COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2023/2024
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KE/AmoES-04/15	Course title: Theory of Aesthetics 3
Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 1.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Recommended prerequisites: The Aesthetic Theory 3 course focuses on the problem of defining a work of art or an artistic text. The student will gradually become familiar with those conceptions of the art text that have had a decisive influence on contemporary discourses of aesthetics and the arts. The emphasis of the course is placed on a detailed explanation of the distinction between artifact and aesthetic object, the transition from work to text, and the transition from a closed hierarchical model of the text to an open decentralized understanding of the art text. The student will learn the scholarly styles of thought of formalism, structuralism, phenomenology, semiotics, and post-structuralism and their understanding of text and context. The educational goal is for the student to become proficient in the basic contemporary conceptions of the art text. This knowledge is essential because the definition of an artistic text determines its interpretation and evaluation. The student will learn to discern which concepts are appropriate for understanding traditional art texts and which will enable him/her to understand modernist or postmodernist art texts as well.
Course requirements: Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. During the semester, each student will present a paper; students may receive a maximum of 30 points for the preparation and presentation of the paper, and must receive a minimum of 10 points to be admitted to the examination. An oral examination follows the end of the semester, for which a student may obtain a maximum of 70 points. The instructors will accept a maximum of 2 absences with documented evidence. The exact date and topic of the midterm evaluation will be announced at the beginning of the semester. An oral examination will follow the end of the semester, for which the student may obtain a maximum of 70 points. Grading scale: 100-92: A 91-86: B 85-77: C 76-66: D 65-60: E 59 - 0: FX Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): The weighting of the interim/final evaluation is 30/70
Learning outcomes: The aim of the training is for the student to master the basic contemporary concepts of the art text. This knowledge is essential because the definition of an art text determines its interpretation and evaluation. The student will learn to recognize which concepts are appropriate for understanding traditional art texts and which will enable him/her to understand modernist or postmodernist art texts.

Class syllabus:

1. Introduction - the relationship between artistic production and aesthetic theory of art 2. Two understandings of the artistic text - ein Text and der Text 3. Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture / seminar Number of hours: per week: 1 / 1 per level/semester: 14 / 14 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 2.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Recommended prerequisites: This course concludes the courses in aesthetic theory. In order to understand a work of art, it is important to know how the author or creator relates to the work, and therefore the first half of the course focuses on the problem of the author. Equally important is a proper understanding of the relationship between the work and the recipient, and this recipient may be the scholarly subject or the viewer, listener, and reader, with the difference between the two determining the difference between the interpretation and the use of the artwork.
Course requirements: Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. During the semester, each student will present a paper; students may receive a maximum of 30 points for the preparation and presentation of the paper, and must receive a minimum of 10 points to be admitted to the examination. An oral examination follows the end of the semester, for which a student may obtain a maximum of 70 points. The instructors will accept a maximum of 2 absences with documented evidence. Learning outcomes: In the first half of the lecture course, the student is gradually introduced to the basic concepts of the author in a historical cross-section. However, the emphasis of the lectures is laid on the critique of biographical, sociological and psychological conceptions. This will be followed by an analysis of those conceptions which in one way or another determine contemporary conceptions that explain the relationship between the author and the work of art, such as Freudianism, structuralism, semiotics, etc. The second strand of the course is aimed at mastering the basic interpretative approaches to the work of art, such as structuralism, semiotics, post-structuralism, and pragmatism, to name a few. In addition, lectures focus on explaining the difference between use and interpretation and distinguishing interpretation from over-interpretation or misinterpretation.

Class syllabus:

1. Author - text - recipient (reader, listener, viewer, performer) 2. Understanding the author in a historical perspective 3. Mukařovský's structuralist understanding of personality and the individual in art 4. Structuralism and the death of the author 5. The empirical author and the model author, the empirical reader and the model reader 6. The work of art and the problem of interpretation: exegesis and analysis 7. (Over)interpretation and use 8. Claude Lévi-Strauss and the structural analysis of the work of art 9. Roland Barthes and the example of semiological interpretation of the artifact 10. Foucault, Michel: The Order of Discourse 11. Deconstruction and the reading of the text 12. Hermeneutics and the interpretation of the (art) text 13. The conflict of interpretations
