Learning outcomes: The course provides an overview of the transformation and development of art at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries in the context of scientific and technological progress, social and political changes. The look at the development of fine and applied arts, architecture, music, dance, and literature creates the preconditions for a better understanding of the overall social modernization in the period before the First World War, which is symbolically labelled the Belle Époque. Students can identify trends which became crucial for the modern period in the 20th century, especially the so-called Soviet avant-garde. Equally important for understanding of social development is the history of film, visual art, theatre, and other forms which have emphasized the interaction with society. Students gain competencies enabling them to analyse modern art and culture in correlation with modern understandings of the individual and society.
Class syllabus: 1. Brief introduction to the social conditions and political situation at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries. 2. Course ID: FiF.KSD/A-moHI-059/22	Course title: Art and architecture in Slovakia in the early modern period
Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Students are evaluated on the basis of the results of the written test they are required to take during the examination period. The form of the test questions indicate students they are expected to give a factual description of the topic, presenting the facts without any further analysis or generalization. The classification scale is the following: 100-92 % of the max. number of points A, 91 – 84 % B, 83 – 76 % C, 75 – 68 % D, 67 – 60 % E, <60% Fx Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. The exact regular and retake dates will be published in the AIS during the credit week. Maximum number of possible absences: 2. Students with more absences, resulting from objectively justifiable and documented reasons, can complete the course under the following conditions: for each absence beyond the set framework, students need to submit a paper of around 5 standard pages on a pre-assigned and consulted topic. The paper must include an introduction, the main part (without footnotes), conclusions and the bibliography. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Scale of assessment preliminary/final: 0/100
Learning outcomes: The course aims at making students familiar (in situ, or on the website of galleries / museums, portals of memory institutions, through virtual exhibitions) with early modern art, which is physically “accessible” to people today. At the end of the course, students are able to identify those items from the material culture of Slovakia that concern the 16th - 18th centuries, and what information these works of art and period architecture can provide about past centuries. Students have an overview of the best known facts from the different regions of the country and the legacy the different early (modern, professional, national or otherwise identified) societies left behind. Students are familiar with the historical context of the existence of works and with information about the material possibilities and mentality of the time. They can also define the role of visual art in the different periods.

Class syllabus:

1. Introduction to the subject. Opening debate with students about the content and purpose of the course. Samples of visual sources.
2. General introduction - historical context in which selected works of art and architecture originated. Example on approaches of the issue.
3. Field research and virtual tours of art and architecture.
4. Portrait painting, portrait galleries of aristocrats.
5. The denominational aspect in early modern art. Reformation and Counter-Reformation vs. art.
6. Sepulchral monuments.
7. The phenomenon of Central European sculpture. Donner in Pressburg.
8. Land fortification and Italian engineers.
9. Veduta, historical scenery of urban landscapes and their narratives.
10. Urban culture and topography.
11. Industrial landscape - mining areas, the beginnings of industrialization in the country.
12. Utility in art.
13. The future of monuments on the example of technical objects in situ, the possibilities of restoration, the monument fund and national cultural monuments.

Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 1., 3.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Students are required to systematically prepare at home throughout the whole term. This includes reading the assigned sources and scholarly literature the course requires. Throughout the term, students need to prepare and present short reports (ca. 20 min.) on older Slovak historiography works in front of the class. 100% continuous evaluation. Classification scale: A - excellent - 100 - 92 % B - very well - 91 - 84 % C - well - 83 - 76 % D - satisfactory - 75 - 68 % E - sufficient - 67 - 60 % FX - insufficient - > 60 % Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Maximum number of unjustified absences: 2 Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: After successfully completing the course, students have a general overview of the way the history of Slovakia and Slovaks has been perceived at the different periods and how this perception has evolved since the Middle Ages to the present. Students go through and are able to identify the main development tendencies in the earliest Slovak historiography while acquiring the foundations of critical thinking on history. They are able to work with sources and critically analyze their content as well as the reasons why they originated. Upon completing the course, students are familiar with the fundamental Slovak history works (chronicles, annals, hagiographic sources, older 17th - 19th Century historiography) and are capable of applying this knowledge when producing their seminar papers and final theses, among others.
Class syllabus:

1. Introduction: Students get acquainted with the course requirements, the credit granting scheme, as well as with the content of the course.
2. The Moravian-Pannonian legends and Proglas.
3. The Legend of Svatopluk and Saint Stephen and their development throughout the History of Slovakia.
4. Medieval Chronicles from the Kingdom of Hungary.
5. Medieval Annals from the Kingdom of Hungary
6. Medieval Legends from the Kingdom of Hungary and their significance for the Hungarian statehood.
7. Foreign narrative sources and Slovak history.
8. Baroque Slavism I (Jakub Jakobeus, Daniel Sinapius Horčíčka).
9. Baroque Slavism II (Martin Svätójánsky/Szentiványi , Ján Baltazár Magin).
10. Baroque Slavism III. (Juraj Sklenár, Juraj Papánek).
11. Baroque Slavism IV. (Samuel Timon a Juraj Fándly).
12. Final Session - End-of-term assessment and the students's engagement during the lessons. Assessment closing.

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 1., 3.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Recommended prerequisites: The course is aimed for students with English level B1 and above.
Course requirements: Students are required to continuously prepare for the lessons, read the assigned texts, take active part in the classes and carry out smaller tasks (in writing and orally) that are assigned continuously throughout the term. They need to present a specialized text they have read. Grading scale: A = 100% – 92% B = 91% – 84% C = 83% – 76% D = 75% – 68% E = 67% – 60% Fx = 59% – 0% Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Maximum number of absences: 2 Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: During the course, students practice and consolidate the language skills they need to work with historical science texts focusing on developing their reading skills. They get familiar with the scholarly vocabulary, as well as with the key language resources, styles and genres that allow them to work successfully with selected types of written sources and scholarly literature in English. Students also develop the basic skills and resources necessary to present scholarly historical science themes and their own work in English. The course is intended for students with English level B1 and higher.
Class syllabus:

Work with scholarly texts and information sources. Strategies for reading and understanding English scholarly texts effectively.

Analysing texts with regard to its communication function and thematic and content structure. Consolidating and expanding the students' knowledge of lexical and grammatical means to use in historical sciences.

Communication competencies for the public presentation of their own scholarly results - preparing an abstract, a research plan, a poster, a conference paper, etc.

Producing academic communications in written and oral form. The range of the different elements can be adapted to the course participants and their practical needs in research and study.

They are also expected to present a report and deliver a term paper. a) Maximum number of justified absences: 3 b) At the seminar, students need to work actively following the teacher's instructions. c) Students are required to present a (15-20 min. long) report. For that purpose, they need to be able to speak in front of an audience, elaborate a (printed, electronic) presentation, and answer questions. However, they can present an extra written paper instead of the presentation. d) Term paper: Students will be assigned the exact date and topic of their preliminary assessment at the beginning of the term. The report topics are clearly defined areas from Ján Kollár's life and work, e.g. Ján Kollár as an evangelical priest, Ján Kollár and the idea of the Slavic nation, etc. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: At the end of the course and their self study cycle, students have a detailed and complex overview of Ján Kollár's (1793 - 1852) life and work, either from focusing on one aspect of his life or work (in order to produce a seminar paper and presentation), or from the presentations of other areas. They have a different perspective of the first half of the 19th century. They are also able to independently obtain information (archival sources, digital collections, literature) from memory institutions and process a specific topic concerning biographical approach. Students are familiar with the different biographic methods and categories (biography, life and work, key life events; the impact the environment, education and descent have on the nature, abilities and activities of the individual; the individual as part of the social reality; work, politics, worldview, philosophy.).
Class syllabus: 1. Introduction. Getting familiar with the course requirements. Students are assigned the topics for their seminar papers and reports.

2. Memory institutions (archives, institutes, museums, libraries), digital sources of information and data, possibilities for obtaining sources and secondary literature. Specific sources when working with biographical methods (archival sources, registries, literature)
3. Getting familiar with research techniques and methods, learning how to create a seminar work and paper. Biographical methods on the example of selected personalities.
4. Kollár's childhood and education.
5. Kollár in Pest. Kollár in Vienna.
6. Kollár as an Evangelical pastor.
7. Kollár as a poet. Emphasis on the content of works. Kollár and the oral literary tradition.
8. Kollár and the Literary Language of Slovaks.
9. Kollár as a historian and archaeologist.
10. Kollár as a teacher.
11. Kollár and politics. Emphasis on his perception of nation and state.
12. Kollár and his concept of nation. (Slavs, Slovaks, Czechs).
13. Ján Kollár - relations and opinions on the Bernolák and Štúr movements. Controversy.
14. Ján Kollár's travelogues.
15. Ján Kollár's reception. From contemporary, domestic, foreign ..., 19th century, Czechoslovakia, Slovak Republic 1939-1945, present.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2023/2024
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSD/A-moHI-700/22	Course title: HS: Man and the landscape in the early modern age
Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 1., 3.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: To successfully complete the course, students are required to take active part in class during the lesson period of the term (in the form of questions and colloquial discussions) and to submit a seminar paper by the end of the credit week. During the first two teaching weeks, students choose a research area according to their own preferences, identifying the area/the whole/any subparts (according to the geomorphological division of the country) in Slovakia. On this example, they need to describe and identify the historical land structures. Based on the relevant source material, students need to characterize the interactions and connections in the environment (the natural environment, Man and the social environment), to reconstruct the state of the land in the early modern period and name the human activities that changed the face of the land. The seminar paper must have at least 10 standard pages and, from a formal viewpoint, it needs to have the relevant footnotes, include an introduction, a core, the conclusions, the bibliography, and optional illustrative pictures. In order to complete the course successfully and submit their seminar paper, students need to work systematically during the lesson period of the term. Maximum number of possible absences: 2. Students with more absences, resulting from objectively justifiable and documented reasons, can complete the course under the following conditions: for each absence beyond the set framework, students need to submit a paper of around 5 standard pages on a pre-assigned and consulted topic. The paper must include an introduction, the main part (without footnotes), conclusions and the bibliography. Grading scale:            A = 100% – 92%            B = 91% – 84%            C = 83% – 76%            D = 75% – 68%            E = 67% – 60%            Fx = 59% – 0% Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Scale of assessment preliminary/final: 100/0

Learning outcomes:

Students have an overview of the scientific (sub)discipline of environmental history, its development, methodological and conceptual contribution to historical science and their place in modern Slovak historiography in general and when researching the early modern age. Students understand the transforming factors that have affected and changed the land in the long run, they are able to identify human activity relics in the country. Students are also skilled in working with historical vocabulary and with visual, mainly cartographic period documents.

Class syllabus:

1. Initial session, students get acquainted with the subject associated and discuss openly its content, goals, and their responsibilities.
2. Environmental history in historiography. The history of the discipline in a global and, mainly, Slovak historical context. Scientific apparatus.
3. Environmental history - historical geography - history of technology - land ecology and others, and interest in the early modern period.
4. Sources.
5. Nature vs. anthropogenic influences. Historical landscape structures as a memory of the landscape.
6. Terminology. Oeconyms, toponyms, hydronyms.
7. Settlement landscape. The countryside and the urban space.
8. Agrarian landscape.
9. Mountain landscape.
10. Forest landscape.
11. River landscape.
12. Road infrastructure in the country.
13. Other elements historians can identify in the historical landscape structure.

Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: 20% preliminary assessment - students are required to attend the seminars regularly, complete their partial tasks, engage in the discussions. 80% final assessment - students need to produce a seminar paper of at least 15 standard pages of text and footnotes (27,000 characters with spaces). In their seminar papers, students study the development of a specific aristocratic family in the Middle Ages, paying particular attention to the chronological development, property conditions, position in society, etc. These seminar papers can become the basis for their future diploma and other theses. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Maximum number of unjustified absences: 2 Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 20/80
Learning outcomes: During the compulsory optional seminar, students use and expand their knowledge of the medieval nobility, its social status and the tasks its members performed. At the end of the seminar, they produce a written seminar paper. Students deepen their knowledge of the nobility as a privileged estate in the Middle Ages, get familiar with the genesis of the nobility, and learn the parameters of aristocratic prerogatives. On the example of a specific aristocratic family, they demonstrate the theoretical knowledge about the nobility they have gained. Students gain experience implementing detailed heuristics of available literature and sources on the topic of their seminar work.
Class syllabus: 1. Initial session - Students get familiar with the assessment scheme and are assigned their seminar work topics. 2. Overview of sources and literature on the topic. 3. Researching aristocratic families in the Kingdom of Hungary in the middle ages - working with and interpreting sources.

4. The nobles in the Kingdom of Hungary in the middle ages - beginnings and continuity of the concept. King Stephen I and Ladislav I's legal codes.
5. Genealogy of aristocratic families - according to the focus of the students' seminar papers.
6. The Hont-Pázmány family and later family branches.
7. Position and division of the nobility in the Kingdom of Hungary in the Middle Ages.
8. Andrew II's Golden Bull. 1222 and its renovations.
9. Ius Resistendi and its application in in the Kingdom of Hungary in the Middle Ages.
10. Researching property relations of aristocratic families.
11. Discussion, colloquium.
12. Conclusion - evaluation of students' performance, checking their progress in writing their seminar papers.

Course requirements: Active participation during classes and work with texts. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: This course hands a significant contribution for the students, primarily through the ability of work with the text as a discourse, as a historical material, and hence as a historical source. That is achieved by means of the methodological tools of intellectual history and the history of political thought, mainly presented by Quentin Skinner, John Pocock, but also by others such as Michael Foucault and John Austin.
Class syllabus: The title of the course consists of two important contributions to the critique of power during the Communist regime in Czechoslovakia - Ladislav Mňačko - How Power Tastes (Ako chutí moc) and Václav Havel - The Power of the Powerless (Moc bezmocných). These are two significant landmarks in the study of intellectual history, which largely determined the form of criticism, both political and extra-political. In addition, the other important texts of Central European provenience are also introduced to the students. These include mostly texts by authors such as Gyorgy Konrád, Adam Michnik, Miroslav Kusý, Ivan Sviták, Jaroslav Šabata, Ágnes Heller, Gyorgy Lukács, Milovan Djilas and many, many others.

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: The students' results are evaluated exclusively by continuously checking their performance during the teaching part of the semester. Grading takes place at the last meeting in the teaching part of the semester. After consultation with the teacher, students are assigned a topic for a short paper that is to be presented during the semester. The date of the presentation is set in advance, according to the syllabus. Students are also required to submit the short paper in written form. The short paper consists of at least 5 standard pages, including Introduction, Main text (without footnotes), Conclusion, Bibliography. To successfully meet their term tasks, students can have no more than 2 absences. In case of more (explained) absences, an individual assignment might be given as a substitution. Grading scale:            A = 100% – 92%            B = 91% – 84%            C = 83% – 76%            D = 75% – 68%            E = 67% – 60%            Fx = 59% – 0% Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment.            Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: At the end of the course, students are familiar with the subject of research in a specific discipline of agrarian history - the history of viticulture and winemaking - in the history of Slovakia, Hungary and Central Europe. The discipline has gained an independent status in the agrarian history in the recent decades. During the feudalism, winemaking represented one of the dominant areas of economic activity. Students are thus able to understand developments of modern Slovak historiography and its methodological apparatus. They also acquire skills and knowledge necessary for work with edited sources and scholarly literature in this specific branch of the agrarian history.
Class syllabus:

1. Overview of the history of viticulture and winemaking in Slovakia (from the origins to the end of the 20th century)
2. Historical and traditional winemaking regions.
3. Vine varieties and types of wine.
4. Technological aspect of agricultural activities related to vine (Vitis vinifera L.)
5. Position of viticulture in economic and social life of the society
6. Production, consumption, and export of wine in Central Europe.
7. Historical- legal developments of viticulture - viticultural law.
8. Trade and transport of wine - Wine fraud.
9. Historical overview of wine consumption in the past and nowadays.
10. Relationship between beer and wine as major beverages in the past.
11. Winemaking education, struggle against diseases, associations.

Educational activities: Type of activities: practicals Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 1., 3.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: To pass the course successfully, students are required to prepare for every seminar, reading the assigned sources of imperial provenance related to the history of the countries in Central Europe. Having prepared at home, students are expected to engage in the seminar discussions, to understand the text and compare it with other sources. Grading scale: A = 100% – 92% B = 91% – 84% C = 83% – 76% D = 75% – 68% E = 67% – 60% Fx = 59% – 0% Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Maximum number of unjustified absences: 2. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: At the end of the course, students have a basic overview of the narrative sources of imperial provenance having to do with the history of Central Europe in the high middle ages. They are able to analyze the reasons why the different medieval imperial texts originated, i.e. the reasons their author had to write them, what might have influenced these authors when writing their work, and how his information influenced later historiography. Students are able to work with narrative sources of German provenance, understand the circumstances of their origin and develop the ability to compare them with sources from the Kingdom of Hungary, Poland and the Czech lands. They are able to apply the acquired knowledge in practice, for example for writing their seminar papers and theses. They are also able to use this theoretical foundations when taking other courses, especially when analyzing the contents of different sources.
Class syllabus:

1. Introductory seminar: students get acquainted with the goal of the course, its requirements, plan, basic literature and sources.
2. Getting familiar and working with databases of original imperial sources on the history of Central Europe - Manuscript, Manuscriptorium, Geschichtsquellen des deutschen Mittelalters, Monasterium and others.
3. Getting familiar and working with databases of editions of imperial sources on the history of Central Europe– dMGH, CMS, RI and others.
4. Annals I: Austrian annals and their continuation – Annales Mellicenses, Annales Admuntenses, Annales Gotwicenses and others.
5. Annals II: Czech annals – known as the Continuation of the (Cosmas) chronicle of the Czechs – Annales Otakarini, Annales Pragenses I – III and others.
6. Annals III: annals from other parts of the Holy Roman Empire – Annales Altahenses and others.
7. Chronicles I: Austrian chronicles written in Latin – Anonymi Leobensis Chronicon, Chronicon rhythmicum Austriacum, the works by John of Viktring, Thomas Ebendorfer and others.
8. Chronicles II: Austrian chronicles written in German – the works by Jans der Enikel (Weltchronik, Fürstenbuch), die Steirische Reimchronik, die Österreichische Chronik von den 95 Herrschaften, and others.
9. Chronicles III: Czech and other imperial chronicles – Chronicon Aulae Regiae, die Chronik des Mathias von Neuenburg, Ioannes Vitoduranus and others.
10. Other types of sources of imperial provenance concerning the history of Central Europe - catalogues, obituaries, poems and songs of the imperial Minnesängers.
11. Diplomatic sources in narrative sources - taking over documents and letters into chronicles and annals.
12. Final seminar: evaluation of students' work, evaluation of the fulfilment of the course plan, closing evaluation.

STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2023/2024
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KVD/A-muHI-987/16	Course title: History
Number of credits: 3
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: Successful completion of chosen questions at oral examination. The student can take the state exam a) after obtaining at least such number of credits that after obtaining credits for successful completion of state exams, they achieve the necessary number of credits for the proper completion of studies, b) after successful completion of compulsory subjects, compulsory elective subjects, and elective subjects in the composition determined by the study program, c) after fulfilling the student's obligations arising from § 71, par. 3 letter b of the Higher Education Act, d) if no disciplinary action is taken against them. Successful completion of the state exam is one of the conditions for successful completion of the study program. The subject of the state exam is evaluated by the committee for state exams using the grading scale A-FX. The evaluation of the state examination or its part is decided by the examination committee by consensus. If the examination committee does not reach a consensus, the evaluation of the state examination or its part is decided by voting. On the basis of the wording of the study regulations of the faculty (Internal Rules and Regulations 5/2020, Art. 15), the framework dates of state examinations are set by the dean in accordance with the faculty's academic schedule. Departments are obliged to publish the dates of their state exams on the website no later than 5 weeks before they take place. The student registers for the state exam through the academic information system (AIS) at least three weeks before it takes place. The student is entitled to one regular and two resit attempts of the state exam. The regular attempt is the one for which the student applied for the first time within the deadline set for state exams. If the student does not attend the state examination or its part without an excuse within the specified period, or if the chairman of the examination committee does not accept their excuse, they are assessed with the FX grade from that attempt of the state exam. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100

Learning outcomes:

Students have knowledge and competencies of Slovak history in Central European context and have information about key events of European and World history. They know about phenomena, processes, historical terminology and elementary problems of historiography together with elemental issues of methodology, so they are able to come up with effective use of scientific activities for didactic purpose and intentions.

Class syllabus:

1. The student arrives on the registered date of the state exam according to the schedule set by the department
  2. The student receives one question from Slovak history and one question from General history, which is submitted in writing and anonymously in the form of a random selection from printed questions.
  3. The examination committee will give the student reasonable time to prepare an oral answer to the question
  4. The student presents the prepared answer to one and then to another question in front of the examination committee and answers the additional questions.
  5. After the student finishes their answer, the examination committee decides on the results of the state exam in a closed session of the examination committee. There is only one evaluation of both questions.
- The course of the state exam and the announcement of its results are public.

State exam syllabus:

Questions, which should be responded to during the state exam are associated with key events of Slovak, European and world history from the Classical Antiquity till the second half of the 20th century. Currently valid questions of state exams are accessible at the web page of departments. <https://fphil.uniba.sk/katedry-a-odborne-pracoviska/katedra-vseobecnych-dejin/studium/magisterske-studium/statnice/>

Recommended literature:

Based on the recommended literature for compulsory and semi-compulsory courses of student programme relevant to content of state exams. Highly recommended are synthetic, conceptual and theoretic works, which are necessary to particular courses and give contextual overview and search for reasons and consequences.

Learning outcomes: Students have a comprehensive understanding of the development and history of modern political thought. Students have the competence not only to catalogue the various ideologies and their basic features, but are also able to understand, historically analyse and interpret the texts, contexts, and correlations of the various currents of political thought or intellectual milieus of the period. Rather than a flat analysis of ideology, the course emphasizes the agency and subjects of political thought, from which students are able to anchor political thought in space. Students are also able to analyse individual political and intellectual movements through historiographical and methodological schools and work dynamically with the underpinnings of contemporary discourses, enabling them to navigate the public sphere in a qualified way.
Class syllabus: 1. Pre-Enlightenment political concepts - state, freedom, parliament, government, legitimacy 2. Enlightenment concepts 3. Liberalism, utilitarianism 4. Conservatism 5. Socialism 6. Positivism, secularism, anti-modern trends, secular conservatism 7. Nationalism 8. Imperialism and colonialism 9. Etatism, Corporativism, political Catholicism 10. Learning outcomes: After completing the course successfully, students are familiar with the basic development tendencies in the contacts between the Kingdom of Hungary and the Empire in the early modern period (16th - 18th century). They are able to perceive the processes in the region from a comparative perspective, while taking into account not only the political and military aspects, but also social, economic, cultural, intellectual and church history issues. On the basis of specific material, they are able to analyze and interpret supraregional influences - both material and ideological - in modern society and its specifics. They are familiar with different types of sources, can use them to analyze the relations in the kingdom and are able to work with them independently. They get familiar with the basic methodological approaches of contemporary European historiography on the example of the topic in question.

Class syllabus:

- 1) Initial meeting, basic terminology and historiography.
- 2) The ruler, local and foreign: The Habsburgs as rulers in the Empire and in the Kingdom of Hungary in the 16th and 17th centuries.
- 3) The Royal Court as a center of power in the early modern period. The aristocracy, supra-regional unions.
- 4) Political contacts and their country limits: The estates in the mutual contacts of the Kingdom and the Empire
- 5) Allies and rivals in war (1): part of the estates in the Empire in the anti-Ottoman defense of the Kingdom of Hungary.
Financial aspects. The battlefields in the Kingdom of Hungary as places for gathering experience and fame.
- 6) Allies and rivals in war (2): the image the “German soldier” had in the Kingdom of Hungary, between a helper and a foreigner.
- 7) Information networks and the post. Reporting on events on the Ottoman battlefields.
- 8) Business partners: Economic contacts between the Empire and the Kingdom of Hungary, their social and cultural dimension.
- 9) The ways of culture: humanism, reformation and cultural exchange in the early modern age
- 10) Peregrinatio academica and the social dimension of education
- 11) Immigrants and emigrants. Emigration, immigration and demographic exchange between the Kingdom of Hungary and the early modern age.

Learning outcomes: Students get familiar with the possibilities the study and use of a language offers to historians. The early modern period is characterized by the growing use of vernacular (“popular,” “national”) languages in written and official culture. For its multicultural character, the Kingdom of Hungary constitutes a very specific case in this respect. Therefore, students become familiar with various aspects of language in society, namely different languages and dialects coexisting together, literary vs colloquial languages, their social and cultural roles, the influence of confessional and political views and the way different language issues reflect in the works of scholars. At the end of the course, students are able to approach language from a historical perspective, in the intentions of methodological approaches of the time and can analyze the social and cultural (i.e. non linguistic) aspects of language.
Class syllabus:

- 1) Theoretical foundations. Language, dialect, sociolect. Language community. Bilingualism and diglossia.
- 2) The beginnings of vernacular written culture in the Middle Ages. Pragmatic literature and literary traditions.
- 3) The Kingdom of Hungary as a multilingual society in the late Middle Ages and early modern times. Latin as the administrative, ecclesiastical and educational language.
- 4) The language of a political community.
- 5) The Language(s) of an urban community.
- 6) Language in the European Forum. Diplomacy, interpreting, translations. Ciphers.
- 7) Humanism and the comeback of classical Latin. The beginnings of philology. Grammaticalization.
- 8) The reformation and the new tasks of language.
- 9) Printing and the standardization of vernacular languages.
- 10) "Anxiety about scarcity" and linguistic pride. Purification efforts vs intelligibility.
- 11) Language and collective identity.
- 12) Vernacular literary tradition. Education.
- 13) Prospects for modern times.

Prerequisites:
Course requirements: This is a non-mandatory course evaluated during the semester. The course is evaluated on basis of written exam during the semester, which will test a) knowledge of individual parts of subject matter presented on lectures (based on the textbook), b) creative (commented) reading of selected paper/essay/book chapter – chosen from those with which the subject matter of lectures is concerned. A specific part of each lecture is a discussion about a particular poem/prose, active participation in this is valuable. Grading scale: 100 – 92: A 91 – 84: B 83 – 76: C 75 – 68: D 67 – 60: E 59 – 0: FX The teacher accepts a maximum of two absences with a written proof of the cause of absence. The exam date will be announced at the beginning of the semester and can be later changed with respect to a student-teacher agreement. Violation of academic ethics results in the cancellation of earned points in the relevant item. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: After successful participation in the course the student has an overview in different approaches to literature of 20th and 21st century and he/she is able to put them into the context of evolutionary steps of art. The student is able to grasp and comment on a scientific metatext (from domains of theory of literature, psychoanalysis, philosophy, esthetics), specific in its approach to literature. The student is capable of selecting aspects of the text in a way enabling him/her to use those in their own interpretation of a literary text or in their own reflection on art. The student is aware of the specifics of exact scientific methods as well as of more open approaches to literature. He/she has basic knowledge about developing his/her own competencies of reading and writing with aspects from various discussed metatexts.

Class syllabus:

The course helps in developing of reading and writing competencies. It is aimed at an overview of selected approaches to literature in theory of literature, psychoanalysis, philosophy, and esthetics, in international and domestic culture contexts. The course is executed as a set of interactive lectures.

Topics are:

1. Positivism and its detailed study of author's biography.
2. Formalism and its benefits in more complex interpretation of literary works.
3. „Antirealism“ in essays related to avantgarde art.
4. Psychoanalysis and its insight into functions of libido in the process of creating text..
5. Psychoanalytical insights into existential writing longing to find the meaning of life.
6. Phenomenology and its study of forces of nature (mainly fire and water) in imagination.
7. Structuralism, its “story” in Russian, French, Czech and Slovak context.
8. Structuralist analysis of poetry and prose.
9. Semiology and its suggestions on distancing from lies and power of language.
10. Relationship between terms semiotics and semiology.
11. Postmodern philosophy and esthetics, its insight in approach to art and life.
12. Cognitive sciences in study of poetry and prose.
13. Aspect of gender in history of literature and in its interpretation.

During selected parts of the lectures, Slovak and world poetry and prose will be interpreted and interactively discussed. Visual artworks will also be presented, since one of the goals of the course is to show how science connects to the power of art.

STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2023/2024
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KAA/A-muAN-595/22	Course title: Master's Degree Thesis Defence
Number of credits: 10
Educational level: II.
Antirequisites: FiF.KAA/A-muAN-595/15
Course requirements: All matters pertaining to state examination are set out in Article 14 of the Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts. In the master's study programmes, the state examination consists only of the defence of the Master's thesis. The student chooses the department as a training centre which corresponds to the discipline within which he/she wants to write the final thesis. He/she reports this choice by the deadline set by the department, provided that he/she is able to find a supervisor and a suitable topic in the relevant department. For the successful defence of the Master's thesis as the subject of the state examination in the master's degree programmes conducted at the Department of British and American Studies, students will receive credits according to the current study plan (currently 10 credits). Requirements for the admission to the defence are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- fulfillment of the requirements of the study plan concerning the prescribed composition of courses and their credit value so that after awarding the credits for the state examination the student obtains the required number of credits for the master's degree;</li> <li>- submission of the Master's thesis (electronically via the academic information system AIS) by the thesis submission deadline corresponding to the relevant state examination period according to the academic year schedule set by the faculty.</li> </ul> The thesis is evaluated by the standard grading scale (0-59% -FX, 60-67% -E, 68-75% -D, 76-83% -C, 84-91% -B, 92-100% -A) by the supervisor of the thesis and the designated opponent in the assessment reports, which are available to the student no later than 3 working days before the state examination. The supervisor's report shall also include the percentage of compliance results from the originality check protocols (CRZP, Theses), which must be explicitly evaluated by the supervisor with the wording "the thesis shows/does not show signs of plagiarism". The Master's thesis will take the following form: The defence will consist of a thesis presentation (the student chooses the form of the defence, the PPT format can also be used) and the student's response to a broader theoretical question, which is assigned to the student by the supervisor upon the Master's thesis submission. The supervisor will include this question in the assessment report as one of the points of discussion for the defence; it will also be included in the defence report. The thesis presentation must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Include a clearly articulated thesis statement,</li> <li>- have a clear and logical structure of argumentation and findings,</li> <li>- reflect a new perspective on the issue as a result of adequate and appropriate work with the findings gained through own research, the conclusions of which the student is able to present and formulate.</li> </ul>

The criteria for the evaluation (of the defence) of the Master's thesis at the Department of British and American Studies are as follows:

- Quality of the Master's thesis (originality, significance of the analysis, clear formulation of the scientific problem and hypotheses under study, scope of the professional and scientific literature used),
- the adequacy of the methodological approach to the topic under study, the analysis logically and coherently answers the research questions,
- systematic and logical summary of the results of the analysis,
- compliance with citation standards (MLA...),
- language level of the presentation (academic language at least at B2 level),
- quality of the presentation and communication skills.

The evaluation of the thesis will include the areas below with the corresponding weighting (out of 100):

PART A: CONTENT

- Overall structure and organization (adequacy, scope, objectivity, coherence, cohesion) 15
- Theoretical knowledge related to the research topic 15
- Methodology (identifying concepts, research problems, aims, tasks, choosing adequate methods) 15
- Analysis (quality, depth, complexity) 15
- Originality and contribution (degree of originality, own contribution to knowledge) 10

PART B: FORM

- Adequate work with information sources (extent, structure, reliability, adequacy, compliance with a citation style) 15
- Language and style 10
- Typography and layout 5

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100 (%)

Learning outcomes:

- Upon successful completion of the defence, students will be familiar with the basic requirements for academic writing and with the rules of academic integrity.

Correctness of citing the selected information sources, research results of other authors and author's collectives, correctness of description of methods and working procedures of other authors or author's collectives.</li> <li>4. Compliance of the structure of the master's thesis with the prescribed composition defined by the internal quality system of the Comenius University.</li> <li>5. Respecting the recommended range of the master's thesis (the recommended range of the master's thesis is usually 50 - 70 standard pages = 90,000 to 126,000 characters, including spaces), the adequacy of the range of the thesis is assessed by the thesis supervisor.</li> <li>6. Linguistic and stylistic level of the thesis and formal layout.</li> </ol> The student orally presents the content, achieved goals and conclusions of the master's thesis and answers the questions and comments of the thesis supervisor, opponent, or members of the examination board. The commission will comprehensively evaluate the quality of the master's thesis, assess the method and form of the defence and the student's ability to adequately respond to comments and questions in the assessments of the thesis supervisor and of the opponent. The final evaluation will consider the evaluations from the supervisor's and opponent's assessment, the evaluation of the final thesis defence by the commission.

EQUIPMENT AND EXERCISES: Tasks and exercises will focus on the ability of students to apply the acquired theoretical knowledge in solving various tasks: finding a topic, research problem, formulation of research goals, research questions, which theories are most often confirmed in pedagogical research - refuted, deduction of theory towards determination of variables and formulation of hypotheses for quantitatively oriented research, research data collection procedures, used methods and tools of data collection, application of research data analysis procedures - scaling, observation sheets, open, axial coding, or thematic analysis on research data mediated by teachers . For the elaboration of tasks and exercises the student will be able to obtain a total of max. 30 points. II. INTERIM TEST: The continuous test will contain test items focused on the curriculum of the first 3 topics / chapters of the compulsory textbook, for which you can collectively obtain max. 30 points. The midterm test will be completed by the student in person or remotely (according to the current epidemiological situation) via the MS Forms application during the semester after taking over 4 topics. Final rating: III. FINAL TEST: The final test will contain test items focused on the subject matter of the next 4 topics + some items focused on the repetition of topics 1,2 and 3,4, for which you will be able to obtain a max. 40 points. A minimum of 50% success rate is required to successfully complete the course.

CLASSIFICATION:

A - 91 - 100 (excellent - excellent results),

B - 90 - 81 (very good - above average standard),

C - 80 - 71 (good - normal reliable work),

D - 70 - 61 (satisfactory - acceptable results),

E - 60 - 51 (sufficient - the results meet the minimum criteria),

Fx - 50 - 0 (insufficient).

The teacher accepts max. 2 absences with proven documents.

The exact date of the mid-term evaluation will be announced at the beginning of the semester.

Exam dates will be published via AIS no later than the last week of the semester.

Weight of the mid-term / final evaluation: 70/30.

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): = 70/30.

Learning outcomes:

Upon successful completion of the course, students know the basic methodological concepts, stages and principles of quantitative and qualitative pedagogical research. They have the skills needed to study and analyze scientific studies in pedagogy and understand the research of others. They are able to design their own educational research, research or action research of the teacher and implement an independent research effort. They have the ability to choose appropriate and meaningful research topics, deftly develop a research project, collect and empirically correct analysis of research data. They can then interpret, defend and publish research data meaningfully and creatively.

Class syllabus:

1. Pedagogical research - definition of basic terms: cognition, science in human cognition, scientific theory, research, pedagogical research, theory, practice, method, methodology. Relation of pedagogical research to practice (R&D). Research - action research - evaluation.

2. Planning, organization and implementation of field pedagogical research: Stages of research work. Research plan and diary of a pedagogical researcher. Research information preparation. Ethics in research work.

3. Thinking about a research problem: The difference between a topic and a research problem. Thinking and judgment of a researcher. Selecting the essential and distinguishing partial phenomena from the general background. Preparation of a research project.

4. Qualitative and quantitative research design: Comparison of qualitative and quantitative research, their philosophical background, goals, focus and procedures in the collection and processing of research data.

5. Qualitative oriented pedagogical research: Selected currents (branches) of qualitative research: Ethnography, Phenomenological analysis, Narrative and Dramaturgical approach, Conversational analysis. Qualitative research procedures. Terrain access. Research methods used in qualitative research. Quality standards of qualitative research.

6. Quantitative oriented pedagogical research and its main phases: Determining the research problem. Variables and hypotheses and their place in pedagogical research. Hypothesis testing in scientific research. Measurement and quantification in pedagogical research.

7. Determination of the selection of research data collection methods: research method, research tool, validity, reliability and correlation coefficient of the research tool. Selection, study and preparation, or creation of tools for collecting research data.

8. Methods of research data collection: Observation, questionnaire, assessment scales, interviews, tests of knowledge and skills, sociometry, semantic differential and pedagogical experiment

9. Processing of obtained research data: Preparation for analysis, Analysis and interpretation of obtained research data (verbal or numerical). Discussion of research conclusions. Making recommendations for practice.

Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSD/A-moHI-689/14	Course title: Reading and Interpreting 16th to 18th Centuries Diplomatic Documents Relevant to Slovak History
Educational activities: Type of activities: practicals Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: The students' results are evaluated exclusively by continuously checking their performance during the teaching part of the semester. Student are classified in the last lesson of the credit week. During the teaching period of the semester, students actively participate in practical tasks related to reading and interpretation of the source material (provided by the teacher, assigned in advance). Students are required to put in individual work as part of preparation (in form of three assignments). Three times during semester, each of them is assigned an example of a written source in manuscript form (at least two weeks in advance). They are then expected to prepare its elementary paleographic analysis and transription. This is then presented during a lesson, combined with a discussion, during which the source is an object of historical analysis. In case of unsatisfactory fulfillment of the assignment (repeated three times a semester), there is a possibility of a substitute, i.e. the teacher assigns the student another document. There is the limitation, however, that each such unsatisfactorily presened document can be substituted only once. After meeting this requirement, during the last meeting in the semester a colloquy is organised where each student is allotted one of the sources assigned during the semester and, subsequently, reads and interprets it. Grading scale:          A = 100% – 92%          B = 91% – 84%          C = 83% – 76%          D = 75% – 68%          E = 67% – 60%          Fx = 59% – 0% Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment.          Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: Students have an overview of diplomatic written production on the level of local self-administration (noble counties, feudal domains, free royal towns, market towns, villages), state administration

(offices on the level of the kingdom as well as the Habsburg monarchy) and other subjects (universities, Churches, loca credibilia, and other) in the early modern period. They are capable of reading the written sources of administrative character, transcribe them, analyse and interpret their contents in the historical context.

Class syllabus:

1. Basic diplomatic categories (charter, administrative book, accounting material, and beyond) and language of the source.
2. Written (in paleographic terms diplomatic) practice in early modern Hungary/Habsburg Monarchy. Its transformations.
3. Archives, archival funds, digitisation, databases of early modern source material, source editions.
4. Charter - one of the diplomatic categories.
5. Church diplomatics - reading and analysis of a source.
6. Urban diplomatics - reading and analysis of a source
7. Diplomats of royal chancery - reading and analysis of a source
8. Diplomats of loca credibilia - reading and analysis of a source
9. Diplomatic practice of a feudal estate - reading and analysis of a source
10. Diplomats of noble counties - reading and analysis of a source
11. Diplomats of Hungarian kingdom's authorities - reading and analysis of a source
12. Final colloquy and completion of preliminary grading

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2023/2024
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSD/A-moHI-180/00	Course title: Reading and Interpreting Medieval Latin Charters
Educational activities: Type of activities: practicals Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: The credit granting scheme consist of two parts: 70% preliminary - students are required to take active part at the seminars, namely reading, translating and interpreting medieval diplomatic sources written in Latin (charters, letters, forms, etc.). A minor part of the seminars is a discussion of those elements of the relevant source that do not concern their content (publisher, reason for issuing, motivation, authentication, sealing, etc.). 30% final - transcript of a charter. At the first session, students are assigned a specific source they need to transcribe. They also need to prepare a written paper consisting of up to 2 standard pages (3600 characters with spaces). In their papers, students need to summarize the content of the source, evaluate its authenticity, the publisher's motivation, etc. If possible, students are assigned sources having to do with the topic of their theses. To be granted the necessary credits, students need to submit the transcript and accompanying written paper by the credit week (on the day of the last seminar). Grading scale: A = 100% – 92% B = 91% – 84% C = 83% – 76% D = 75% – 68% E = 67% – 60% Fx = 59% – 0% Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Maximum number of unjustified absences: 2 Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 70/30
Learning outcomes: At the end of the course, students have basic knowledge of Latin paleography and its development, and can read and understand medieval documents. They also have a basic knowledge of medieval documents as basic sources for researching medieval history. They are familiar with the structure of medieval documents and the system of Latin abbreviations. After completing the course, students are able to work independently with original diplomatic sources in Latin, which they can then use when writing their final theses.

Class syllabus:

1. Initial session: Getting acquainted with the course requirements, credit granting scheme, basic literature and source editions. Students are assigned the sources they need to transcribe.
2. Overview of freely accessible internet databases of diplomatic sources (Hungaricana, Monasterium ...).
3. Theory 1: Basics of Latin paleography in the Kingdom of Hungary in the middle ages. The development of diplomacy in the Kingdom of Hungary in the 13th - 15th century. Characteristics of medieval documents, their external and internal features. System of abbreviations used by writers of medieval documents.
4. Theory 2: Difficulties in examining the authenticity of medieval documents. Ways of sealing a medieval document, dorsal notes. Border-defining charters and their analysis. Medieval documents as the main source of information on the genealogy of aristocratic families and their land possessions.
5. Reading and interpreting 1: XI - XII century charters from the Kingdom of Hungary.
6. Reading and interpreting 2: XIII - XV century charters from the Kingdom of Hungary.
7. Reading and interpreting 3: XI - XV century medieval charters of Czech provenance.
8. Reading and interpreting 4: Medieval charter of Imperial provenance concerning the Kingdom of Hungary - Bavarian charters.
9. Reading and interpreting 5: Medieval charters of imperial provenance concerning the Kingdom of Hungary - Austrian and Styrian charters.
10. Reading and interpreting 6: Charters from the papal office.
11. Reading and interpreting 7: Source chosen by the student.
12. Reading and interpreting 8: Source chosen by the student. Evaluating the students' preliminary activity and the course completion. Closing the seminar.

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 1., 3.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Students are evaluated based on their continuous work and final results. The preliminary part accounts for 60% of their score. For this purpose, students are required to continuously prepare for the seminars, read specified scholarly texts and take active part when reading and interpreting the sources during the different seminars. Part of the seminars is also the presentation of the basics of creating (not only) digital editions of sources. To obtain the remaining 40% of the overall score, students are required to submit a final draft of the digitized source. This requires reading, probably also translating, assessing the source, being familiar with its context, as well as being familiar with XML coding language and TEI digitization standards. Students who fail to submit their final theses will not be assessed. Maximum number of unjustified absences: 2 per term. The exact progression, a more detailed list of the lectures, as well as the deadline for submitting the final thesis will be announced at the beginning of the semester. Learning outcomes: The student can identify the political situation in Europe after Second World War along with the integration process. He can interpretate the integration of Europe by means of methodological approaches. All students understand the differences between military, political and economic integration as well as interconnections among them. They also have ability to historicize political processes which can often appear as linear. Through working with multiple interpretative approaches, the students have the competencies which enable them to analyse the development of institutions, the role of political actors, and the relevance of the international situation for their mutual interaction. At the same time, European integration is a focal phenomenon whose consequences are often underestimated, not least due to the absence of historical awareness and consequently resulting implications for social ordering.
Class syllabus: 1. Integration efforts before the Second World War 2. Integration as the consequence of the Second World War 3. Economic situation 4. Political will and internal political development in Europe 5. Threat of conflict 7. The social question within the integration process 8. Current problems of European integration 9. Methodological approaches to the integration process 10. Individual milestones in the deepening and widening of integration 11. Acquis Communautaire and political consequences 12. Alternative unrealised projects of European integration

Course ID: FiF.KSD/A-moHI-501/22	Course title: SC: Selected Chapters of 13th and 14th Century History of the Kingdom of Hungary
Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 1., 3.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Students are required to attend the lessons regularly and take active part in them. They need to prepare and present a PowerPoint presentation of the term paper topic they were assigned at the first meeting. The topic of the paper concerns one of the topics listed in the syllabus hereinafter. The paper needs to have at least 5 standard pages (9,000 characters, including spaces) and is to be submitted in writing no later than the credit week. It also needs to include the bibliography. No footnotes are required, though. Grading scale: A = 100% – 92% B = 91% – 84% C = 83% – 76% D = 75% – 68% E = 67% – 60% Fx = 59% – 0% Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Max. number of unjustified absences: 2. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: At the end of the course, students have comprehensive knowledge of the history of the Kingdom of Hungary in the High Middle Ages focusing on its foreign policy. They are familiar with the growing volume of scholarly literature (especially with the latest scientific studies) concerning the topic of their paper. They are also acquainted with selected areas of the history of the Kingdom of Hungary in the High Middle Ages. The course focuses on those problems of the period that cannot be addressed in detail in the general lectures. Students are, therefore, able to locate the different specific development problems in a broader European context and can use these skills to prepare and take their state exams.
Class syllabus:

1. Introductory meeting: Getting acquainted with the course requirements, the credit granting scheme and the content of the course. Students are informed of the topics of the different seminars. Students are assigned the topic of their papers.
2. Introduction to the political, social, economic and cultural development of the Kingdom of Hungary in the 13th century (1205 - 1301).
3. Specific problems of the rule of Andrew II. - his donation policy, its impact on the transformation of the society of the kingdom and on the economic development of the Kingdom of Hungary during his reign.
4. Relations between the Kingdom of Hungary and Austria up to the Battle of the Leitha River (1230 - 1246).
5. Bela IV and Stephen V's western foreign policy - the Arpads' connection with the Western European dynasties (Houses of Anjou, Wittelsbach, Přemyslid, Ascania).
6. Building an alliance between the Kingdom of Hungary and the Habsburgs in the 1270s.
7. The change of the ruling dynasty in the Kingdom of Hungary at the turn of the 13th and 14th centuries - From the Arpad stripes, through the Přemyslid eagle to the Anjou lily.
8. Introduction to the political, social, economic and cultural development of the Kingdom of Hungary in the 14th century (1301 - 1387).
9. The Trenčín branch of the Čák family. The relationship of Matthew III. Čák and Kings Andrew III, Wenceslas III - Ladislav V, Otto and Charles I Robert.
10. The economic reforms of Charles I and Louis I of Anjou and their importance for the position of Hungary in Europe in the 14th century.
11. The relations between the Kingdom of Hungary and Naples in the 14th century.
12. Fates and twists in the life of Queen Mary of Anjou. Course assessment, closing evaluations.

Learning outcomes: At the end of the course, students are familiar with the latest trends used to research the beginnings of hagiography in Central and Eastern Europe on the example of the Czech Republic, Poland, the Kingdom of Hungary, Kievan Rus' and Croatia. They have extensive competencies in working with hagiographic sources and are able to apply them in their own research (for example, in writing their theses). Students are, therefore, familiar with the basic texts of medieval hagiography in the countries of Central Europe. At the end of the course, students also know the basics of the methodology for working with hagiographic texts not only of the Middle Ages in Central Europe.
Class syllabus: 1. Initial session - Students get acquainted with the evaluation scheme and the content of the course. They are assigned the topics of their papers and presentations.

2. Basic sources of hagiographic character and their analysis. Procedure for working with this type of sources.
3. Basic literature and its critical evaluation (overview).
4. Hagiography as a scientific discipline useful when studying the history of the way of thinking and the emergence of ideological structures of the early states in Central and Eastern Europe.
5. The beginnings of hagiography in Europe (late Rome, the Merovingian state, the Saxon state in England, the saints of the Ottonian dynasty, hagiography in Scandinavia).
6. The beginnings of Czech hagiography (St. Ludmila, St. Wenceslas and St. Adalbert).
7. The beginnings of Kievan Rus' hagiography (St. Olga, St. Vladimir, St. Boris and Gleb).
8. The beginnings of Hungarian hagiography (Saints Andrew Zorard and Benedict, Saint Stephen, Saint Ladislaus).
9. The beginnings of Polish hagiography (the White and the Black Legends, St. Stanislaus).
10. Signs of hagiography in Croatia (Saint Helena-Jelena).
11. Holy princesses (first synthesis from the 13th century: Saint Elizabeth, Saint Agnes of Bohemia, Saint Margaret, Saint Kunigunda).
12. Final seminar - end-of-term assessment, the students's activity is assessed.

Recommended literature:

Literature to individual saints will be provided during the semester.

All ten (10) observations and sessions with the mentor teacher must be undertaken to pass. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Assessment is 100% coursework.
Learning outcomes: While visiting local schools and observing lessons with a mentor teacher, students do the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. become familiar with the duties and obligations of being a schoolteacher</li> <li>2. receive pedagogical insight into lesson planning and implementation</li> <li>3. analyze how teachers teach and learners learn</li> <li>4. evaluate and reflect on all aspects of the teaching they observe, i.e., content, delivery, preparedness, classroom management, instructions, etc.</li> <li>5. reflect on what they observe as it relates to their own strengths and weaknesses as a student teacher</li> <li>6. discuss what they have observed with their peers and the mentor teacher, training constructive criticism and feedback skills</li> </ol>

Class syllabus:

Students (in groups of 3 according to their study program) are initiated into the school environment by a mentor teacher at a local lower or upper secondary school.

They observe 10 lessons taught by that mentor teacher (or various teachers at that school).

They receive insight into lesson planning and implementation from the mentor teacher.

They provide feedback on those lessons and discuss what they learn with both the mentor teacher and within their groups.

Each completes an online observation worksheet for each lesson and, after observing all 10 lessons, writes about the experience in a reflection paper.

Class syllabus:

Each student teacher is assigned a mentor teacher at a partner institution where they are introduced to the teaching profession as it is implemented at that institution.

Apart from learning about how the school is run and the everyday responsibilities of a teacher, student teachers are involved in both in-school and extracurricular activities, while preparing lessons plans and teaching 10 lessons under the guidance and watchful eye of their mentor teacher. Pre-lesson, they receive input into what to prepare and then again on what they have prepared. Post-lesson, the mentor teacher provides feedback on all aspects of their teaching (i.e., content, delivery, preparedness, classroom management, instructions, etc.), with suggestions and advice for improvement.

Post practicum, the mentor teacher provides feedback to the instructor via an online questionnaire.

Post practicum, the student teacher submits their lesson plans together with a reflection paper on the experience focusing on their strengths and weaknesses as teachers for evaluation by the instructor.

Respecting the recommended length of the master's thesis (the recommended length of the master's thesis is usually 50 – 70 standard pages = 90,000 to 126,000 characters, including spaces), the adequacy of the length of the thesis is assessed by the thesis supervisor.</li> <li>6. Linguistic and stylistic level of work and formal adjustments.</li> </ol> The student orally presents the content, achieved goals, and conclusions of the master's thesis, and answers the questions and comments of the thesis supervisor, opponent, or members of the examination committee. The committee will comprehensively evaluate the quality of the master's thesis, assess the method and form of defence, and the student's ability to adequately respond to comments and questions from the evaluations of the thesis supervisor and the opponent. The student receives their final grade based on the average of the assessment of the thesis supervisor and opponent from their evaluations, and the assessment of the examination committee.

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100

Learning outcomes:

The student has mastered the basic requirements of writing a scientific text in compliance with the rules of academic ethics. The student knows the methods used in the field of study, is able to work on the chosen topic of the master's thesis at the level of scientific study, with a representative selection of scientific literature, with appropriately chosen scientific procedures and hypotheses that can be verified. After a successful defence of the master's thesis, the student is able to design, implement, critically reflect, and justify his research intention. The student understands the context of the problem, can clearly define research conclusions, state his positions, and make recommendations. He can respond argumentatively and flexibly to questions about the research topic, its methodology, and its conclusions.

Class syllabus:

1. The student presents the master's thesis in front of the committee for state exams, the opponent of the bachelor's thesis, and those present.
2. The student responds to the evaluations – comments and questions.
3. The student responds to the questions of the committee for state exams or the questions in a broader debate.

Learning outcomes: The aim of the course is to problematize the topic of stereotyping and conceptualizing the „enemy“ as a phenomenon with multidisciplinary overlap. Listeners will become familiar with the basic concepts, theoretical and methodological background. They are able to analyze and interpret the process of creating the opposition of Us and Them in the context of ideologies and identity construction (1938 – 1953). They are also capable to orient themselves in contemporary socio-political and geopolitical issues, which are ultimately relevant today.
Class syllabus: I. Introductory meeting. Terms of evaluation, preliminary determination of the topics of the seminar papers and topics for presentation II. Explanation of basic terms, concepts and theoretical backgrounds; evolutionarily conditioned understanding of otherness and strangeness; the project of self-identity and collective memory; the perspective of self-construction; prejudices and stereotypes III. „Banality of Evil“ – „Authority and Obedience“ – „Situational Violence“ IV. Propaganda: methods, aims, language (H. Kelman - L. Hamilton: authorization, routinization, dehumanization) V. Internal political „enemies“: the construction of the Czech, the Jew, the communist, the liberal VI. Foreign political „enemies“: the USSR, the USA, Great Britain, Poland, the exile

- VII. The „image of the friend“ and the process of positive projection of „us“ and „our allies“ - Italy, Germany, the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo Axis
- VIII. The image of „small“ friends - Croatia, Romania
- IX. From friend to enemy – narrative changes and listening to silence (e.g. from Mussolini’s Italy to Badoglio; from the Ribbentrop-Molotov Pact to Operation Barbadossa)
- X. Changes in the concept of „enemy“ after 1945
- XI. Changes in the concept of „friend“ after 1945
