Learning outcomes: The interdisciplinary clinical subject is based on the needs of practice. It develops the student's ability to realistically identify evidence, execute it, and present it persuasively in either civil, administrative, or criminal proceedings. It also focuses on the contexts of relevant forensic disciplines, including criminology, and on current issues related to evidence in virtual space, also taking into account criminological contexts. It focuses on the competences necessary for the performance of procedural acts in the context of evidence, both for lawyers who provide legal services to parties to proceedings and for lawyers who, as officials or employees of public authorities, implement the decision-making process.
Class syllabus: 1. Concept and object of the law of evidence. Basic concepts of the law of evidence, terminological differences from the point of view of several legal disciplines. Comparison of the principles relating to evidence in selected proceedings before public authorities, with an emphasis on the issues of the distribution of the burden of proof and the burden of proof between the procedural subjects and the consequences of their failure to do so. 2. Tactics, ethics, speed and economy of evidence - what evidence to propose and when to propose it; legal and ethical limits to the tactics of evidence; identification of necessary evidence by the public authority and its activities aimed at speed and economy of evidence. 3. Questioning the accused/party/litigant 4. Questioning of witnesses

5. Methods and tactics of conducting the interrogation.
6. Confrontation. Recognition.
7. Professional and expert activity.
8. Documentary and physical evidence
9. Inspection, reconstruction.
10. Documentation of evidence, taking of evidence. Evaluation of the evidence and its projection into the decision. Dealing with the results of the evidence in the reasoning of the decision and dealing with evidence proposed but not taken.
11. Forensic expertise in the field of computer crime
12. Simulation of the taking of evidence I
13. Simulation of Evidence Execution II
14. Simulation of the evaluation of evidence and the formulation of the reasoning of a decision to the extent that it relates to evidence
