesis supervisor and the opponent express their opinions in their evaluations. 3. Correctness and accuracy of citation of used information sources, research results of other authors and group authors, correctness of the description of methods and working procedures of other authors or group authors. 4. Compliance of the structure of the master's thesis with the prescribed composition defined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. 5. Respecting the recommended length of the master's thesis (the recommended length of the master's thesis is usually 50 – 70 standard pages = 90,000 to 126,000 characters, including spaces), the adequacy of the length of the thesis is assessed by the thesis supervisor. 6. Linguistic and stylistic level of work and formal adjustments. The student orally presents the content, achieved goals, and conclusions of the master's thesis, and answers the questions and comments of the thesis supervisor, opponent, or members of the examination committee. The committee will comprehensively evaluate the quality of the master's thesis, assess the method and form of defence, and the student's ability to adequately respond to comments and questions from the evaluations of the thesis supervisor and the opponent. The student receives their final grade based on the average of the assessment of the thesis supervisor and opponent from their evaluations, and the assessment of the examination committee. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100.

Learning outcomes: Students can create an academically ethical and contributive scientific study with a rich bibliography. They know a lot about the scrutinized field, they are familiar with the existing literature on the topic and they can react and reason promptly to questions and remarks related to it. They are skilled in processing and interpreting information, on the basis of which they are able to formulate their own hypotheses and deduce conclusions, as well as use them to solve potential practical problems.
Class syllabus: 1. The student presents the master's thesis for the commission for the state examinations, opponent and the others present. 2. The student reacts to the assessments; comments on remarks and answers questions. 3. A discussion takes place, in which the student answers questions of the commission for the state examinations and the others present.
State exam syllabus: Depends on the topic of the master's thesis.

STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2023/2024
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSF/A-mpCH-801/15	Course title: Master's Degree Thesis Defence
Number of credits: 15
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The student must submit the master's thesis within the deadline specified in the schedule of the current academic year for the relevant date of the state exam. The master's thesis is submitted in electronic form via AIS. The work must meet the parameters determined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. The provisions of Article 14 of Internal Regulation no. 5/2020 (Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts of Comenius University) apply to the evaluation of the master's thesis. The supervisor of the final thesis and its opponent will prepare evaluations of the master's thesis and propose a grade in the A-FX grading scale, which the student receives a minimum of three working days before the defence. Grading scale: 0-59% -FX, 60-67% -E, 68-75% -D, 76-83% -C, 84-91% -B, 92-100% -A Master's thesis evaluation criteria: 1. The contribution of the master's thesis, the fulfilment of the objectives of the thesis in its assignment, and the requirements for the content of the master's thesis given by the internal quality system of Comenius University. It is assessed whether the student has worked on the chosen topic at the level of scientific study, with a representative selection of scientific literature, with appropriately chosen scientific procedures and hypotheses that can be verified. Demonstration of the ability to work creatively in the study program is evaluated and the degree of demonstration of knowledge and understanding of the diploma thesis is reflected. 2. Originality of the work (master's thesis must not be plagiarized, must not infringe the copyrights of other authors); the documentation for the defence of the master's thesis also includes protocols of originality from the CRZP and Theses systems, to the results of which the thesis supervisor and the opponent express their opinions in their evaluations. 3. Correctness and accuracy of citation of used information sources, research results of other authors and group authors, correctness of the description of methods and working procedures of other authors or group authors. 4. Compliance of the structure of the master's thesis with the prescribed composition defined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. 5. Respecting the recommended length of the master's thesis (the recommended length of the master's thesis is usually 50 – 70 standard pages = 90,000 to 126,000 characters, including spaces), the adequacy of the length of the thesis is assessed by the thesis supervisor. 6. Linguistic and stylistic level of work and formal adjustments. The student orally presents the content, achieved goals, and conclusions of the master's thesis, and answers the questions and comments of the thesis supervisor, opponent, or members of the examination committee. The committee will comprehensively evaluate the quality of the master's thesis, assess the method and form of defence, and the student's ability to adequately respond to comments and questions from the evaluations of the thesis supervisor and the opponent. The student receives their final grade based on the average of the assessment of the thesis supervisor and opponent from their evaluations, and the assessment of the examination committee. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant part of the assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100 Learning outcomes: The student has mastered the basic requirements of writing a scientific text in compliance with the rules of academic ethics. The student knows the methods used in the field of study, is able to work on the chosen topic of the master's thesis at the level of scientific study, with a representative selection of scientific literature, with appropriately chosen scientific procedures and hypotheses that can be verified. After a successful defence of the master's thesis, the student is able to design, implement, critically reflect, and justify his research intention. The student understands the context of the problem, can clearly define research conclusions, state his positions, and make recommendations. He can respond argumentatively and flexibly to questions about the research topic, its methodology, and its conclusions.

Class syllabus: 1. Student presents the bachelor's thesis (app. 10 minutes) in front of the committee for state exams. A ppt presentation can be prepared, which is not necessary. 2. Presentation of the main points of the supervisor's and oponent's reviews, possibly also the questions arising from them. 3. The student's respond to comments and questions in the reviews. 4. The student responds to the questions of the committee for state exams or the questions in a broader debate.

Learning outcomes: After successful completion of the course, students have knowledge about the state of reception of Russian and Ukrainian literature in the 20th and 21st century in the Slovak cultural space. They have knowledge of the determinants and circumstances of the development of this reception and its transformations in relation to the aforementioned determinants of cultural and extra-cultural character. For a better understanding of the real contexts, two literatures that have formed a logical part of the Slavic context of the Slovak cultural space for almost two centuries are included in the learning process. The graduate of the course will acquire a basic knowledge of the transformations of Slovak ideas about the phenomena and personalities of the literatures discussed.
Class syllabus: 1. Periodization of translation and reception of Russian and Ukrainian literature in Slovak cultural space - direct translations from both languages. 2. Translations and reception of Russian and Ukrainian literature until 1918 - circumstances, personalities, works: differences and similarities 3. The interwar period - depth and breadth of the scope of translations from Russian literature, a period of some stagnation in the reception of Ukrainian literature

4. Emancipation of translation (not only) from Russian literature in the period of the wartime Slovak Republic.
5. The quantity and quality of translations from Russian and Ukrainian literature in the times of "building socialism" - the phenomenon of "reception funnel", second-hand translations, echoes of the lull.
6. The complexity of the reception of Russian literature in 1970-1990. "Non-Russian" literature in Slovak translation and as an extension of the range of "Soviet" literature.
7. An unnatural situation? Decline? The period of 1990-2000. The importance of specific personalities in the reception of Russian and even more so Ukrainian literature
8. Since the turn of the millennium, a gradual revitalization of interest in translations of Russian and, gradually, Ukrainian literature.
