COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2024/2025
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Law
Course ID: PraFKUP/dUSP17-866/16	Course title: Preparatory Seminar on Dissertation Project in Constitutional Law
Educational activities: Type of activities: independent work Number of hours: per week: per level/semester: 120s Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 2.
Educational level: III.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Continuous assessment: processing the basic outline and brief content of the dissertation project (50%) Final assessment: development of a dissertation project (50%) Classification scale: A/1 = 91 – 100%; B/1.5 = 81-90%; C/2 = 73-80%; D/2.5 = 66-72%; E/3 = 60-65%; FX = 0-59%. Unless the internal regulation of the UK or the PraF of the UK stipulates otherwise. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 50/50
Learning outcomes: By systematically preparing a dissertation project under the guidance of his supervisor, the doctoral student not only learns, but also acquires the ability to apply the basic methods of scientific work and their use in his own research and scientific activity. Under the influence of regular logical and well-thought-out mentoring by the supervisor, who appropriately influences the entire project preparation process, after completing the subject, the doctoral student is able to formulate basic scientific hypotheses, which are also the presumed result. In the entire preparation phase, the trainer's intervention is passive. On the contrary, the emphasis placed on the active component of research is determined by the doctoral student's own creative activity. The mentioned process is finalized by the development of a dissertation project, in which the doctoral student formulates and specifies basic hypotheses on the basis of previous scientific investigation of the issue and knowledge, and at the same time creates a scientific platform for further research in the researched area. The presented project has a standard arrangement and respects the formal and citation criteria as well as the principles of referring to primary and secondary literature. The goal of the doctoral project is to clearly, succinctly and accurately characterize the subject of the dissertation. It also includes elaborated sub-goals that condition the achievement of the main goal. The project does not lack discussion, as well as its results. The author's own attitudes and solutions arrived at are logically organized and sufficiently evaluated. At the same time, the doctoral student can comment on all facts and knowledge in confrontations with the results of other authors or case law. After graduation, the doctoral student is able to present, argue partial results of scientific research and lead a professional discussion regarding the issue in question.

Class syllabus:

1. Analysis of the current state of knowledge in the relevant field.
2. Processing of the theoretical part of the project: processing of the basic outline and brief content of the dissertation project according to the supervisor's guidelines in accordance with the individual scientific plan of the doctoral student with the help of active use of knowledge.
3. Methods of scientific research, studied professional literature and information sources, outline to the supervisor.
4. Processing of the empirical part.
5. Assessment of the benefit of project processing and its applicability for practice.
6. Presentation of own considerations and opinions de lege ferenda.
