COURSE DESCRIPTION

Academic year: 2026/2027
University: Comenius University Bratislava
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Course ID: FiF.KKSF/A-moKF-041/25	Course title: Latinitas viva I
Educational activities: Type of activities: seminar Number of hours: per week: 2 per level/semester: 28 Form of the course: on-site learning
Number of credits: 4
Recommended semester: 1., 3.
Educational level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course requirements: During the semester active participation in the seminar and the preparation of partial tasks regarding the topic of a particular lesson: e.g. the preparation of a thematic vocabulary, watching of a short Latin video, reading of a short Latin text, which will be the focus of a discussion during the lesson, etc. The assesment reflects the active work of a student during the lessons and their overall Latin language competence acquired in the course of the seminar. Two absences are allowed during the semester. As a consequence of the violation of academic ethics, the points acquired throughout the semester will be cancelled. Ongoing assesment: 100 / 0 % Scale of assessment (preliminary/final): 100% / 0%
Learning outcomes: After successfully completing the course, the students will expand their Latin vocabulary not only from classical Latin, but especially from modern Latin, which will eventually enable them to communicate in Latin on common topics that are relevant even today. At the same time, the students will gain experience in reading and interpreting not only ancient but also modern Latin texts, especially contemporary Latin-language literature in translation for young adults. Class work will enable them to improve their understanding of spoken Latin text through listening to Latin podcasts and videos, and subsequently to communicate in Latin using the direct method.
Class syllabus: 1. Familiarization with the content of the seminar and with the literature, presentation of its individual topics in a simple style in Latin. Students will introduce themselves and present their expectations through simple questions and a questionnaire prepared in Latin. 2. Peregrinatio I. - Youth travel for study and work. A look at student life during the Roman Empire based on a short text from the Aulus Gellius, Noctes Atticae. 3. Peregrinatio II. - Vita academica domi forisque: Advantages and disadvantages of studying abroad, discussion on the topic against the background of reading short medieval vagant songs

- (Carmina Burana). Presentation of the study in Latin at the Vivarium Novum Institute (Italy) with listening to a short Latin video and songs from their production.
4. Vita quotidiana I.: Cibi et potus - Discussion of what we eat and drink, the differences in gastronomy in ancient Rome and today, against the background of a short passage from the Latin epic on chocolate (Tommaso Strozzi, De mentis potu sive de Cocolatis opificio).
 5. Vita quotidiana II: Cibi et potus - On the culture of wine drinking in Antiquity, Humanism and today based on the reading of a short Latin passage from Vincent Obsopoeus' De arte bibendi.
 6. Tempus Liberum I. - Pelliculas Spectamus - Watching a short Latin film about Cicero's life and family (O tempora, o mores) based on prepared vocabulary and questions about the video, followed by discussion.
 7. Tempus Liberum II. - Reading a short passage from Cicero's letter from the time of his exile depicting his free time activities (Cicero, Epistulae morales ad Atticum), and followed by a discussion on how young people spend their leisure time today using prepared vocabulary.
 8. Acta diurna I. - Discussion of current domestic or world issues based on short Latin news (Nuntii Latini).
 9. Acta diurna II. - Reading entertaining articles from Latin newspapers (Ius Aureum, Ioci Latini), Latin jokes, etc.
 10. Seneca Philosophus ad iuvenes - Reading a short excerpt from Seneca's life, followed by a discussion of his famous sayings, also relevant for young people today (Tacitus, Annales XV; Ius Aureum, etc.).
 11. Latine Loquimur I. - Work with Latin podcasts on the basis of prepared vocabulary and questions on the text listened to, followed by discussion (Satura Lanx / Rara avis).
 12. Latine Loquimur II. - Work with Latin podcasts based on prepared vocabulary and questions on the text listened to, followed by discussion (Satura Lanx / Rara Avis / Noctes Vratislavienses and others as needed).
