COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2025/2026
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Law
Course ID: PraF.KOP/mPRVx17-905/25	Course title: Applied civil law
Educational activities: Type of activities: training session Number of hours: per week: per level/semester: 28s Form of the course: on-site learning, combined
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 2.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Ongoing assessment 100% Ongoing assessment (written papers and active participation in seminars): 60% - preparation of a final written submission or case study: 40% Classification scale: A/1 = 91 – 100%; B/1.5 = 81-90%; C/2 = 73-80%; D/2.5 = 66-72%; E/3 = 60-65%; FX = 0-59% During the examination, the student can use all available sources of legal information, especially uncommented legal regulations, commentaries, jurisprudence, legal literature and legal information systems.
Learning outcomes: Knowledge: Students will acquire a deep interdisciplinary overview that connects civil law with other areas of the legal system (e.g., constitutional, administrative, commercial, and international law), taking into account the influence of European and international law in solving practical problems in civil law. Skills: The interdisciplinary nature of the course, i.e., the combination of substantive and procedural law, is also reflected in the student's ability to comprehensively solve practical cases, draft legal submissions, and argue legal cases after completing the course, thereby fulfilling the course's objective of preparing students for the requirements of professional practice. Students will therefore address standard issues in an above-standard manner, requiring them to work with all sources of legal information when solving practical assignments. Students are able to independently analyze complex legal situations and develop qualified proposals for their resolution, effectively applying legislation, case law, and legal doctrine. They are able to combine substantive and procedural aspects in a specific case (e.g., contractual relationships and their judicial enforcement), propose practical solutions that also take into account the strategy of conducting a dispute or alternative solutions. They are skilled at communicating with clients and other participants in legal relationships or civil proceedings, understand their needs, and are able to draft the necessary documents, lawsuits, proposals, contracts, legal analyses, and opinions in a form that is understandable to the lay public. They are able to make qualified decisions even with incomplete or conflicting information, with an emphasis on ethical and social responsibility. They know how to argue legally and in terms of values, taking into account the broader implications of legal solutions. Responsibility and independence: Students are able to competently apply the relevant legal norms of civil law, case law, and legal doctrine in interdisciplinary contexts to complex and complicated case studies. They are prepared to immediately produce high-quality legal outputs in the public administration, judiciary, and private sectors related to the provision of legal services, with an emphasis on precision, practicality, and social responsibility. They are able to critically reflect on ethical dilemmas that arise, for example, in conflicts of interest, confidentiality protection, representation of vulnerable clients, or balancing the legal and moral aspects of a case. They are able to justify their decisions credibly and convincingly, with an emphasis on legal correctness and humanity.

Teaching that also takes into account the requirements of practical application in the areas of the judiciary, public prosecution, and legal professions, which are supervised by the Ministry of Justice of the Slovak Republic.

Class syllabus:

When solving practical tasks, submissions, and analyses, the course will focus mainly on:

1. General part of the Civil Code (legal acts and their validity) I
2. General part of the Civil Code (legal acts and their validity) II
3. Family law I
4. Family law II
5. Family law III
6. Property rights I
7. Property rights II
8. Inheritance law I
9. Inheritance law II
10. Inheritance law III
11. Contractual relationships and liability for damages I
12. Contractual relationships and liability for damages II
13. Contractual relationships and liability for damages III

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2025/2026
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Law
Course ID: PraF.KOP-KTPKK-KSEP/ mPRVx17-913/25	Course title: Evidence
Educational activities: Type of activities: training session Number of hours: per week: per level/semester: 26s Form of the course: on-site learning, combined
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester: 3.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: Interim evaluation: 100 %, assessing the quality of the written record of the taking of evidence and the oral taking of evidence, as well as the processing of the evidentiary situation into a well-reasoned decision. In the examination, the student may use all available sources of legal information, in particular uncommented legislation, commentaries, case law, legal literature and legal information systems. Grading scale: A/1 = 91-100%; B/1.5 =81-90%; C/2 = 73-80%; D/2.5 = 66-72%; E: 60-65%, Fx: 0-59%. Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100/0
Learning outcomes: A) Knowledge: After completing the course, students will have broad knowledge of individual means of evidence and their possible use in criminal proceedings, administrative proceedings, and civil proceedings. Students will have cross-sectional knowledge of individual areas and will be able to define the differences in evidence in individual branches of law. Students will know the theoretical basis of individual means of evidence and will be able to define the results that can be obtained and expected from these means of evidence. B) Skills: Students are able to question and argue the persuasiveness and validity of evidence in individual proceedings. In particular, they are able to propose the use of individual means of evidence in court proceedings, check the legality of this evidence, its relevance to the case, and its connection to other evidence. The student is able to critically evaluate the results of evidence, argue for their correctness or incorrectness, and appropriately use the tools of the relevant procedural rules to achieve the desired results of the proceedings. C) Responsibility and independence: The student is particularly qualified to create a comprehensive procedural strategy for evidence. Students are able to choose the most appropriate means of evidence from a range of options and decide for themselves on their relevance to criminal, administrative, or civil proceedings. Students master the tactics of evidence and the possibilities of intervening in it from the perspective of individual legal professions, as well as how to argue in court proceedings to support their claims.

Teaching that also takes into account the requirements of practical application in the areas of the judiciary, public prosecution, and legal professions, which are supervised by the Ministry of Justice of the Slovak Republic.

Class syllabus:

1. Concept and object of the law of evidence. Basic concepts of the law of evidence, terminological differences from the point of view of several legal disciplines. Comparison of the principles relating to evidence in selected proceedings before public authorities, with an emphasis on the issues of the distribution of the burden of proof and the burden of proof between the procedural subjects and the consequences of their failure to do so.
2. Tactics, ethics, speed and economy of evidence - what evidence to propose and when to propose it; legal and ethical limits to the tactics of evidence; identification of necessary evidence by the public authority and its activities aimed at speed and economy of evidence.
3. Questioning the accused/party/litigant
4. Questioning of witnesses
5. Methods and tactics of conducting the interrogation.
6. Confrontation. Recognition.
7. Professional and expert activity.
8. Documentary and physical evidence
9. Inspection, reconstruction.
10. Documentation of evidence, taking of evidence. Evaluation of the evidence and its projection into the decision. Dealing with the results of the evidence in the reasoning of the decision and dealing with evidence proposed but not taken.
11. Forensic expertise in the field of computer crime
12. Simulation of the taking of evidence I
13. Simulation of Evidence Execution II
14. Simulation of the evaluation of evidence and the formulation of the reasoning of a decision to the extent that it relates to evidence
