COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2024/2025
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSD/A-moHI-684/00	Course title: HS: Slovak and Czech National Revival: Unity and Differences
Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Students are required to attend the lessons regularly and take active part in them. They are also expected to present a report and deliver a term paper. a) Maximum number of justified absences: 3 b) At the seminar, students need to work actively following the teacher's instructions. c) Students are required to present a (15-20 min. long) report. For that purpose, they need to be able to speak in front of an audience, elaborate a (printed, electronic) presentation, and answer questions. However, they can present an extra written paper instead of the presentation. d) Term paper: Students are assigned their preliminary assessment topics at the beginning of the term. Their term papers and report topics process specific parallel issues in the Slovak and Czech environments, e.g. the literary language in the Czech and Slovak national movements, Newspapers and journalism in the Czech and Slovak national movements, Pan-Slavism in the Czech and Slovak national movements, etc. It is necessary to delimit a suitable topic from large areas as part of the preparation for the students' independent scholarly activity. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: At the end of the course and after their self study, students have additional information on the relations of the Czech and Slovak national revival movements either from focusing on their specific term paper topic or from the others's presentations. They are able to compare the conditions, starting points and results of specific segments in two neighboring national movements and in two different territories. They are familiar with the similarities and differences in the shaping of a modern nation on the examples of two related national movements (activity, ideology, personalities and their views.) They also have an overview of the key sources concerning the issues of the period in a wider Central European framework, as well as practical experience delimiting a specific topic from a large circle (in line with the required work structure).
Class syllabus:

1. Introduction. Getting acquainted with the course requirements and with the content of the seminar. Students are assigned their seminar paper and report topics. The national revival and the shaping of a modern nation.
2. Great Moravia, the Czech Kingdom, The Kingdom of Hungary and "Slovakia." Historical and natural law.
3. The Enlightenment. Conditions and activities. Josef Dobrovský, Anton Bernolák, the Bernolák group.
4. Language. The idea of a Czechoslovak language. The concept of a Slovak language. Panslavism.
5. History. Czechoslovak history? Slavic history. Historicism and history.
6. The issue of the Legal form of the state. Pan-Slavism and Austro-Slavism. Ján Kollár, František Palacký. Karel Havlíček Borovský.
7. Economy and agriculture. Economic nationalism. The social issue.
8. Symbols. The emergence of national symbols and the national movement. Mechanisms of self-interpretation.
9. The role of the nobility in the national revival. National patriotism.
10. The Štúr group - Slovak division? Different perceptions.
11. Institutional background. The school system, National Museum...
12. The 1848/49 revolution. Specifics and ideology. Post-revolutionary development. Consequences and starting points. Topics: different, well-defined areas

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester: 4.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites: FiF.SAS/A-moSE-015/15 - Language A in Use 3 - Slovak
Course requirements: Students are allowed no more than two absences during the semester. For completing the course, the requirements are as follows: - One preliminary test and a final exam, - Every other week a pop quiz for testing knowledge of a chosen grammar rule, or reading or listening comprehension. The pop quiz earns a max. of 10 points, the grammar quiz grading: -0.25 points for errors, reading and listening comprehension grading: -1 point for incorrect answers, - Submitting preliminary assignments in the Slovak language after every lesson, - Writing altogether three essays on select topics – one essay earns a max. of 20 points. The essay grading considers four categories: language accuracy, stylistics, form, and content. Failure to submit an essay results in 0/20 points. In all segments of assessment students must earn a score of a min. of 60%. The preliminary score is the average of partial scores: average score for pop quizzes + score for the preliminary test + average score of the essays. If students achieve 60% average score, they are allowed to take the final exam. The final exam consists of two parts: a test (consisting of three segments: grammar, listening, reading), spoken part (students choose a random question from topics covered in the course). Violation of academic ethics will be punished according to a degree of their importance from lowering of the grade result up to submitting a proposal on disciplinary proceeding. Grading scale: A: 100 – 92% B: 91 – 84% C: 83 – 76% D: 75 – 68% E: 67 – 60% Fx: 59 – 0% Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 50/50

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2024/2025
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSLLV/A-mpSZ-023/22	Course title: Literary Science
Educational activities: Type of activities: lecture Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 2., 4.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: This is a non-mandatory course evaluated during the semester. The course is evaluated on basis of written exam during the semester, which will test a) knowledge of individual parts of subject matter presented on lectures (based on the textbook), b) creative (commented) reading of selected paper/essay/book chapter – chosen from those with which the subject matter of lectures is concerned. A specific part of each lecture is a discussion about a particular poem/prose, active participation in this is valuable. Grading scale: 100 – 92: A 91 – 84: B 83 – 76: C 75 – 68: D 67 – 60: E 59 – 0: FX The teacher accepts a maximum of two absences with a written proof of the cause of absence. The exam date will be announced at the beginning of the semester and can be later changed with respect to a student-teacher agreement. Violation of academic ethics results in the cancellation of earned points in the relevant item. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: After successful participation in the course the student has an overview in different approaches to literature of 20th and 21st century and he/she is able to put them into the context of evolutionary steps of art. The student is able to grasp and comment on a scientific metatext (from domains of theory of literature, psychoanalysis, philosophy, esthetics), specific in its approach to literature. The student is capable of selecting aspects of the text in a way enabling him/her to use those in their own interpretation of a literary text or in their own reflection on art. The student is aware of the specifics of exact scientific methods as well as of more open approaches to literature. He/she has basic knowledge about developing his/her own competencies of reading and writing with aspects from various discussed metatexts.

Class syllabus:

The course helps in developing of reading and writing competencies. It is aimed at an overview of selected approaches to literature in theory of literature, psychoanalysis, philosophy, and esthetics, in international and domestic culture contexts. The course is executed as a set of interactive lectures.

Topics are:

1. Positivism and its detailed study of author's biography.
2. Formalism and its benefits in more complex interpretation of literary works.
3. „Antirealism“ in essays related to avantgarde art.
4. Psychoanalysis and its insight into functions of libido in the process of creating text..
5. Psychoanalytical insights into existential writing longing to find the meaning of life.
6. Phenomenology and its study of forces of nature (mainly fire and water) in imagination.
7. Structuralism, its “story” in Russian, French, Czech and Slovak context.
8. Structuralist analysis of poetry and prose.
9. Semiology and its suggestions on distancing from lies and power of language.
10. Relationship between terms semiotics and semiology.
11. Postmodern philosophy and esthetics, its insight in approach to art and life.
12. Cognitive sciences in study of poetry and prose.
13. Aspect of gender in history of literature and in its interpretation.

During selected parts of the lectures, Slovak and world poetry and prose will be interpreted and interactively discussed. Visual artworks will also be presented, since one of the goals of the course is to show how science connects to the power of art.

STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2024/2025
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSF/A-moSE-045/15	Course title: Master's Degree Thesis Defence - Central-European Languages in Theory and in Use
Number of credits: 15
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The student must submit the master's thesis within the deadline specified in the schedule of the current academic year for the relevant date of the state exam. The master's thesis is submitted in electronic form via AIS. The work must meet the parameters determined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. The provisions of Article 14 of Internal Regulation no. 5/2020 (Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts of Comenius University) apply to the evaluation of the master's thesis. The supervisor of the final thesis and its opponent will prepare evaluations of the master's thesis and propose a grade in the A-FX grading scale, which the student receives a minimum of three working days before the defence. Grading scale: 0-59% -FX, 60-67% -E, 68-75% -D, 76-83% -C, 84-91% -B, 92-100% -A Master's thesis evaluation criteria: 1. The contribution of the master's thesis, the fulfilment of the objectives of the thesis in its assignment, and the requirements for the content of the master's thesis given by the internal quality system of Comenius University. It is assessed whether the student has worked on the chosen topic at the level of scientific study, with a representative selection of scientific literature, with appropriately chosen scientific procedures and hypotheses that can be verified. Demonstration of the ability to work creatively in the study program is evaluated and the degree of demonstration of knowledge and understanding of the diploma thesis is reflected. 2. Originality of the work (master's thesis must not be plagiarized, must not infringe the copyrights of other authors); the documentation for the defence of the master's thesis also includes protocols of originality from the CRZP and Theses systems, to the results of which the thesis supervisor and the opponent express their opinions in their evaluations. 3. Correctness and accuracy of citation of used information sources, research results of other authors and group authors, correctness of the description of methods and working procedures of other authors or group authors. 4. Compliance of the structure of the master's thesis with the prescribed composition defined by the internal quality system of Comenius University. 5. Respecting the recommended length of the master's thesis (the recommended length of the master's thesis is usually 50 – 70 standard pages = 90,000 to 126,000 characters, including spaces), the adequacy of the length of the thesis is assessed by the thesis supervisor. 6. Linguistic and stylistic level of work and formal adjustments. The student orally presents the content, achieved goals, and conclusions of the master's thesis, and answers the questions and comments of the thesis supervisor, opponent, or members of the examination committee. The committee will comprehensively evaluate the quality of the master's thesis, assess the method and form of defence, and the student's ability to adequately respond to comments and questions from the evaluations of the thesis supervisor and the opponent. The student receives their final grade based on the average of the assessment of the thesis supervisor and opponent from their evaluations, and the assessment of the examination committee. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant part of the assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100

Learning outcomes:

The student has mastered the basic requirements of writing a scientific text in compliance with the rules of academic ethics. The student knows the methods used in the field of study, is able to work on the chosen topic of the master's thesis at the level of scientific study, with a representative selection of scientific literature, with appropriately chosen scientific procedures and hypotheses that can be verified. After a successful defence of the master's thesis, the student is able to design, implement, critically reflect, and justify his research intention. The student understands the context of the problem, can clearly define research conclusions, state his positions, and make recommendations. He can respond argumentatively and flexibly to questions about the research topic, its methodology, and its conclusions.

Class syllabus:

1. Student presents the bachelor's thesis (app. 10 minutes) in front of the committee for state exams. A ppt presentation can be prepared, which is not necessary.
2. Presentation of the main points of the supervisor's and oponent's reviews, possibly also the questions arising from them.
3. The student's respond to comments and questions in the reviews.
4. The student responds to the questions of the committee for state exams or the questions in a broader debate.

Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: During the semester, active work on seminars and one paper focused on the comparative interpretation of a selected Slovak-Slavic topic in the field of phraseology, possibly paremiology, is evaluated. The seminar paper will be associated with a public presentation in the range of 15 minutes at the lesson. In the examination period, a final test is required. The student may have a maximum of one absence during the semester without documents and must achieve a minimum of 60% success rate in all parts of the evaluation. The students can complete the course only if they meet all the requirements of the continuous evaluation. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant part of the assessment. Grading scale (in %): A: 100 - 93 % B: 92 - 84 % C: 83 - 76 % D: 75 - 68 % E: 67 - 60 % Fx: 59 - 0 % The dates for oral presentations will be determined at the beginning of the semester. The date for the final test will be announced no later than in the last week of the instruction period. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 50% continuously, 50% in the examination period Learning outcomes: Students have knowledge of the theoretical and methodological background of individual Slavic phraseological schools and their main representatives. They know basic phraseographic works and can work with them. They are familiar with individual structural types of phrasemes in Slovak and Slavic languages (according to the study specialization), especially in Czech, Bulgarian, Croatian, Polish, Slovenian, Serbian and Russian). They are able to conduct a discussion on the origin and motivation of the formation of selected phrasemes and on the possibilities of their interpretation in terms of phraseological equivalence.

Class syllabus:

1. Principles of the origin and use of phraseology.
2. The boundaries of phraseology. Basic properties of phrasemes.
3. Russian school of phraseology – history and present.
4. V. M. Mokienko – the theory of phraseological antinomy.
5. Slovak and Czech school of phraseology.
6. Croatian and Polish school of phraseology.
7. Slovenian and Serbian school of phraseology.
8. Structural, grammatical, and semantic classification of phrasemes.
9. Phraseological internationalisms, biblical expressions, calques, partial calques, et al.
10. Paremiology. Basic types of paremiological units – proverb, adage, weather lore.
11. Working with phraseological dictionaries and paremiological collections.
12. Phraseology and translation – the equivalence and untranslatability of phrasemes.

Number of credits: 2
Recommended semester: 1., 3.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Continuous submission of translations after each class throughout the semester, two final translations - one assigned and one of your own choice of about 3 standard pages. Translations submitted during the semester are graded out of a maximum of 5 points, each of the final translations is then graded out of 10 points. In total the student can obtain 70 points. Two excused absences are accepted. All work is required to be handed in even in case of absence. Grading scale in %: A: 100 - 93 % B: 92 - 84 % C: 83 - 76 % D: 75 - 68 % E: 67 - 60 % Fx: 59 - 0 %. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant part of the assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: After completing the course, students have basic skills in translating texts of various types (artistic, advertising, journalistic, professional, legal) from Slovenian into Slovak, as well as basic theoretical knowledge of translation in general. After completing the course, they are able to think independently about translation, its challenges, are aware of the specifics of translating different types of texts and translation from Slovenian into Slovak, and are able to apply the acquired knowledge in practice when translating simpler texts.
Class syllabus: Students are introduced to dictionaries and online tools that help translators translate from and into Slovenian, as well as some basic theoretical background on translation in general. During the course, they will translate texts of various kinds from Slovenian into Slovak - advertising, journalistic, professional, artistic, legal, etc., highlighting the specifics of translating each type of text. Students work with the texts independently at home, then in class they discuss possible problematic areas and propose suitable translation solutions. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSF/A-moSE-509/16	Course title: Theory and Practical Use of Central European Languages - Czech Language (Level B1)
Number of credits: 4
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The state examination may be taken by a student a) after obtaining a minimum number of credits sufficient to achieve the necessary number of credits for the proper completion of studies after obtaining credits for successful completion of the state examinations, b) after successful completion of compulsory courses, compulsory elective courses and elective courses in the structure designated in the study programme, c) after fulfilling the student's obligations stemming from Section 71, paragraph 3, letter b of the Higher Education Act, d) if no disciplinary proceedings are conducted against them. Successful completion of the state examination course is one of the conditions for successful completion of the study programme. The state examination course is evaluated by the examination board with classification grades A to FX. The evaluation of the state examination or part thereof is decided by consensus by the examination board. If the examination board fails to reach a consensus, the marking of the state examination or part thereof shall be decided by voting. In accordance with the faculty's study regulations (VP 5/2020, Art. 15), the framework dates of state examinations are established by the Dean in accordance with the faculty schedule of studies. Departments are obliged to publish their state examination dates on their websites no later than 5 weeks prior to the date of the examinations. The student is to register for the state examination via the academic information system at least three weeks prior to the date of the examination. A student has the right to one regular and two retake dates of the state examination. The regular examination date shall be the one for which the student first applied within the time limit given for the state examinations. If the student has been evaluated with a grade of FX on the regular date of the state examination, the student may take the retake dates of the state examination a) on the following dates for taking the state examinations in the corresponding academic year; or b) on the state examination dates in one of the following academic years in accordance with section 65, paragraph 2 of the Higher Education Act. If a student is unable to attend the date of the state examination or a part thereof for which they has registered due to serious reasons, they must issue a written apology to the chair of the examination board in advance or, at the latest, within three business days after the date of the state examination or any part thereof, if there were serious obstacles preventing them from submitting an apology in advance. If the student does not attend the state examination or any part thereof on the specified date without an explanation, or if the chair of the examination board does not accept the student's apology, the student shall be given a grade of FX for that particular date of the state examination. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant part of the assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100
Learning outcomes: Students who pass the state examination, have fully mastered the issues covered in the context of the specified topics. Their knowledge of the Czech language is at B1 level according to CEFR, which

means that they are able to deal with most common communication situations, understand the main points of clear standard speech on topics they are familiar with (occurring at work, school, during leisure time, etc.), are able to describe experiences and events, desires and ambitions, give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans in a concise manner and can produce simple coherent text on topics they are familiar with. In addition they have theoretical knowledge of the Czech language system, which they can apply in practice. The students are able to compare the language systems of Slovak and Czech within the given subject areas. They can think critically and formulate their ideas clearly using relevant terminology.

Class syllabus:

The state examination consists of a written and an oral part.

The written part of the state examination includes the following components:

a) listening comprehension, testing the students' ability to understand a spoken text. After listening to the texts, the students are asked to complete worksheet to demonstrate their ability to understand the text;

b) grammar, checks the students' knowledge of grammar in practice;

c) reading comprehension, tests the students' ability to understand written text. By solving tasks of different types, the students must demonstrate that they can understand the content of the texts without the use of a dictionary;

d) written communication, which tests the students' ability to write texts without the use of a dictionary. The students write two to three texts of approximately 200 words altogether.

The oral part of the state examination focuses on the analysis and interpretation of linguistic phenomena and on testing the ability to use the chosen language in common communicative situations - the students can lead, a conversation, talk, question, explain, debate, give arguments and express their opinion, agreement or disagreement, describe an event, speak of interests, experiences, dreams and plans, describe pictures. The students have time to prepare after the assignment (two questions) has been drawn.

Time frame of the state exam:

LISTENING GRAMMAR READING WRITING SPEAKING

25 minutes 50 minutes 45 minutes 50 minutes 30 minutes

Examination procedure:

1. The students attend the term of the state examination they have applied for according to the schedule set by the department. 2. The students take the written test detailed above. 3. The written part of the examination is followed by the oral part. The students are given two questions from the state examination subject matter, which are presented in writing and anonymously in the form of a random selection from the printed questions or a generator. 4. The Examination Committee allows the students adequate time to prepare an oral response to the questions. 5. The students first introduce themselves in Slovenian, then present the prepared answers to the questions to the examination committee and answer supplementary questions. 6. After the students' answer have been completed, the examination committee decide on the results of the state examination, which will take place in a closed session of the examination committee. The final mark is the average of the marks obtained in all parts of the examination, taking into account the opinion of the members of the committee. The state examination and the announcement of its results is public.

Course ID: FiF.KSF/A-moSE-508/16	Course title: Theory and Practical Use of Central European Languages - Slovenian Language (Level B1)
Number of credits: 4
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The state examination may be taken by a student a) after obtaining a minimum number of credits sufficient to achieve the necessary number of credits for the proper completion of studies after obtaining credits for successful completion of the state examinations, b) after successful completion of compulsory courses, compulsory elective courses and elective courses in the structure designated in the study programme, c) after fulfilling the student's obligations stemming from Section 71, paragraph 3, letter b of the Higher Education Act, d) if no disciplinary proceedings are conducted against them. Successful completion of the state examination course is one of the conditions for successful completion of the study programme. The state examination course is evaluated by the examination board with classification grades A to FX. The evaluation of the state examination or part thereof is decided by consensus by the examination board. If the examination board fails to reach a consensus, the marking of the state examination or part thereof shall be decided by voting. In accordance with the faculty's study regulations (VP 5/2020, Art. 15), the framework dates of state examinations are established by the Dean in accordance with the faculty schedule of studies. Departments are obliged to publish their state examination dates on their websites no later than 5 weeks prior to the date of the examinations. The student is to register for the state examination via the academic information system at least three weeks prior to the date of the examination. A student has the right to one regular and two retake dates of the state examination. The regular examination date shall be the one for which the student first applied within the time limit given for the state examinations. If the student has been evaluated with a grade of FX on the regular date of the state examination, the student may take the retake dates of the state examination a) on the following dates for taking the state examinations in the corresponding academic year; or b) on the state examination dates in one of the following academic years in accordance with section 65, paragraph 2 of the Higher Education Act. If a student is unable to attend the date of the state examination or a part thereof for which they has registered due to serious reasons, they must issue a written apology to the chair of the examination board in advance or, at the latest, within three business days after the date of the state examination or any part thereof, if there were serious obstacles preventing them from submitting an apology in advance. If the student does not attend the state examination or any part thereof on the specified date without an explanation, or if the chair of the examination board does not accept the student's apology, the student shall be given a grade of FX for that particular date of the state examination. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant part of the assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100
Learning outcomes: Students who pass the state examination, have fully mastered the issues covered in the context of the specified topics. Their knowledge of the Slovenian language is B1 level according to CEFR, which means that they are able to deal with most common communication situations, understand the main points of clear standard speech on topics they are familiar with (occurring at work, school, during leisure time, etc.), are able to describe experiences and events, desires and ambitions, give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans in a concise manner and can produce simple coherent text on topics they are familiar with.
