STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2023/2024
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSF/mpCH-110/15	Course title: Croatian Language and Translation
Number of credits: 3
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The student can take the state exam a) after obtaining at least such number of credits that after obtaining credits for successful completion of state exams, they achieve the necessary number of credits for the proper completion of studies, b) after successful completion of compulsory subjects, compulsory elective subjects, and elective subjects in the composition determined by the study program, c) after fulfilling the student's obligations arising from § 71, par. 3 letter b of the Higher Education Act, d) if no disciplinary action is taken against them. Successful completion of the state exam is one of the conditions for successful completion of the study program. The subject of the state exam is evaluated by the committee for state exams using the grading scale A-FX. The evaluation of the state examination or its part is decided by the examination committee by consensus. If the examination committee does not reach a consensus, the evaluation of the state examination or its part is decided by voting. On the basis of the wording of the study regulations of the faculty (Internal Rules and Regulations 5/2020, Art. 15), the framework dates of state examinations are set by the dean in accordance with the faculty's academic schedule. Departments are obliged to publish the dates of their state exams on the website no later than 5 weeks before they take place. The student registers for the state exam through the academic information system (AIS) at least three weeks before it takes place. The student is entitled to one regular and two resit attempts of the state exam. The regular attempt is the one for which the student applied for the first time within the deadline set for state exams. If the student was evaluated with the FX mark on the regular attempt of the state exam, the student may take resits of the state exam a) on the following dates assigned for state examinations in the relevant academic year or b) on the dates assigned for state examinations in one of the following academic years in accordance with § 65, par. 2 of the Higher Education Act. If the student is unable to come on the day of the state exam for which they have registered on serious grounds, they are obliged to apologize in writing to the chairman of the examination committee in advance or no later than three working days after the date of the state examination or its part, if there were serious obstacles that prevented them to do so in advance. If the student does not attend the state examination or its part without an excuse within the specified period, or if the chairman of the examination committee does not accept their excuse, they are assessed with the FX grade from that attempt of the state exam. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant part of the assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100 Learning outcomes: After passing the state exam in the subject of Croatian Language and Translation, students have comprehensively mastered the issue of the state exam in the context of all established areas. They have extensive theoretical knowledge about individual disciplines in the fields of translation and interpretation; they are able to provide a comparison of the Slovak and the Croatian linguistic system, they can adequately communicate in all language styles (artistic, professional, journalistic and advertising) in both written and oral form; and they have good command of various techniques, skills, habits and strategies that are essential to artistic and specialized translation, as well as to consecutive and simultaneous interpretation. They have achieved a high degree of language competence in Slovak and Croatian, and are also competent in translating and interpreting.

Class syllabus:

The state exam has a written and an oral part.

The written part consists of a test with both open and single-choice questions, and typically takes place one day before the oral part of the exam. On the day of the written exam, the student also takes exams in the subjects of translation and interpreting. The dates of the written and oral parts are announced in advance through the department's website.

When taking the oral part, the student will receive one question. Questions are assigned in writing and anonymously, either in the form a random selection from printed questions or produced by a generator. The examination committee will give the student reasonable time to prepare an oral answer to the question. The student presents the prepared answer to the question in front of the examination committee and answers all additional questions.

After the student finishes their answer, the examination committee decides on the results of the state exam in a closed session of the examination committee. The course of the state exam and the announcement of its results are public. During the announcement of the results, the committee informs the student about the results of the written and oral parts of the state exam and informs them of the final mark for the subject of the state exam.

State exam syllabus:

1. Grammatical categories in Croatian and Slovak.
2. Phonemic system in Croatian and Slovak.
3. Types and characteristics of syntagmata in Croatian and Slovak.
4. Grammatical and lexical properties of flexible word classes in Croatian and Slovak.
5. Inflexible word classes in Croatian and Slovak.
6. A confrontational analysis of Croatian and Slovak vocabulary.
7. Stylistically symptomatic lexicon in Croatian and Slovak.
8. Sentence structure in Croatian and Slovak.
9. Sentence constituents in Croatian and Slovak.
10. Word order in Croatian and Slovak
11. The development of standard Croatian from the Novi Sad Agreement to the disintegration of Yugoslavia.

Learning outcomes: After successful completion of the course, students have knowledge about the state of reception of Russian and Ukrainian literature in the 20th and 21st century in the Slovak cultural space. They have knowledge of the determinants and circumstances of the development of this reception and its transformations in relation to the aforementioned determinants of cultural and extra-cultural character. For a better understanding of the real contexts, two literatures that have formed a logical part of the Slavic context of the Slovak cultural space for almost two centuries are included in the learning process. The graduate of the course will acquire a basic knowledge of the transformations of Slovak ideas about the phenomena and personalities of the literatures discussed.
Class syllabus: 1. Periodization of translation and reception of Russian and Ukrainian literature in Slovak cultural space - direct translations from both languages. 2. Translations and reception of Russian and Ukrainian literature until 1918 - circumstances, personalities, works: differences and similarities 3. The interwar period - depth and breadth of the scope of translations from Russian literature, a period of some stagnation in the reception of Ukrainian literature

4. Emancipation of translation (not only) from Russian literature in the period of the wartime Slovak Republic.
5. The quantity and quality of translations from Russian and Ukrainian literature in the times of "building socialism" - the phenomenon of "reception funnel", second-hand translations, echoes of the lull.
6. The complexity of the reception of Russian literature in 1970-1990. "Non-Russian" literature in Slovak translation and as an extension of the range of "Soviet" literature.
7. An unnatural situation? Decline? The period of 1990-2000. The importance of specific personalities in the reception of Russian and even more so Ukrainian literature
8. Since the turn of the millennium, a gradual revitalization of interest in translations of Russian and, gradually, Ukrainian literature.
