STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2025/2026
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KSF/mpBU-106/15	Course title: Bulgarian Language and Translation
Number of credits: 3
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The state examination may be taken by a student a) after obtaining a minimum number of credits sufficient to achieve the necessary number of credits for the proper completion of studies after obtaining credits for successful completion of the state examinations, b) after successful completion of compulsory courses, compulsory elective courses and elective courses in the structure designated in the study programme, c) after fulfilling the student's obligations stemming from Section 71, paragraph 3, letter b of the Higher Education Act, d) if no disciplinary proceedings are conducted against them. Successful completion of the state examination course is one of the conditions for successful completion of the study programme. The state examination course is evaluated by the examination board with classification grades A to FX. The evaluation of the state examination or part thereof is decided by consensus by the examination board. If the examination board fails to reach a consensus, the marking of the state examination or part thereof shall be decided by voting. In accordance with the faculty's study regulations (VP 5/2020, Art. 15), the framework dates of state examinations are established by the Dean in accordance with the faculty schedule of studies. Departments are obliged to publish their state examination dates on their websites no later than 5 weeks prior to the date of the examinations. The student is to register for the state examination via the academic information system at least three weeks prior to the date of the examination. A student has the right to one regular and two retake dates of the state examination. The regular examination date shall be the one for which the student first applied within the time limit given for the state examinations. If the student has been evaluated with a grade of FX on the regular date of the state examination, the student may take the retake dates of the state examination a) on the following dates for taking the state examinations in the corresponding academic year; or b) on the state examination dates in one of the following academic years in accordance with section 65, paragraph 2 of the Higher Education Act. If a student is unable to attend the date of the state examination or a part thereof for which they has registered due to serious reasons, they must issue a written apology to the chair of the examination board in advance or, at the latest, within three business days after the date of the state examination or any part thereof, if there were serious obstacles preventing them from submitting an apology in advance. If the student does not attend the state examination or any part thereof on the specified date without an explanation, or if the chair of the examination board does not accept the student's apology, the student shall be given a grade of FX for that particular date of the state examination. Violation of academic ethics will be punished, and the student will lose all the received points in the relevant assessment. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100
Learning outcomes: After completing the state examination subject Bulgarian Language and Translation, the students handle the matters of the state examination in the context of the specified topics, possess a broad theoretical knowledge of individual translation and interpreting disciplines, know how to compare

the language systems of Slovak and Bulgarian, can adequately communicate in all language styles (literary, specialized, journalistic, marketing) both in written and oral form. They master all procedures, skills, habits and strategies of literary and specialized translation, consecutive and simultaneous interpretation, achieve a high degree of language competence in Slovak and Bulgarian, as well as a high degree of translation and interpreting competence.

Class syllabus:

The language examination has a written and oral part.

The written part consists of a test with open-ended as well as multiple choice questions and it is normally carried out one day before the oral part. On the day of the written exam, the student also takes the translation and interpreting examinations. The dates of the written and oral parts are to be published in advance on the department's website.

In the oral part, the student will be asked one question. The questions are given in written form and anonymously in the form of a random selection from printed questions or a random generator. STATE EXAM DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2025/2026
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KRom/A-mpTA-SS2/15	Course title: Italian Literature and Culture
Number of credits: 3
Educational level: II.
Course requirements: The student can take the state exam a) after obtaining at least such number of credits that after obtaining credits for successful completion of state exams, they achieve the necessary number of credits for the proper completion of studies, b) after successful completion of compulsory subjects, compulsory elective subjects, and elective subjects in the composition determined by the study program, c) after fulfilling the student's obligations arising from § 71, par. 3 letter b of the Higher Education Act, d) if no disciplinary action is taken against them. Successful completion of the state exam is one of the conditions for successful completion of the study program. The subject of the state exam is evaluated by the committee for state exams using the grading scale A-FX. The evaluation of the state examination or its part is decided by the examination committee by consensus. If the examination committee does not reach a consensus, the evaluation of the state examination or its part is decided by voting. On the basis of the wording of the study regulations of the faculty (Internal Rules and Regulations 5/2020, Art. 15), the framework dates of state examinations are set by the dean in accordance with the faculty's academic schedule. Departments are obliged to publish the dates of their state exams on the website no later than 5 weeks before they take place. The student registers for the state exam through the academic information system (AIS) at least three weeks before it takes place. The student is entitled to one regular and two resit attempts of the state exam. The regular attempt is the one for which the student applied for the first time within the deadline set for state exams. If the student was evaluated with the FX mark on the regular attempt of the state exam, the student may take resits of the state exam a) on the following dates assigned for state examinations in the relevant academic year or b) on the dates assigned for state examinations in one of the following academic years in accordance with § 65, par. 2 of the Higher Education Act. If the student is unable to come on the day of the state exam for which they have registered on serious grounds, they are obliged to apologize in writing to the chairman of the examination committee in advance or no later than three working days after the date of the state examination or its part, if there were serious obstacles that prevented them to do so in advance. If the student does not attend the state examination or its part without an excuse within the specified period, or if the chairman of the examination committee does not accept their excuse, they are assessed with the FX grade from that attempt of the state exam. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100
Learning outcomes:

1. The student arrives on the registered date of the state exam according to the schedule set by the department.
 2. The student receives a question from the subject of the state exam.
 3. The examination committee will provide the student with reasonable time to prepare their oral answer to the question.
 4. The student presents the prepared answer to the question in front of the examination committee and answers additional questions.
 5. After the student finishes their answer, the examination committee decides on the results of the state exam in a closed session of the examination committee.
- The course of the state exam and the announcement of its results are public.

Class syllabus:

The final state examination in Italian literature and culture consists of a scope of knowledge that students have acquired during the study of subjects focused on literature and culture. Students must prove their knowledge of Italian literature as well as history and current political, social, and cultural events in Italy. They must be able to put knowledge into context and present it at an academic level in accomplished Italian.

The student is able to grasp and comment on a scientific metatext (from domains of theory of literature, psychoanalysis, philosophy, esthetics), specific in its approach to literature. The student is capable of selecting aspects of the text in a way enabling him/her to use those in their own interpretation of a literary text or in their own reflection on art. The student is aware of the specifics of exact scientific methods as well as of more open approaches to literature. He/she has basic knowledge about developing his/her own competencies of reading and writing with aspects from various discussed metatexts.

Class syllabus:

The course helps in developing of reading and writing competencies. It is aimed at an overview of selected approaches to literature in theory of literature, psychoanalysis, philosophy, and esthetics, in international and domestic culture contexts. The course is executed as a set of interactive lectures.

Topics are:

1. Positivism and its detailed study of author's biography.
2. Formalism and its benefits in more complex interpretation of literary works.
3. „Antirealism“ in essays related to avantgarde art.
4. Psychoanalysis and its insight into functions of libido in the process of creating text..
5. Psychoanalytical insights into existential writing longing to find the meaning of life.
6. Phenomenology and its study of forces of nature (mainly fire and water) in imagination.
7. Structuralism, its “story” in Russian, French, Czech and Slovak context.
8. Structuralist analysis of poetry and prose.
9. Semiology and its suggestions on distancing from lies and power of language.
10. Relationship between terms semiotics and semiology.
11. Postmodern philosophy and esthetics, its insight in approach to art and life.
12. Cognitive sciences in study of poetry and prose.
13. Aspect of gender in history of literature and in its interpretation.

During selected parts of the lectures, Slovak and world poetry and prose will be interpreted and interactively discussed. Visual artworks will also be presented, since one of the goals of the course is to show how science connects to the power of art.

Course requirements: All matters pertaining to state examination are set out in Article 14 of the Study Regulations of the Faculty of Arts. In the master's study programmes, the state examination consists only of the defence of the Master's thesis. The student chooses the department as a training centre which corresponds to the discipline within which he/she wants to write the final thesis. He/she reports this choice by the deadline set by the department, provided that he/she is able to find a supervisor and a suitable topic in the relevant department. For the successful defence of the Master's thesis as the subject of the state examination in the master's degree programmes conducted at the Department of British and American Studies, students will receive credits according to the current study plan (currently 15 credits). Requirements for the admission to the defence are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- fulfillment of the requirements of the study plan concerning the prescribed composition of courses and their credit value so that after awarding the credits for the state examination the student obtains the required number of credits for the master's degree;- submission of the Master's thesis (electronically via the academic information system AIS) by the thesis submission deadline corresponding to the relevant state examination period according to the academic year schedule set by the faculty. The thesis is evaluated by the standard grading scale (0-59% -FX, 60-67% -E, 68-75% -D, 76-83% -C, 84-91% -B, 92-100% -A) by the supervisor of the thesis and the designated opponent in the assessment reports, which are available to the student no later than 3 working days before the state examination. The supervisor's report shall also include the percentage of compliance results from the originality check protocols (CRZP, Theses), which must be explicitly evaluated by the supervisor with the wording "the thesis shows/does not show signs of plagiarism". The Master's thesis will take the following form: The defence will consist of a thesis presentation (the student chooses the form of the defence, the PPT format can also be used) and the student's response to a broader theoretical question, which is assigned to the student by the supervisor upon the Master's thesis submission. The supervisor will include this question in the assessment report as one of the points of discussion for the defence; it will also be included in the defence report. The thesis presentation must: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Include a clearly articulated thesis statement,- have a clear and logical structure of argumentation and findings,- reflect a new perspective on the issue as a result of adequate and appropriate work with the findings gained through own research, the conclusions of which the student is able to present and formulate. The criteria for the evaluation (of the defence) of the Master's thesis at the Department of British and American Studies are as follows:

- Quality of the Master's thesis (originality, significance of the analysis, clear formulation of the scientific problem and hypotheses under study, scope of the professional and scientific literature used),
- the adequacy of the methodological approach to the topic under study, the analysis logically and coherently answers the research questions,
- systematic and logical summary of the results of the analysis,
- compliance with citation standards (MLA...),
- language level of the presentation (academic language at least at B2 level),
- quality of the presentation and communication skills.

The evaluation of the thesis will include the areas below with the corresponding weighting (out of 100):

PART A: CONTENT

- Overall structure and organization (adequacy, scope, objectivity, coherence, cohesion) 15
- Theoretical knowledge related to the research topic 15
- Methodology (identifying concepts, research problems, aims, tasks, choosing adequate methods) 15
- Analysis (quality, depth, complexity) 15
- Originality and contribution (degree of originality, own contribution to knowledge) 10

PART B: FORM

- Adequate work with information sources (extent, structure, reliability, adequacy, compliance with a citation style) 15
- Language and style 10
- Typography and layout 5

Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100 (%)

Learning outcomes:

- Upon successful completion of the defence, students will be familiar with the basic requirements for academic writing and with the rules of academic integrity.
- They will have mastered the theory of working with sources and have the skills to compile correct bibliographic entries.
- They will have understood the principles of writing a Master's thesis, both in terms of form and content, as laid out by the university's regulations.
- They will have understood the causes of plagiarism, they will be able to recognize its types and know how to avoid it.
- They will have sufficient research skills to obtain, process, and interpret sources.
- They will have mastered the basics for writing a Master's thesis.
- They will have a deep knowledge of the thesis topic and will be able to approach it both critically and creatively.

Class syllabus:

1. The student presents the Master's thesis in front of the state examination committee, the supervisor and the opponent of the Master's thesis, and those present.
2. The student responds to the comments and questions in the assessments.
3. The student responds to the questions of the state examination committee or the questions in a broader debate.
4. A closed vote of the state examination committee on the evaluation of the Master's thesis defence.
5. Announcement of the evaluation (of the thesis defence) of the Master's thesis.

student receives their final grade based on the average of the assessment of the thesis supervisor and opponent from their evaluations, and the assessment of the examination committee.
Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 0/100.

Learning outcomes:

Students can create an academically ethical and contributive scientific study with a rich bibliography. They know a lot about the scrutinized field, they are familiar with the existing literature on the topic and they can react and reason promptly to questions and remarks related to it. They are skilled in processing and interpreting information, on the basis of which they are able to formulate their own hypotheses and deduce conclusions, as well as use them to solve potential practical problems.

Class syllabus:

1. The student presents the master`s thesis for the commission for the state examinations, opponent and the others present.
2. The student reacts to the assessments; comments on remarks and answers questions.
3. A discussion takes place, in which the student answers questions of the commission for the state examinations and the others present.

State exam syllabus:

Depends on the topic of the master`s thesis.

Learning outcomes: After successful completion of the course, students have knowledge about the state of reception of Russian and Ukrainian literature in the 20th and 21st century in the Slovak cultural space. They have knowledge of the determinants and circumstances of the development of this reception and its transformations in relation to the aforementioned determinants of cultural and extra-cultural character. For a better understanding of the real contexts, two literatures that have formed a logical part of the Slavic context of the Slovak cultural space for almost two centuries are included in the learning process. The graduate of the course will acquire a basic knowledge of the transformations of Slovak ideas about the phenomena and personalities of the literatures discussed.
Class syllabus: 1. Periodization of translation and reception of Russian and Ukrainian literature in Slovak cultural space - direct translations from both languages. 2. Translations and reception of Russian and Ukrainian literature until 1918 - circumstances, personalities, works: differences and similarities 3. The interwar period - depth and breadth of the scope of translations from Russian literature, a period of some stagnation in the reception of Ukrainian literature

4. Emancipation of translation (not only) from Russian literature in the period of the wartime Slovak Republic.
5. The quantity and quality of translations from Russian and Ukrainian literature in the times of "building socialism" - the phenomenon of "reception funnel", second-hand translations, echoes of the lull.
6. The complexity of the reception of Russian literature in 1970-1990. "Non-Russian" literature in Slovak translation and as an extension of the range of "Soviet" literature.
7. An unnatural situation? Decline? The period of 1990-2000. The importance of specific personalities in the reception of Russian and even more so Ukrainian literature
8. Since the turn of the millennium, a gradual revitalization of interest in translations of Russian and, gradually, Ukrainian literature.

In all components of the assessment the student must achieve a minimum of 60% success rate. Grading Scale: 100-90: A 89-85: B 84-75: C 74-70: D 69-60: E 59-0: FX The exact date and topic of the midterm will be announced at the beginning of the semester. The instructor will accept a maximum of 2 excused absences. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): Course grade scale (continuous/final): 100/00
Learning outcomes: The course has the character of a theoretical interpretation accompanied by an illustration from translation practice, i.e. the realisation of a translation text and its introduction in the publishing sphere, and it counts on the active participation of students who will develop a publishing proposal for the translation of a work of art at the end of the course. The lecture part will concentrate on providing an elementary overview of theories of translation and, on their basis, will address the key problems that an artistic translator may encounter. One of the aims is to orient OPT students and help them to develop their own conception of translation, to develop an acceptable translation method and to acquire the necessary skills in communicating with the publishing environment.
Class syllabus: 1. What is the purpose of translation theory; how does its knowledge help in translation; theory as a key to text interpretation, types of translation theories; 2. Empirical reflection on translation; pre-theoretical concepts; translation theory and its systematization;

3. Key issues in artistic translation 1: translatability vs. untranslatability, invariant and variant components of the text, translation unit, language and style, equivalence and shifts;
4. Key issues in artistic translation 2: time and space in translation - historicization vs. actualization, exoticization vs. naturalization, obsolescence of translation and the need for new translation, intertextuality and translation
5. Genological considerations of translation and access to the text;
6. The subject of translation - the translator, competence, concept and method of translation; visibility vs. invisibility of the translator; types of translators; sociological turn in translatology;
7. Recipient of translation - reader, types of reader; selection of text for translation as a manifestation of cultural attitude;
8. Translation and the publishing environment;
9. The role of the translator as a mediator of another culture; knowledge and competences;
10. Current publishing practice in Slovakia and artistic translation.
- 11.-12. Discussions with prominent Slovak art translators
